WILMINGTON, DEL., NOVEMBER 25, 1873.

Latest General News.

The war feeling in Washington seems to be on the decline, although naval preparations are active as ever, and large numbers of ironclads are being detailed for duty daily.

Governor Osborne, of Texas, has appointed Robert Crozier, of Leavenworth, United States senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator John J. Caldwell.

A. L. Roberts and Valentine Green were yesterday arraigned at the New York court and terminated on four indictments for bond forfeiture. There are six other indictments against them also in the court of general sessions.

A. J. Grant, a prominent Democratic member of the New York Legislature, was arrested yesterday, on a bench warrant, on two separate charges of grand larceny in connection with the Erie canal bonds.

The Spanish ship of war Arapiles left the Brooklyn yard yesterday morning and dropped down to the battery, preparatory to sailing for Cuba. Her repairs are complete.

The Messrs Cramp, of Philadelphia, have a contract with the Navy department, to repair the ironclad Monitor, the John A. Rodgers, of Chester, to repair the Navy's coal steamer.

President Grant has received a dispatch from Captain General Jovellari assuring the same government that the authority of the republic will be forever in Cuba.

E. L. King, formerly president of the New York stock exchange, has been elected president of the Union trust company, and J. H. Ogilvie secretary.

In New York, Messrs. E. D. Randolph & Co. resumed business yesterday, having settled up their indebtedness resulting from the September troubles.

The whole number of hogs slaughtered in Cincinnati from the 1st to the 22d of November was 137,200.

A number of the boats recently frozen in on the Erie Canal are expected to reach tide-water today.

The Spanish press complain that enemies of Spain tell graph false news to the United States.

Whatever may be done as to Cuba, there will be a general attack on Turkey, on Thursday.

Arbitration and settlement seemed to be in favor of New Castle, yesterday, as well as in Rome. The trial list melted away, under the genius influence of the Peace Policy.

We are encouraged to expect, from the very earnest opinions which Mr. Crozier has expressed in reference to the selection of his substitutes, that, in the event of a vacancy in the Post Office here, he will satisfy the public demand by appointing an unexceptionable and competent person, thus adhering to the principles of Civil Service Reform, and serving the best interests of the community and of the administration.

The Webster-Inley Murder Trial. The trial of McCallister for the murder of his father-in-law, Inley, which has been in progress at Cambridge, Md., for some days past, was concluded yesterday by a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The evidence left little doubt as to the guilt of the prisoner, and the jury actually committed the killing but hardly gave sufficient proof of the premeditation and lying in wait, which is usually considered necessary to justify a capital conviction.

Amusements. "DAPHNE BOONE," ON THURSDAY NIGHT. On Thursday evening next, the play of Daniel Boone will be produced at the Opera House by Mr. J. A. Stephens, supported by Miss Carlotta, and a full troupe of accomplished artists.

The play of Daniel Boone is an historical one, and founded upon the incidents of the South-west of the pioneer in Kentucky. It will be a production of rare interest and value, and it will, to the days, when we all as school children read of Daniel Boone's hair-breadth escapes among the mountains of the Alleghenies, and his hand-to-hand encounter with the red-skins in the woods with his rifle, and his daring adventures, his noble character, his heroic efforts and stirring incidents, and in his presentation will be accompanied by all the stage effects which go to lighten the scenes as they are presented. The performance will conclude with a beautiful allegory, which is destined to be the same of substance.

The performance of Daniel Boone will be repeated on Friday evening and on Saturday evening the successful play of Ziva & Ziva will be presented, followed by the legitimate farce of The Sign of the Cross. Secured seats may be obtained at Bouffant's, Thomas & Co.

His Coming to-night—Appearance at the Academy of Music last night. Thomas Nast, who lectures in our Opera House, to-night, told his hearers about caricaturing at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, last night. His audience was an immense one, and was kept in screams of laughter throughout the whole evening.

A Philadelphia paper, speaking of Mr. Nast's caricatures, says that he is a man of great wit and eloquence, and provoked the spectators to unbounded merriment. The caricatures were drawn by a man of great talent, and were placed in a wooden frame, each sheet being removed when covered with the lightest coating of water. The caricatures were thrown through the powerful rays of a reflecting light. To give a coherent report of the "lecture" would require a difficult, and a brief outline will have to suffice.

Mr. Nast said that man is the only animal that can take a joke, (figure of a man enjoying a joke) on the contrary the monkey is a very stupid animal, (picture of a very serious looking ape.) The English think is a very serious nation, (picture of an Englishman in the foreground of a picture.) The speaker also heard much of Garrison, (picture of Andrew Johnson, whom the speaker pronounced the Tennessee Coar.) and would show the caricatures of the present Coar. (figure of an ass's head crowned with laurel.) (figure of a man's head with a crown on his head.) Nast is somewhat under the medium height, well built, has a young girl's face like the moon, a very dark hair and a heavy black mustache and a golden, pleasant but not very far reaching voice, and in manner almost timid.

Philadelphia Topics. The theatres are making money out of pocket. Nast talked and chatted, last evening, to a big audience. Pugb says the Star Course never did better than this season. The Evening Herald has declared independence of the Friends' Union. Katie Dunn, 635 Pine street, 15 years old, is missing. What has Katie gone and does? Browners are about to alter the prices of all from $2 to $3 a barrel. Another blow at the post. The law library of the late Hon. William M. Meredith was partially destroyed by fire Saturday evening. About one-fifth of the men employed at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad station, at Washington, have been discharged.

Four inches of snow fell at Concord, N. H., during Sunday night and yesterday morning.

REV. MR. FOLWELL AND THE DELAWARE AVENUE CHURCH.—A city contemporary having announced the fact that Rev. Mr. Folwell had been asked to resign the pastorate of the Delaware Avenue Baptist church, by a delegation of the congregation, a member of the church has called on us to say that the act of the forward mentioned was unauthorized and self-imposed. The church was not asked to resign, and so no Sunday morning last, at the suggestion of the service brought the matter up and submitted it to a vote of the people. The result was that 123 persons recorded their expressions in favor of his resignation, and 18 persons recorded theirs in opposition. The church was divided, and the pastor was retained, and the fact that after 8 years ministry among his people he has disinterestedly so few persons is not only a token of his popularity but of the personal worth as well.
