Spring Goods.—As usual at this season of the year the stores of John S. Kennard, No. 30 Market street, will hold with goods suitable for the season. The assortment of goods at this establishment is so extensive that to give a description of the same would be impossible. It is desirable to strangers and purchasers visiting our city, when they can procure at once the goods they desire, to call on John S. Kennard. You can here get most goods from a "Six Days" down to a carpet. He can sell at almost as low a price as any other dealer in the city.

Opposition to the New Law.—It is said that a new society is about to be established in Delaware to call the attention of the Legislature to oppose the passage of a Prohibitory Liquor Law. The Executive of the State, Mr. J. M. Clayton, is also said to be in favor of such a society. It is also said that the Executive of the State, Mr. J. M. Clayton, is also said to be in favor of such a society.
