

An Invitation To Readers of This Newspaper
FROM THE PUBLISHERS OF THE
FUNK & WAGNALLS New Standard ENCYCLOPEDIA

Please Accept WITH OUR COMPLIMENTS
Volume One of the New 1947 Edition—Now On Press!

[ALL WE ASK YOU TO PAY IS TEN CENTS TO COVER COST OF MAILING IT TO YOU]

WE ARE now on press with our Winter 1947 Edition of the Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia, which in previous editions sold over 15,000,000 volumes—an amazing record.

This latest edition, newly revised, we have allocated among the newspapers and magazines carrying our Winter advertising program. In accordance with this plan, we have set aside 1,500 sets for readers of this newspaper and now invite you to become the owner of a set—making you this extraordinary offer to enable you to become acquainted with the volumes before you decide to buy.

We want to send you Volume I of the set with our compliments. Merely send us 10c to cover our mailing cost—more as evidence of your good faith than anything else. This volume is yours to keep without any further obligation on your part. If, after examining Volume I, you want the rest of the 27-volume set, you may receive it at a ridiculously low price through our book-a-week plan, explained later in this announcement. Or, if you want no further books, you merely drop us a postcard saying so, and that ends the matter.

Some Facts About This Encyclopedia

We expect to enclose with Volume I a small pamphlet giving the facts to show that this is one of the finest encyclopedias anyone can buy for home use—unsurpassed by any other at any price.

In the meantime, we want to give you a few of the facts printed in the pamphlet, so as to interest you in taking the trouble to send for Volume I.

The new Winter 1947 Edition contains over 52,000 subjects, covered in separate articles. Compare this with any other encyclopedia in the world. You will find that it is at least 30% more than encyclopedias costing you up to four times as much as ours.

Each volume (comprising about 500 double-columned pages) contains over a quarter of a million words—over 7,000,000 words in all—which will give you some idea of the completeness of coverage of each subject.

Each volume is as up-to-date as human ingenuity can make it. In this edition the subjects have been revised to cover events of this last year, and each volume, as it goes to press, is brought finally up-to-the-minute. Our unique book-a-week delivery plan, bringing you the volumes almost as they come off the presses, makes it the most up-to-date of encyclopedias. Better still—later volumes, delivered to you during this Winter and Spring—will contain events which have not yet occurred!

Easy-Reading, Authoritative, Handy Volumes

Editor-in-Chief of the original edition was Frank H. Vizetelly, the beloved "Viz" of radio fame, and editor of the unexcelled Funk & Wagnalls New Standard (unabridged) Dictionary. Surrounded by a host of authorities in many fields, he brought this immense work into being.

But the books are easy to read! Your children in grammar and high school can read them, use them with profit. Free of technical detail, abstruse wording and dry-as-dust-research specialist attitude—and free also of concise, over-abbreviated, fact-omitting brevity—this grand encyclopedia will be your rainy evening companion for many years to come.

And, in spite of their truly enormous contents, each volume can be held in one hand! Gone is the old-fashioned, bulky, cumbersome format—big, heavy books that easily drop and as easily break. Here is a new, streamlined, USABLE set that is attractive, interesting and handy for daily reference.

Nor does the almost incredibly low price we have set on the remaining volumes indicate the quality of materials and labor that went into the printing and binding of the set. We have used a high-grade book paper, cover board, and binding cloth. The printing is crisp and clear-cut, and the work of binding has been done by one of the largest and best-known firms in the field. These are first quality books, as, of course, you will soon see for yourself.

Unique, Book-a-Week Plan for the Balance of the Volumes.

Our plan, which has been tested and approved by many thousands of appreciative purchasers, gives you the books almost as quickly as they come off the presses.

The first few volumes are now on press. Volume I is delivered to you immediately. Two weeks later, unless you cancel your reservation after examining Volume I, the next two volumes are mailed to you. Two weeks after that the following two volumes are sent you, and so on. You thus receive your volumes, freshly off press, at the rate of a volume a week.

YOU DO NOT PAY FOR ANY BOOKS IN ADVANCE—We enclose a bill with each two volumes, which you pay within five days after receiving the books. Considering the amazingly low price of the set, and the fact that you pay for it at the rate of only a book a week, our own pay-as-you-go plan therefore puts no strain at all on any pocketbook.

How much are the volumes? Here's a surprise. You pay only $1.39 for the De Luxe Binding, plus 11c mailing cost. The complete set thus costs you only a small fraction of what other high-grade encyclopedias would cost you—and we want only the opportunity to PROVE to you that ours is unexcelled for your use.

A Choice of Editions

With this announcement we offer you a choice between our De Luxe Edition and our Library Edition of the encyclopedia.

The De Luxe Edition, at $1.39 per volume, is bound in dark blue, leather-grained cloth, stamped in red and gilt, as illustrated here, with head and tailbands, and harmoniously stained page-tops. Endpapers and frontispieces are color reproductions of woodcuts by Hans Alexander Mueller, renowned artist in that medium, the frontispieces being a set of wood-cut portraits of American Presidents.

The Library Edition costs slightly more ($1.89 per volume plus the same 11c mailing cost), and has all the features described above, plus a more expensive binding. The covers of this superfine edition are in a tan linen-weave cloth, with red and black title panels, decorated with genuine 22 carat gold leaf, bright and untarnishing—making in all an extremely handsome and dignified set of books.

You may have your choice of these editions in sending for Volume I, at the same 10c mailing cost. However, before indicating your choice of editions in the coupon at the left, please remember the difference in price. And hurry! 1,500 sets are not many for a newspaper of such large circulation as this one. First come, first served. Send off the coupon TODAY!

I enclose 10c in coin or stamps, for which please send me Volume 1 of the Winter 1947 Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia in the edition checked below.

DE LUXE

LIBRARY

Please also reserve the balance of a set for me in the same edition.

If I decide to cancel the reservation after examining Volume 1, I will write you saying so, and there will be no further obligation; otherwise you may send two more volumes every two weeks, and I will pay within 5 days after receiving them, at the rate of $1.39 per volume plus 10c mailing cost for De Luxe Edition (or $1.89 per volume plus same mailing cost for Library Edition)—that is all.

Volume 1 is mine to keep in any event.
