Joint of the Fingers Were Sore and Stiff From the Rheumatism

IS GIVEN RELIEF BY PLANT JUICE

A great many people in all parts of the United States have given public testimonials regarding the relief Plant Juice gave them from the terrible aches and pains of rheumatic trouble. Just recently, Mrs. Frank Fanaff, of 831 Oak street, Lima,

Ohio, gave the following surprising testimonial to The Plant Juice Man, in which she told of blessed relief the Plant Juice had given her from rheumatism.

"I had the 'flu' two years ago," said Mrs. Fanaff, "and since then I had suffered terribly from rheumatism and kidney trouble. I had pains in my back and head and at times the joints in my knees and fingers were stiff and some of the joints of my fingers would be so sore that I could not close up my hands. At times I suffered from gas in my stomach.

"I read about your Plant Juice and started taking it and results are just wonderful. The pains are leaving my back and head and the stiffness and soreness of the joints of my knees and fingers is greatly relieved so that I can close my hands naturally. The truth is that I am feeling like a new woman, and I can't say enough for Plant Juice, because I had taken so many other medicines without relief. I am glad to recommend your Plant Juice to others."

DR. SNUFFLES' SURPRISE

"Well now, what is it this time, Dr. Snuffles?" asked the Green Wizard kindly.

A week after Dr. Snuffles paid his first visit to the Green Wizard, he came again.

"Ting-a-ling-a-ling," went the doornail of the big pine-tree where the Wizard lived.

Nancy answered it, as she had before. Dr. Snuffles climbed the steep stairs, the Green Wizard said how-do-you-do and Nick set a chair—exactly as it had happened before.

"Well now, what is it this time, Dr. Snuffles?" asked the Green Wizard kindly. "What can I do for you? Didn't my magic medicine cure all your patients?"

"Yes, yes indeed!" said Dr. Snuffles. "It was wonderful! Mrs. Rabbit said her dyspepsia was completely gone. The only trouble was that now she had her appetite, the lettuce and green stuff were gone, too. The sassa-patch garden is as brown as a potato. She'll have to wait until spring for a good square meal."

"Did it cure anybody else?" asked the Wizard.

"Land yes! Old Mr. Mud Turtle is completely over his hay-fever, Philip Frog's rheumatism just seemed to melt away. Mary Muskrat did the entire washing without once feeling her lumbago, and Billy Beaver's tooth only gave one jump. The next time, after taking your magic medicine, the ache jumped clear out of the window."

"That's just fine," answered the Green Wizard. "But it's curious, too, Dr. Snuffles. Quite curious! Do you know that magic medicine was only nice clear spring water. It was the label that did the work. When folks think they're taking magic medicine they get well lots faster. They just 'imagine themselves well!'"

"Well I declare!" exclaimed Dr. Snuffles in amazement. "I'm going the monthly business meeting following the weekly drill."

Miss Elizabeth Klingmeyer, of Bisbay, N. C., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klingmeyer, of West Fourth street.

right now to tell them. They all got so well I had to take down my shingle. Now I can tack it up again sure as anything. Good-day, sir!"
