

ON THE WING—NORTH AND SOUTH

A ski jumper, Schaffler of Amherst, in flight in the Dartmouth Winter carnival at Hanover, N. H., while down South Miss Marjorie Chadbourne of Glen Head N. Y., swings high among the palms at Palm Beach. © Wide World Photos.

OVERCOMES CAMERA SHYNESS. Leaving the hospital after visiting her ill daughter here with Franklin D. Roosevelt, jr., Mrs. Eugene du Pont hides her face from the news camera to the amusement of her future son-in-law. But in the car (left) she relented with a smile.

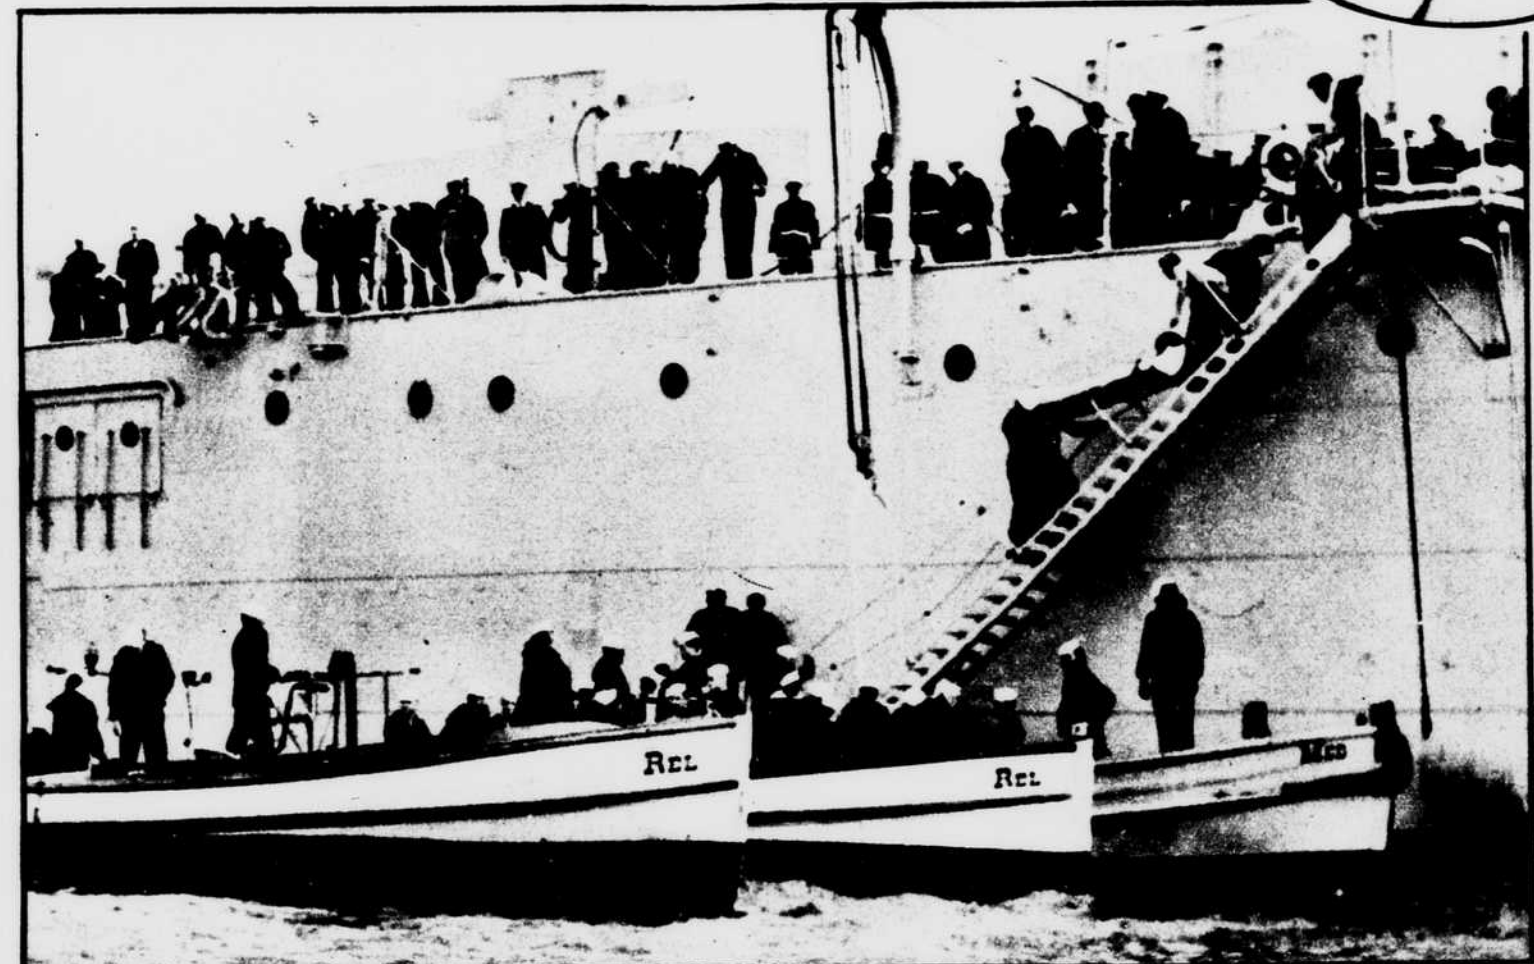

WITH A CLICK OF HEELS. Adolf Hitler gives the Nazi salute to a fair welcomer on arriving to view an international riding competition in Berlin.

Left: YOUNGEST SECURITY CARD HOLDER. Six-week-old Louise Brisebat, after appearing in a movie, has begun to contribute toward her old-age pension by order of Uncle Sam.

FIRST WARM-UP. Carl Hubbell, Giants' mighty southpaw, swings into action at their Havana camp — and it can't be long now! © A. P. Photo.

NAVY MOURNS EXPLOSION VICTIMS. Solemn scene at the side of the battleship Wyoming as dead and injured in the explosion of a 5-inch gun aboard the ship were lowered to launches to be transferred to the hospital ship Relief. © Wide World.

THE SUPREME COURT HOLDS THE HEADLINES. And the press hotly follows every break in the "big story" of the times. In the Senate Judiciary Committee, Chairman Ashurst (center) and Senator Pat McCarran give out the news of its favorable report on voluntary full-pay retirement for justices. © Underwood.
