

THE REPUBLICANS BLAMED Shaffer puts the Onus of Ending the Strike on the Party. If It Wished, He Declares, the Administration Could Curb the Power of the Trusts—The Manufacturers Answer Earlier Statements. PITTSBURGH, July 21.—Theodore Shaffer, President of the Amalgamated Association, issued a statement tonight and the three trusts which he is fighting gave out a reply to an answer which Shaffer made to a statement by Warner Arms.

AN ALARM IN MCKEESPORT. The Men Called From Their Beds at an Early Hour. MCKEESPORT, July 21, 2 a. m.—Call boys are out calling the employees of the Wood mill to report for work at three o'clock this morning. The strikers are assembling about the streets leading to the mill, and have placed a heavy guard on the river, as word has been received here that a boatload of men will come up the river this morning.

ADVICE TO MISSIONARIES. Feared Insult in New York. Alleged Reason the Duke of York Will Avoid America. NEW YORK, July 21.—Several Tammany men have been in Canada recently, and have brought back a story from the Dominion that has caused a good deal of talk in the Democratic Club among friends of Mayor Van Wyck. The story has to do with the tour that the Duke of York is to make in the Dominion.

FEARED INSULT IN NEW YORK. Alleged Reason the Duke of York Will Avoid America. NEW YORK, July 21.—Several Tammany men have been in Canada recently, and have brought back a story from the Dominion that has caused a good deal of talk in the Democratic Club among friends of Mayor Van Wyck.

IN THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS. Governor Allen Presents Porto Rico's Free Trade Resolution. A Proclamation to Be Issued by Mr. McKinley on July 25—The Island Declared to Be in a Prosperous Condition—The Need of Education.

TORRID WEATHER IN THE WEST. All Previous Records in the Present Spell Exceeded. ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Today has been the hottest of this heated spell. Reports from throughout this State and Kansas are all of the same tenor. In Missouri the temperature ranged from 94 to 112, the latter at Bowling Green. In Kansas the record ranged as high as 108, as it did also in Illinois and Indiana.

A NEW FOSBURGH WITNESS. F. W. Lund Subpoenaed by the Prosecution at Night. The Man Was to Be Called by the Defense—Speculation as to How the State Will Fix the Crime on the Defendant—The Journey North. PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 21.—The only new move in the Fosgough case today is a contract to meet a plaintiff of some kind upon Fred W. Lund, who was Mr. Fosgough's bookkeeper here in Pittsfield at the time of the tragedy. It was the intention of the Fosgough side of the case to bring Mr. Lund here in time to testify on Saturday a telegram was sent to him to come. The message, however, did not reach him in time to enable him to get a train for Pittsfield that same day.

TO WITHDRAW THEIR SAVINGS. Steel Workers Plan to Embarrass the Pennsylvania Banks. MCKEESPORT, Pa., July 21.—Secret meetings of the tube workers and rolling mill men were held all over the city today. At all the meetings it was decided to withdraw the savings of all the workers from the banks of the city in order to head off the proposition of the Morgan syndicate to bolster up the stock of the United States Steel Company.

DEFEAT FOR THE FIREMEN. The United Mine Workers' Fatal Blow to the Strike. WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—The stationary firemen admitted their defeat tonight and have ended their week's strike by asking to be readmitted to their work. The refusal of the United Mine Workers to add them in any way, and the defiant attitude of the United Mine Workers was expressed at the joint conference here this afternoon and evening.

THE YACHT VENITZA RAISED. Only Two Bodies Found on the II. NEW YORK, July 21.—The yacht Venitza, which went down in a small off-shore reef yesterday afternoon, was raised this morning and taken to the yard. The bodies of the two daughters, and of a boy, were found in the hold of the yacht early this morning and tied up in the cabin.

DEFEAT FOR THE FIREMEN. The United Mine Workers' Fatal Blow to the Strike. WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—The stationary firemen admitted their defeat tonight and have ended their week's strike by asking to be readmitted to their work.

DEFEAT FOR THE FIREMEN. The United Mine Workers' Fatal Blow to the Strike. WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—The stationary firemen admitted their defeat tonight and have ended their week's strike by asking to be readmitted to their work.

DEFEAT FOR THE FIREMEN. The United Mine Workers' Fatal Blow to the Strike. WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—The stationary firemen admitted their defeat tonight and have ended their week's strike by asking to be readmitted to their work.

DEFEAT FOR THE FIREMEN. The United Mine Workers' Fatal Blow to the Strike. WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—The stationary firemen admitted their defeat tonight and have ended their week's strike by asking to be readmitted to their work.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.

WILLING TO RESUME WORK. Lackawanna Car Builders Ask for Their Old Jobs. BRANTFORD, Pa., July 21.—State Senator Vaught and the owners of the Lackawanna Association of this city, led today for New York to see Mr. Trustees, President of the Lackawanna Road, and ask him to take back upon the same terms as before the strike.