

Official returns from 55 counties in Pennsylvania make the majority for the new Constitution, 10,011. It will be nearly 150,000.

The Ohio of the Philadelphia and Liverpool line reached Queenstown yesterday. Her trip was the 8 days and 22 hours.

Huyton and San Domingo are both "agitated" over a change of government. In the latter, they seem to be in a state of confusion.

The New Orleans banks resumed currency payments yesterday. They received no previous notification of the fact.

The Commissioner of Agriculture gives notice that money should never be sent to his department for any purpose.

A Savannah dispatch says the steamship (Canton) has been wrecked on the coast.

The Cairo and Fulton Railroad bridge, across the Arkansas river, at Little Rock, was completed Sunday evening.

At the Opera House this evening, Maggie Mitchell plays the second night of her engagement here.

The Board of Education adopted a proposition last evening, looking toward a long-expected improvement in the financial system.

After the holidays, Congressman Leland proposes to take his family with him to Washington.

Captain A. F. Fugler, who has been in command of the U. S. revenue cutter Hamilton, for some time, is ordered to be detached from that vessel and placed on waiting orders.

Secretary Richardson will leave Washington tomorrow for Boston, where he will remain until Monday.

Mr. Harris, a prominent fur dealer of Baltimore, who died this year, aged 92.

It is reported that the Pullman Co. is erecting a station at Koshkonong in the New York Central Park.

Mr. Pennock Passy, well known in Wilmington, has resigned as Insurance Commissioner of Minnesota, and is succeeded by Mr. A. R. McGill of St. Paul.

The beautiful play by John G. Whittier, on "The Wreck of the 'Argonaut,'" which was published yesterday, referred to, has many of our readers doubtless understood, to the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of John and Hannah Cox of Chester county.

After many recitations, Fanchon remains popular, and Mrs. Patten has again gratified her audience, as she has done so many times before in this and other cities.

The Philadelphia steamship companies have reduced the wages of stewards to twenty cents an hour, and the latter are not to be permitted to work on full time.

Nearly all of the Maryland mills have resumed operations and in a few weeks will be running on full time.

A resolution of wages is threatened for the journeymen tailors of Philadelphia. They are to submit to a reduction.

A meeting of sewing men was held in Chicago on Saturday night, and two minutes were devoted to discussing work from the city, or else support for themselves and families until work could be resumed.

The Philadelphia Church of the Pilgrims and Mission House Church, in Brooklyn, have written a letter to Henry Ward Beecher and the members of Plymouth Church, New York.

The money order department of the Cincinnati post office was robbed yesterday of $50.

A game of billiards was played in New York last evening, between Francis Casey and French canoe, and each contestant was allowed ten minutes.

A game of billiards was played in New York last evening, between Francis Casey and French canoe, and each contestant was allowed ten minutes.

At the twenty-sixth anniversary of the birthday of the Rev. John Chambers, D. D., his congregation presented him with a magnificent box containing several gold dollars, each bearing the date of 1847.

A fire broke out in the winter quarters of Forsyth's menagerie on Sunday night, and the animals were destroyed.

David Nesbit was hanged yesterday, at Lindsay, Ont. For the murder of Miss Hopwood, on the 12th of July last.

At Oberlin, Ohio, on Sunday night, a man named Grant, being "baited" with domestic fowls, fired his shot, which fell on John Bennett, and wound up by stabbing his victim. Grant was arrested.

FIRST EDITION.

PERSONAL AND PARTICULAR.

How to make a slow horse fast.—Don't feed him.

—Mrs. Parrington says she got up every morning at the shrill cawing of the chaffinch.

—Secretary Richardson leaves Washington tomorrow for Boston where he will spend Christmas.

—Springfield, Mass. has an ordinance which imposes a fine on any one "who swears out" any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

—The young man who boasted he could marry any girl he pleased, found that he could not please any.

SECOND EDITION.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

At its 60th monthly meeting, held last evening, the Franklin Loan paid $1000 at 12:30 at 11:30; $1000 at 11:30 at 9 and $400 at 7:30. The State tax, amounting to $302.43, was also recorded to be paid.

A vast amount of express goods is both sent away from and received at this city at present, caused by the approach of the holidays.

Snow fell, this morning, to the depth of about an inch.

A GREAT COMPLIMENT.—A prominent New York printer writes that of over twenty publications similar to "The Weekly," of this city, it is better printed than any of them.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

WILMINGTON, DEL. TUESDAY DECEMBER 23, 1873.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

At its 60th monthly meeting, held last evening, the Franklin Loan paid $1000 at 12:30 at 11:30; $1000 at 11:30 at 9 and $400 at 7:30. The State tax, amounting to $302.43, was also recorded to be paid.

A vast amount of express goods is both sent away from and received at this city at present, caused by the approach of the holidays.

Snow fell, this morning, to the depth of about an inch.

A GREAT COMPLIMENT.—A prominent New York printer writes that of over twenty publications similar to "The Weekly," of this city, it is better printed than any of them.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The Union Loan Office.—A meeting of the patrons and laymen, heretofore named, to arrange for a general communion service in which all evangelists of the city should participate, was held, yesterday, at the residence of the Rev. P. M. Farther, and will be held in Grace Church, on the 12th of January, at 7:30 o'clock.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

FRANK NOBLE, MANAGER.

Christmas Week, CHRISTMAS WEEK, Christmas Week.

Maggie Mitchell! Maggie Mitchell! Maggie Mitchell!

LITTLE BAREFOOT, LITTLE BAREFOOT, LITTLE BAREFOOT.

TO-MORROW NIGHT, PEARL OF SAVOY.

ADMISSION: 75 Cents, BALCONY, 50 Cents, 25 Cents, 10 Cents, 5 Cents.

ODD FELLOWS HALL, CHRISTMAS WEEK, WYMAN.

Commencing WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 24th. MATINEES CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR, AT THREE O'CLOCK.

First appearance in Wilmington of the wonderful AUTOMATON ZOUAVE DRUMMER.

Watches, Barrels of Flour, and Other Useful Presents given away at each Performance.

A present to every purchaser of a ticket. No blanks. ADMISSION: 50 Cents, 25 Cents, 10 Cents, 5 Cents.

THE GRAND ENTERTAINMENT, NEW HALL AT LANSDOWN, promises to be the great success of the season.

Christmas Night,