

THE WEATHER

Rain today and Sunday; warmer temperature above freezing, fresh east to south winds.

The Evening Journal

"THE FIRST NEWSPAPER OF THE FIRST CITY OF THE FIRST STATE."

FIRST IN NEWS CIRCULATION ADVERTISING CIRCULATION YESTERDAY 20,582

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR. NO. 190

16 PAGES.

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1923

FINAL EDITION

TWO CENTS.

EXPECT GERMAN ATTACK ON FRENCH IN RUHR; MILITARY GUARDS ARREST COAL BARONS

STATE POLICE PROPOSED IN SENATE BILL

Hardesty Measure Provides for New Department of 13 Members

WOULD DO AWAY WITH HIGHWAY FORCE

DOVER, Jan. 20.—Carrying out his plan announced several days ago...

INCREASE IN LIVING COST, TEMPORARY

Hoover Blames Seasonal Conditions and Abnormal Factors

DECREASE IN FOOD COSTS LAST YEAR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (United Press).—An unusual increase in the cost of living in the last three months...

Scenes in Ruhr Invasion

This photograph, just received in this country, shows the actual French military penetration of the German industrial region. Here a co-shown police, fully equipped, entraining at Dusseldorf for Essen.

GERMANS CHAFING UNDER RUHR INVASION; EXPECTED TO STRIKE BACK AT FRENCH

ITALY READY TO MEDIATE FOR PEACE

Mussolini Believes Ruhr Occupation by French Is War Breeder

UNITED STATES SAID TO APPROVE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Italy has made a virtual offer of mediation to bring about settlement of the reparations and Ruhr crisis...

Allied Authorities Informed Secret Organizations Are Rushing Arms Into Rhineland—Paris Fears Attempt at Coup.

JAIL PENALTIES FOR REFUSAL TO OBEY POILUS' ARMY ORDERS

LONDON, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Allied authorities have been informed that German secret organizations are preparing an attack on all allied troops occupying the Ruhr...

PARIS, Jan. 20 (United Press).—The French high command has information that leads it to fear the Germans will attempt a coup in the Ruhr...

ESSEN, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Fritz Thyssen, industrial leader, and five German coal barons were arrested by the French today and transported under armed guard to Dusseldorf.

PARIS, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Coblenz dispatches today said the inhabitants are feeling very despondent over departure of the American army of occupation...

LONDON, Jan. 20 (United Press).—French in the Ruhr arrested telegraph and telephone officials who refused to obey orders, according to a Central News Berlin dispatch today.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 20.—League of Nations officials expected the league to be called upon eventually to provide France with a "dignified way out" of the reparations and Ruhr situations...

HANOVER, Jan. 20 (United Press).—The hotel owners convention today ordered hotels throughout Germany to refuse to house French and Belgians.

with the children, stifled by the hot smoke and fumes. Her husband tracked on the third floor, leaped to the sidewalk. He landed on his back and is in the hospital in a dying condition.

The blaze started in a coffee house on the ground floor and swept through the structure rapidly cutting off all avenues of escape.

Fifty persons were in the burning tenement. Many of them were trapped and crouching to await death, when the fire department rescues squads entered.

The people were then led with difficulty through the dark, smoke-filled hallways by police and firemen.

The bodies of Isaac Reysha and his son, Roman, were found in the cellar of the building. It was believed they passed the first floor in the dense smoke and found themselves trapped in the cellar.

Their bodies were burned almost beyond recognition. The body of Mrs. Kaleid was found on the third floor.

with the children, stifled by the hot smoke and fumes. Her husband tracked on the third floor, leaped to the sidewalk. He landed on his back and is in the hospital in a dying condition.

The blaze started in a coffee house on the ground floor and swept through the structure rapidly cutting off all avenues of escape.

Fifty persons were in the burning tenement. Many of them were trapped and crouching to await death, when the fire department rescues squads entered.

The people were then led with difficulty through the dark, smoke-filled hallways by police and firemen.

The bodies of Isaac Reysha and his son, Roman, were found in the cellar of the building. It was believed they passed the first floor in the dense smoke and found themselves trapped in the cellar.

Their bodies were burned almost beyond recognition. The body of Mrs. Kaleid was found on the third floor.

TO START SOON FOR PALESTINE

William Topkis to Study Conditions There on Six Months' Visit

TO MAKE STATE SCOUTS THE BEST

Friends of Boys Want Them to Live Up to "First State" Ideals

DEATH CALLS RAIL VETERAN

Thomas G. Pennington, Retired P. & R. Conductor, Succumbs to Grip

NO INTENTION TO QUIT WILMINGTON

A desire to help his unfortunate co-religionists who have not the opportunity to settle in America, but who can make their homes in Palestine, is the reason actuating William Topkis...

