The prodigal of his debt.

To pass, sometime in distance; And to succeed, but he remains; The coroner's assistance.

But who wants to mend matters in that way?

Urs. Starkey & Phelan's office records show over 4,000 different cases in which their Compound Oxygen Treatment has been used by physicians in their practice and by invalids independently, to relieve various ailments.

Here are a few of those cured of desperate (long trouble by its use):

Thos. J. Harbour, Hobbs Ferry, N. Y., August 17, 1888.

Ellen Rogers, 218 Monticelli, Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. L. McCall, Greenfield, N. H., October 10, 1888.

Mrs. E. N. Hunt, New Rochelle, N. Y., October 10, 1888.

Mrs. J. Allen Park, Woodrow, S. C., Oct. 10, 1888.

Mrs. M. D. Duboye, West Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

And thousands of others in all parts of the country.

You may know whom they have cured by sending to Mrs. Starkey and Phelan for the Compound Oxygen Treatment, which will be forwarded free of charge to any one of the following addresses: Mrs. Starkey & Phelan, No. 1529 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A Wisconsin Hotel Destroyed.

STEVENS POINT, June 7.—The Stevens Hotel, near the Wisconsin Central, was destroyed by fire last evening and was totally destroyed with all its contents. The night clerk, Charles H. Smith, and two of the girls, Maggie Kelly and one known as Nettie, are missing, and there is little doubt that all three are dead. The two first named were on the second floor when the fire started, and came down, but went back to secure their wearing apparel. All who escaped saved nothing but what they had on their persons. The station and adjacent buildings to the hotel were saved with hard work. A number of traveling men lost their baggage and samples. The loss is $125,000, insurance, $10,000.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Colonel James G. Burt, for twenty years a director of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, said this evening that the canal will probably be foreclosed and sold by auction. The largest holder of an interest in the Canal Company, Colonel Burt, said that the canal will probably be foreclosed and sold by auction. The largest holder of an interest in the Canal Company, Colonel Burt, said that the canal will probably be foreclosed and sold by auction.

SEATTLE, W. T., June 7.—A conflagration was raging here last night. Four blocks of buildings were burning, and the fire was spreading rapidly. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

Father and son shot.

SHREVEPORT, La., June 7.—George Farmer and his son, John, were shot and killed by a party of hunters in the woods near Shreveport, Louisiana, on Wednesday night. The father was shot in the chest and the son was shot in the back. Both died of their wounds.

Wanamakers.

PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1889.

The 28c Albatross will wind up with the week. That's the way it looks now. As memorable an event in Dress Goods selling as we ever knew of.

The stuff is ending like the "One Horse Shny" with nearly all the colors in stock.

One of the busiest, best-kept places in the store is where the new-priced Printed Mohairs are. 37c up.

Whatever kind of a rig the well-dressed man cares for. We have it. Ready made. But nine times in ten you'd never mistrust from cut or make or fit that it wasn't made to order.

Look at two suits: Wide wale Cheviot Serge, dark blue, fast color; dressy, fashionable, and the price $15!

Fine wool, peppered with glinting specks of silk thread; two shades of color—a sort of indistinct herring-bone stripe. You touch it, your finger tips sense the worth, $16.50.

You get a notion from these of what we mean our Men's Clothing business to be. We are up to the mark almost everywhere.

Take Trousers. To work in or go to church in. For tall men or short, or fat or slim. Shapes and stuffs and prices are right.

Of course the Boys' side doesn't sag. We're thinking of them as well as of the men.

Jerseys. Odds and ends at less than cost. 75 cents to $2.50.

Second floor, Chestnut street side. Five elevators.

A little lot White Lawn Dresses for Misses and Children have been rumpled and soiled. One washing and they'll be all right. We give you half the price to do the washing. Yesterday $1.50 to $8. To-day 75c to $4.

Second floor, Chestnut street side. Five elevators.

Men's French-toe Calf Waukenphasts, "full common sense," hand welt. That means as easy and good a Shoe as ninety-nine out of a hundred men care for. Comfort and wear-worth. Regular price $6. To-day we make the price $5. Like giving you $1 cash with each pair. Sizes 6 to 9. All widths.

What are left of the Women's $3 Kid Shoes (lately $6) are in broken sizes. No easier way to make money than to find a pair that fits.

Market street front, west of main aisle.

Another number of the new "Tella" Corsets. French Cut, all bone, and que dollar! We don't know of another imported Corset so good for less than $1.50.

Second floor, first gallery, Juniper street side.

Ice Cream frozen solid in six minutes and a half. Of course it is the "Gem" that does it. You can see it done. To-day's work will be on vanilla and banana cream, frozen strawberries and frozen custards. 2 to 14 quart, $1.50 to $6.25.
