THE DEPARTMENTS.

GOVERNMENT receipts to-day: Internal revenue, $327,763; customs, $636,212.70.

THE National bank notes received for redemption to-day amounted to $213,000.

THE STATEMENT that Secretary Hunt and Admiral Porter contemplated making a trip to Fortress Monroe on the Despatch on Saturday is incorrect.

MR. J. R. VAN WORMER, the new chief clerk of the Post-Office Department, entered upon his duties to-day, and in his new quarters attended to business with his accustomed politeness and promptness.

VISITORS TO THE Post-Office Department nowadays regularly inquire for Room 59. It has become as popular, as a matter of sight-seers to hunt up, as the new case of stuffed monkeys at the Smithsonian Institution. There are no monkeys, however, in Room 59.

THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL HAZEN was up to his ears to-day in bids for supplying the Post-Office with stationery. The task of opening these bids is an arduous one. There were a great many bidders, and it will be several days before the work of opening and scheduling is completed.

THE portrait of Mrs. Hayes, which was presented to the Government by the Ladies' Temperance Union as a memorial of her stand, "No wine at state dinners," and which has hung in the East Room, has been sent to New York, to be photographed preparatory to making photo-lithograph and engraved copies of it.

BEN. NEW MEXICO and the other runaway Indians, mentioned in THE CRITIC yesterday as having come to Washington to secure a new reservation, were packed off, bag and baggage, last night, with instructions not to come here again on a fruitless errand. They doubtless expected to be royally received, and not to be turned under as was the case.

IT is authoritatively stated that Custodian Pitney, of the Treasury Department, will retire at the close of the fiscal year, and be succeeded by Gen. E. W. Whittaker, the well-known real-estate agent, of this city. Gen. Whittaker is from Kansas, and during the war was chief of staff to Gen. Custer. He has been quite prominent in Republican politics, and was one of the head-centres of the Towpath Club during the recent Presidential campaign.

A DELEGATION of colored men from North Carolina waited on Register Bruce to-day and complimented him upon his appointment. George Price, the spokesman of the delegation, made a feeling address in behalf of the delegation, and Mr. Bruce responded briefly. Mr. Price invited the Register to deliver the oration at the State Fair in October. The invitation will be accepted, unless it interferes with engagements made by Mr. Bruce to take an active part in the coming Ohio campaign.

THE Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says that there is not a particle of truth in the reports so persistently sent from here of a coolness between the President and Senator Blaine. On the contrary, the confidence of the President in Blaine's friendship as an individual and loyalty as a public official has been increased, if that was possible, since the fourth of last March. Secretary Blaine has been very careful to keep strictly in the bounds of his official duties and relations, and has never volunteered any advice to the President.

EX-COLLECTOR TOM MURPHY, of New York, who is now here, does not believe the New York Legislature will elect Senators at the present session. Though he is a thick-and-thin Grant-and-Conkling man, Mr. Murphy doesn't hesitate to say he looks upon Mr. Conkling's resignation as a great mistake. It is exceedingly gratifying to find one thick-and-thin Grant-and-Conkling man who is willing to admit that he thinks it barely possible that Mr. Conkling might, under extraordinary circumstances, commit an act which, if done by some poor, fallible mortal, would be considered at least a constructive error.

WHITE HOUSE VISITORS.—Among those who saw the President to-day were Secretary Lincoln, Ex-Gov. Davis, of Texas, Senator Plumb, Ex-Gov. Crittenden, of Missouri, Gen. F. A. Walker, Justice Field, and Gen. Longstreet. A. Worth Spates, of Baltimore, also called. He is a frequent visitor, and is trying to be reappointed secretary to Wyoming Territory, from which position he was removed by President Hayes. Ex-Senator Harris, of Louisiana, Ex-Senator Henderson, Representatives Ryan, Richardson, and Mr. A. W. Campbell, of West Virginia, were among the later callers at the White House to-day.

