

K. K. THREATENS TO SPLIT CHURCH

Dr. Straton's Proposal to Oust Dr. Haywood May Bring Complications

LATTER DEMANDS PROMPT HEARING

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Defiantly the Ku Klux Klan lifted its head to hurl at Calvary Baptist Church a threat to split its membership and, perhaps, throw it into serious litigation if the church dares attempt to carry out its pastor's announced purpose to remove the office of general evangelist the Rev. Oscar Haywood, national lecturer for the Klan, Heretofore Dr. Haywood has refused "to be drawn into a controversy" with the Rev. John Roach Straton, pastor of Calvary, but Dr. Straton's published announcement that he will call a membership meeting to get rid of the Klan lecturer as general evangelist, made him change his mind with the result that the church now faces either an unpleasant fight to get rid of a Klan leader, or the necessity for permitting a Klansman to remain as its evangelist.

Dr. Haywood sent to the board of trustees of Calvary the following letter:

"Dr. Straton having made a published statement to the effect that he intends to call a meeting of the members of Calvary Baptist Church for the purpose of dispossessing me of the office of evangelist, I shall state herein that I claim the right of a formal notice of such meeting and an opportunity to be heard."

In explaining his determination to wage a bitter fight against his threatened removal Dr. Haywood made this startling disclosure:

"It has been seriously planned as a part of the Ku Klux Klan program in New York to organize here a Klan composed entirely of Protestant ministers. Already I have broached the proposition of two Protestant clergymen, and they have approved and promised their support. I believe it will be successful and that we are on the eve of a great victory."

"Why, the imperial klizard, one of the national officers of the Klan, is Dr. William J. Mahoney, for many years pastor of the First Baptist Church at Gulfport, Miss., and also a member of one of the denominational boards of the Southern Baptists. The Klan's imperial wizard, William Joseph Simmons, is a Methodist minister and was for years a professor in the University of Georgia."

"I shall strenuously oppose being ousted as evangelist of Calvary Baptist Church, on the ground that my activities in behalf of the Klan are no reason for my dismissal. There is nothing in the policy or program of the Klan which is not compatible with church membership or holding office in a church."

"Hundreds of Protestant ministers are members. In one Texas city 30 Protestant clergymen are members of the local Klan."

When the Collegiate Church, of which Dr. Haywood was pastor, was merged with Calvary Baptist, there was an agreement, it is said, in which Dr. Haywood, although losing his pastorate by the consolidation was to be made general evangelist of Calvary Baptist. If he is ousted from that office there is a possibility that the whole consolidation agreement may be forced open again, including its financial features.

WOODS BURN NEAR CONVENT

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 27.—Forest fires swept many acres along the Fraser line between Green Hill and Frazer, and destroyed a large amount of fencing and much small timber. One fire that burned over a large tract near the new convent at Immaculata, was fought by residents and convent employees for several hours before being extinguished.

MOVIES BULL STUDY OF LATIN

Educators Find It Difficult to Keep Students Thinking

TO BE DISCUSSED AT CITY CONFERENCE

The difficulties that confront the teacher of Latin today in competing with moving pictures, athletics, dramatics, both inside and outside the school, to persuade the pupils that they have brains as well as brawn, will be one of the many discussions that will take place at the coming session of the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools to be held at Tower Hill School next Friday and Saturday, and to which every one is invited. This section which is of interest to educators is that over which Dr. Bessie R. Burchett, head of the department of foreign languages, of the South Philadelphia High School for Girls, will preside. The discussion will deal with Latin classes, and the purpose of the symposium will be to try and bring out some new line of thought as to the best way to interest and keep the interest of the student in the cultivation of the mind along higher channels, such as is provided in Latin.

In speaking of the topic, Dr. Burchett says: "Teachers of Latin are not left free to lead their classes along as they choose. They may not follow their inclinations in teaching only such grammatical points as appeal to them, or in reading only such authors as suit their personal taste, or the taste of pupils as the teachers perceive it to be, or consider that it ought to be."

OVER SUNDAY ACCIDENTS.

Frederick Wanles, 25, 917 Vandover avenue, suffered lacerations about the head and shoulders, when he fell from a freight car, in the Edge Moor yards Saturday night. He was taken to the Delaware Hospital in the police ambulance.

Thomas Hannon, colored, 267 Delaware Place, was run down by an automobile operated by Dominick

Callahan and have their origin in different sources. In general these are: College entrance requirements; examinations for scholarships; courses of study, prescribed by State or local authorities; textbooks adopted by State or by local boards, and so forced upon the individual teacher and school.

"Needless to say, all these restrictions apply also to other subjects. The question is, do the teachers of Latin find these restrictions, especially those imposed by college entrance requirements, a help in maintaining a standard of excellence in their work, or do they find them a hindrance?"

"Another problem to be discussed is that of the proper time to begin the reading of Latin authors. The problem is somewhat different from that found in the study of modern languages, for the Romans wrote no easy stories for children, such as exist in French and Spanish. The Romans had learned to read Latin and Vergil, and other authors, whose works are in no sense juveniles. Would it be better, therefore, for our pupils to postpone their attacks upon Latin authors until they have mastered all the principles of syntax, or should they begin to read rather early, and learn their grammatical rules as they come to illustrations of them?"

"There is the question, too, of the amount to be read in each term. Will the pupils acquire more facility by reading much as rapidly as possible, or by slow plodding through a few pages learning every word in them? If the college entrance requirements demanded less reading to be done, would this amount be done more thoroughly or would even the little that might be required be done superficially?"

DELAWARE HOSPITAL ASKS FOR DONATIONS

Tomorrow and Wednesday will be donation days at the Delaware Hospital. Among the articles needed are fruits, vegetables, jams, jellies, groceries, books, canteen flannel for the use of babies, vases and baskets for holding flowers, chairs, Victrola records and a Victrola.

Delaware Hospital has had an average of 20 free patients a day for the past year and the free day's service during that time has been 7200. These have been city patients and not from outside the city limits, nor does this include the free dispensary service. All gifts are most acceptable at this time.

Clocatell, 1901 Shallcross avenue, at Fourth and West streets, Saturday night. He is at the Delaware Hospital. His injuries are not considered serious.

Lena Lee, colored, aged 18 years, of Newport, became ill at Eighth and Church streets, yesterday afternoon, and was removed to the Delaware Hospital, where she is held for observation.

Mrs. Catherine Hays, 54, 817 Washington street, fell at Seventh and Washington streets, yesterday morning, fracturing her right leg. She is at the Delaware Hospital.

Why Corns?

Blue-jay to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in thin plasters. The action is the same.