ARE DINNER GUESTS OF HENRY P. SCOTT

It is my earnest wish that the coming year shall be the biggest in the history of the Boy Scout movement," declared Henry P. Scott, president of the Wilmington Trust Company...

ON ONE RAILROAD FORTY-FIVE YEARS

Thomas G. Pennington, aged 70 years, widely known retired passenger conductor of the Wilmington and Northern division of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Ellis, 2410 Pennsylvania avenue...

HARRISON VIGILANTES TO TAKE UP GOVERNMENT REINS AGAIN NEXT WEEK

HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 20 (United Press).—Vigilantes who seized control of the government in Northern Arkansas took a vacation today after a week of flogging and other outbreaks following the lynching of E. C. Greger.

300 RAIL STRIKERS FLEE IN FEAR

The mass of farmers and business men who gathered Monday to probe alleged sabotage acts of strikers against the Missouri and North Arkansas Railroad drifted back to their homes for a short rest before taking up the reins of government again next week.

HUNT ACTOR AS DANCER KILLER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Fritz Mann, dancer, whose half-clad body washed ashore on the Torrey Pines beach, was thrown into the surf while she was still alive, police believed today.

DOCTOR'S LETTERS FIGURE IN MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20 (United Press).—Fritz Mann, dancer, whose half-clad body washed ashore on the Torrey Pines beach, was thrown into the surf while she was still alive, police believed today.

TO TRY MORE FOR HERRIN MURDERS

MARION, Ill., Jan. 20 (United Press).—Williamson county today prepared for the second of the murder trials growing out of the Herrin massacre last June.

RAIN, SNOW

Weather outlook for the period January 22 to 27, inclusive: North and Middle Atlantic States, considerable cloudiness, rains over the Middle Atlantic and rains and snows over the North Atlantic States...

NEGRO ASSAILANT GETS TWO YEARS

DOVER, Jan. 20.—Before Judge Harrington today Cordova Cannon, Negro who murderously assaulted Lewis Kollick also a Negro, some weeks ago pleaded guilty to assault and battery. He was sentenced to two years in the New Castle County Workhouse.

12 FREE MOVIE TICKETS

In the classified columns each day, will be found the names of six persons who are invited to see the leading moving picture shows.

PHONE SAYS "MURDER!" COPS NONPLUSED

Cries of "Murder! Help!" coming over the telephone at the police station last night caused considerable excitement as it was thought that some one might be murdered.

ASSAULTED BOSS WHO "FIRED" HIM

Because a foreman of the paint shop at the Pullman Shops discharged him, Percy W. Kerr, when he met his former boss on the way to work this morning, gripped him by the throat with both hands...

COP SHOT WHILE MAN RAN TO HIM

"The officer shot at me but I don't know why, for I didn't run away from him; I ran toward him."

SUSPECT HIM AS HOTEL BURGLAR

J. C. Williams, Caught at Easton, Pa., Had Jewelry, Hid Money

THINK HE ROBBED DUPONT GUESTS

Detectives arrested in Easton, Pa., yesterday a man giving the name of J. C. Williams, 25 years, who is believed by the local police to be the man who went through the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Offerman, of Troy, N. Y., at the Hotel DuPont on January 8, taking jewelry valued at $1,500.

BURNING OIL ENVELOPS HIM

William Klotz in Flames While Filling Auto Truck Tank

URBANSKI IN ROLE OF HERO

Attempting to extinguish flames that enveloped an automobile tank belonging to the Atlantic Refining Company, that was being filled with oil at Sycamore and Harrison streets, yesterday afternoon, William Klotz, 2632 West street, the operator, was seriously burned about the legs and arms.

466 CONTAGIOUS DISEASE VICTIMS

Not since the "flu" epidemic, four years ago, has the Board of Health had so many cases of contagious diseases to handle, the total number of all such diseases now numbering 466.

MEN'S CLUB TO HAVE "STUNT NIGHT"

The Men's Club of West Presbyterian Church will feature its monthly meeting in the church parlors on next Tuesday night with a "stunt night" program.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE

At the Evening Journal office: 5.00 A. M., 34; 12.00 P. M., 41; 1.00 P. M., 38; 1.00 P. M., 42

SUN AND TIDE

Sun rises 7:19 A. M. Sun sets 5:02 P. M. Head of Christians 2:00 A. M. 2:28 A. M. Low water 9:40 A. M. 10:15 P. M.

LOST

LOST—On Wednesday, two dollar and a half gold piece charm. Reward if returned to George K. Ball, Marshall's Office.

(Continued on Page Fifteen.)