ARMY ORDERS.—Commissary Sergeant William Bolton is ordered to Fort Union, N. M. A board of ordnance officers, to consist of Maj. F. H. Parker, Capt. H. Metcalfe, and First Lieut. C. W. Whipple will convene at the army building, New York city, June 28, 1881, for the examination of such lieutenants of the line as may be authorized to appear before it, with view to a selection for transfer to the Ordnance Department. Second Lieut. James M. McCarty, 9th Inf., is relieved from duty at Columbus Barracks, O., and will join his company in the Department of the Platte. Capt. J. M. Marshall, A. Q. M., now awaiting orders at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will return to Detroit, Mich.

RESIGNATION OF COMMISSIONER BENTLEY.—Commissioner of Pensions Bentley tendered his resignation to Secretary Kirkwood this afternoon. The resignation has not been formally accepted, but it will be. Secretary Kirkwood, in speaking of the matter, did not express any surprise, as he had previously received an intimation from Mr. Bentley of his intentions. The resignation was entirely voluntary on the part of Mr. Bentley. He had not been asked to resign, but the pressure of applicants for his position had become so strong that he concluded to retire before a change, which seemed inevitable, was decided upon. Secretary Kirkwood forwarded the letter of resignation to the President at 3 o'clock. No successor to Mr. Bentley has as yet been selected.

FROM THE SOUTH ATLANTIC STATION.—Rear Admiral Bryson, commanding the South Atlantic Station, informs the Navy Department by mail, under date of May 14, that he proposes leaving Montevideo, Uruguay, in the Shenandoah about the 12th of June next, or immediately after the reception of the next regular mail from the United States, for St. Catherine, Brazil, there to remain a sufficient length of time to enable him to land the crew for small arm target practice and battalion drill, after which he will proceed to Rio de Janeiro, reaching there about the 10th of July. Before leaving Montevideo for "up the coast," the Marion will be instructed to proceed to Bucnos Ayres about August 1 next, to remain there about a month, when she will return to Montevideo to await further instructions. The general state of health on both ships continues good.

GENERAL AND MRS. GRANT are on their way East.

GOV. CRITTENDEN, of Missouri, is a guest at Willards.

GEN. JOHN B. HENDERSON, of St. Louis, is stopping at the Riggs.

DR. S. D. THOMPSON, a well-known physician of Baltimore, is dead.

SENOR DE ZAMACONA, the Mexican Minister, is registered in New York.

HON. FRED. DOUGLASS has just returned from a visit to his old master in Maryland.

GENERAL TOM BROWNE, of Indiana, says Dudley will get Pensions, and the General ought to know.

JOE JEFFERSON has caught the prevailing complaint and gone fishing. Up to date he has caught nothing else.

SENATOR BURNSIDE is at the Fifth Avenue in New York. There is no reason to doubt that Senator Anthony is around the corner.

FIFTH AUDITOR ALEXANDER has taken rooms on Vermont avenue, near the Arlington. His wife will not come to Washington before October.

SERGEANT MONTGOMERY, of the Signal Corps, on special duty at the White House, has gone to Petersburg, Va., for a few weeks to air his new spring suit.

SIR EDWARD AND LADY THORNTON give to-morrow night the closing series of their receptions of the season, and which, it is understood by their friends, will be regarded as their farewell to Washington and Washington society.

MAJ. GEN. JIM GORDON has returned to the city from Ohio, looking, as the sweet girls would say, "just lovely." The recent rise in the Ohio river was attributed to the General's temperance lectures. His speeches were so effective in converting whisky guzzlers to water drinkers that a water famine was threatened about Cincinnati, when, as if to second the General's efforts, the patron saint of the temperance cause opened the flood-gates of the upper Ohio and sent the waters bubbling down to the shores of the Paris of America. At least that's what Gen. Jim says, and all the world knows that he is a firm believer in G. W. and the little hatchet.

The Virginia Democrats.

The latest advices from Virginia anent the gubernatorial nomination by the Democratic convention are to the effect that the contest lies between Judge Staples and John T. Harris, ex-member from the Rockingham district.

Harris is about the most astute politician in the State, and his strength lies in the fact of his power and capacity for managing a campaign and manipulating all matters pertaining thereto.

Judge Staples is rather more popular, however, and the nomination of Harris would be more as a matter of expediency than as a proof of popularity. One or the other of these gentlemen will be the choice of the convention.

The names of John W. Daniel, Fitzhugh Lee, John Goode and Gen. Wm. Payne are next mentioned. Of these four Goode would be the strongest for the nomination, but the fact that he cannot carry his own district militates against him.

Fitzhugh Lee is more of a farmer than a politician and cannot canvass a convention.

John W. Daniel is proverbially unlucky and in every political attempt has been handicapped.

Gen. Payne doesn't hanker much after the honor and there is some doubt as to his eligibility for the office on account of his connection with a duel some time ago.

A Free-Lover's Pranks.

F. A. Burlingame, who has recently leaped into notoriety as a free-lover, to-day obtained a warrant for the arrest of his eldest son, Frederick Burlingame, Mrs. L. S. Chapman and E. P. Myers, accusing them of a violent assault upon him. In the Police Court to-day collateral was left for the appearance of each of the accused. The facts in the case are these: The complainant in the cases mentioned above was interfered with recently while brutally beating his son, and the parties who went to the boy's rescue did not hesitate to treat Burlingame as he so richly deserved. After the proceedings in the Police Court to-day mentioned above were concluded, Burlingame turned up there again in a high state of excitement and wanted to procure a warrant for the arrest of Charles Earney, another of his neighbors, but for some reason left the court suddenly without securing it.

The Star-Route Prosecutions.

Items have been published in inside and outside papers that the Government is on the search for the most skilled lawyers to assist District-Attorney Corkhill and Col. Cook in the prosecution of the alleged star-route frauds. The district attorney, in response to inquiry this morning, said that as yet nothing of which he could take official cognizance had been laid before him in relation to these matters. When he has a case laid before him as the criminal prosecutor of the District, he will call for assistance or not as he may feel the need of it. Nobody but an ass would suppose that Mr. Corkhill would call for assistance to prosecute matters of which he knows absolutely nothing, officially.

CUTTING OFF HEADS.—The work of decapitation still continues on the Senate side of the Capitol. Yesterday Sergeant-at-arms Bright dismissed Charles S. Draper, who, for the past eighteen years, has been an employee of the Senate. Mr. Bright also cut off the official head of H. H. Williams, a colored messenger. Williams was put in by Mr. Conkling. These latter dismissals have caused the other Senate employees considerable uneasiness.

NAVAL BULLETIN.—Cadet Midshipman F. H. Hunicke has been ordered to the Pensacola; Paymaster Robert P. Lisle, to the Powhatan; Passed Assistant Engineer William Rowbotham, to the Norfolk Navy-yard; Passed Assistant Engineers W. W. Heaton and G. S. Gates, to hold themselves in readiness for sea service. Capt. Philip C. Johnson has been detached from duty at Newport, R. I., and ordered to command the school-ship New Hampshire; Master C. F. Putnam, from the Hassler and ordered to the Rodgers; Master W. F. Halsey, from the Rodgers, and placed on waiting orders; Cadet Engineers H. W. Spanger and F. J. Schell, from the Pensacola and ordered home; Carpenter H. W. Griffiths, from the New Hampshire and ordered to prepare for sea service; Cadet Midshipmen J. A. Mudd, P. L. Drayton, C. C. Marsh, H. J. Robinson, R. F. Lopez, W. A. Thom, J. H. Gibbons, F. W. Kellogg, E. H. Tillman, Thomas Snowden, J. B. Cahoon, J. A. Bell, L. O. Garrett, J. A. Dougherty, B. P. Menefee, C. L. Ripley, Leroy M. Garrett, W. A. Gill, R. P. Schwearin, R. S. Sloan, John Hood, R. H. Miner, A. G. Winterhalter and John L. Purcell, from the Naval Academy and ordered to their homes to await orders.

GEN. WICKHAM and his Virginia delegation on the Readjuster question will have an audience with the President to-morrow.

PISTOL PRACTICE.

SHOOTING CASE IN ALEXANDRIA.

Lewis E. Payne Shot by Edmund Burke—Statements of Both Parties—The Case on Trial To-day.

Special dispatch to THE CRITIC.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 16.—Last night the intense quiet incidental to Alexandria in its proper condition was awakened into active life by an affair of arms which closely approximated a tragedy.

The parties of the first part were Mr. Edmund Burke, commonwealth attorney for the county of Alexandria, and Mr. Louis E. Payne, formerly clerk of the County Court, and a few years ago United States district attorney of Wyoming Territory.

During the past three months it is alleged that Mr. Payne on divers occasions visited Alexandria—he is at present a resident of Washington—and publicly threatened to assault Mr. Burke personally. This Payne denies. Tuesday afternoon he was in Alexandria, and the report was current that it was for the purpose of personal violence toward Burke, as at that time Payne was armed and called at Burke's office and at his hotel. Last evening he was again in Alexandria. At about 10 o'clock he walked from the Mansion House, where he was registered, toward the Tontine. Mr. Burke and Mr. John Taylor, the flour inspector of the port, were sitting together in the latter establishment. A young law student in Burke's office, Mr. Green, seeing Payne approaching, entered and informed Burke of the fact. The latter arose immediately and moved toward the side exit door of the room. Payne entered, pushing side ways the double swinging doors. Burke immediately fired upon him. The bullet struck his right arm, just below the elbow, but as the arm was extended at the time, it merely tore through the coat sleeve, grazing the fore arm with a slight flesh wound. Burke then stepped out, was met by Police Officer Smith and arrested. Payne was compelled to give bonds in $500 to keep the peace for twelve months. The bonds were readily furnished.

PAYNE'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Payne this afternoon, previous to the initatory trial of the case which is just commenced now (3 p. m.), stated to the CRITIC youth, that he was never more thoroughly astonished in his life by the assault upon him.

"I came down from Washington to Alexandria Tuesday last," he says, "to attend to some personal business. I had at the time a pistol with me, and being acquainted with the stringent laws against the carrying of concealed weapons in Alexandria, placed it in my inside coat pocket. I called at Judge Chilton's office, which Mr. Burke also used as his own; while there the negro man employed took the pistol from my pocket; I left Alexandria that night; I was necessitated to visit the town yesterday; in the evening; I asked two friends to supper; after supper we returned to the Mansion House; then we parted; as it was rather too early to return, I walked over toward the Tontine to look over the register and see if any friends from Fauquier were there, or any Alexandria friends; just as I pushed open the swinging doors I saw standing about eight paces from me and facing me Mr. Burke, with a revolver, covering me with a cool, deliberate aim; he fired and struck me, as you see," holding up his right arm and showing a large, ragged vacancy about his right sleeve and a bandaged elbow. "I was unarmed; he passed through the side door after he shot; I merely expressed myself to those present, 'what an infamous coward to attempt to assassinate an unarmed man!'"

"I have never threatened Mr. Burke's life," continued Mr. Payne. "If I had any intention to assail him, I would have carried it out. I was not in Alexandria with any purpose of seeing him, but entirely on personal and business matters."

Mr. Payne's wound is slight, but painful. He is able to use his right arm and hand. The most extensive damage was inflicted upon his coat-sleeve, the weapon being a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson, a rather destructive article for the production of tailors.

MR. EDMUND BURKE

was next found in the office of the mayor in a genteel state of incarceration. His version of the unpleasantness does not tally with the foregoing.

"I have been threatened," he said, "by Lew Payne for some time past; he has not only expressed his intention of killing me, but has on several occasions visited Alexandria flourishing a pistol and announcing his purpose of slaughtering me; he has entered my hotel armed and searching for me; he has even gone up stairs to my room in the hotel searching for me with the avowed intent of killing me; it was only day before yesterday that he came here armed; kicked in the door of my law office; I was absent, but he demurred to parties present, and stated that his trip to Alexandria was to 'riddle the life out of me.'"

"Last night I was sitting in the Tontine; one of my students entered hurriedly and told me that Payne was about entering; there are two entrances, one from the court and one from the main door; I didn't know which one he had chosen. Wishing to avoid him—as I have ever done—I arose, and was walking quickly toward the side exit, when he pushed in through the front. I supposed he had a pistol, as his arms were extended, and not wishing to kill him, I fired at his right—his pistol arm—and passed from the house through the court into the street."

"Why he should seek to assault me I do not know; I have always been his friend and deeply as I deprecate this affair I still, as a matter of self-preservation after his numerous threats and attempted violence, felt called upon to protect myself."

THE HEARING.

The hearing of the case was called at 3 o'clock. His Honor, Mayor Smith, who was formerly a law partner in Washington of Mr. Payne, and who is a friend of both parties, declined to sit on the case, and three of the corporation justices act in his stead. The Mayor's Office is crowded, owing to the prominence of both parties involved in the case, and the hearing will be continued for some time. It is probable that Mr. Burke will be released on bail if not discharged.

THE CAUSE.

Neither of the parties to the pistol practice give any cause for the vendetta existent between them, but it is generally believed that it arises from some supposed grievance which has exaggerated itself into personal hatred.

Gossip About the District Commissionership.

The numerous applicants for District Commissioner are just now on the anxious bench in anticipation of an early appointment to that office being made. President Garfield, in conversation a day or two ago with a prominent citizen, said he would certainly fill the office by the 1st of July. Hon. Sayles J. Bowen, Major H. A. Hall and Mr. H. M. Holland are fighting most vigorously for the prize. Among other candidates are Messrs. J. W. Thompson, L. M. Saunders, ex-Senator West, of Louisiana; ex-Congressman Rice, of Maine; Wm. B. Reed and Col. R. C. Dean.

FROM ALBANY.

The Bribery Investigation--The Vote in Convention To-day -- Wheeler Leading for the Short Term.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 16.—The bribery investigation was resumed this morning. Wm. A. Graves was sworn and testified: I reside in Albany and am one of the firm of Spence, Traske & Co., bankers and brokers; previous to January, 1880, was with the New York Central Railroad Company as superintendent of the telegraph lines of the road and secretary of Superintendent Tillinghast; have transacted business for Senator Sessions; have kept an account of transactions with him; the account was closed on June 7; a statement of his account was called for and Mr. Graves said he would not care to show the statement unless Mr. Sessions consented.

Mr. Sessions was present and said he had no objection to its being shown.

Witness: The account of Mr. Sessions was closed June 7, when I paid Mr. Sessions over $6,000 in currency at that time; we kept an account with the Merchants' Bank, of Albany; I decline to show the accounts or business of our office for May or June; don't object to giving you any special information about this case you may desire that will not place all our business before this committee; don't remember the denominations of the bills paid him in balancing up his account; the supply of currency has been plenty in the banks this year; we send currency by express.

The Voting To-day.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 16.—The joint convention of the State Legislature met at noon. The following is the vote for Mr. Conkling's successor: Jacobs, 51; Conkling, 32; Wheeler, 38; Cornell, 11; Bradley, 1; Folger, 3; Rogers, 7; Lapham, 12; Tremain, 3; Crowley, 4. No choice. Mr. Wheeler took nearly all of Mr. Rogers' votes.

IROQUOIS WINS AGAIN.

Ascot Heath To-day—Iroquois Carries off the St. James' Palace Stakes.

LONDON, June 16.—This is the third day of the Ascot meeting. The race for the St. James' Palace stakes, for three-year-old colts and fillies, distance about one mile, came off and was won by Mr. P. Lorillard's brown colt Iroquois, who beat Count F. De la Grange's chestnut colt Leon. Only the two named ran.

In the betting just before the race, Iroquois was the favorite at 3 to 1 on him.

Mr. P. Lorillard's four-year-old chestnut colts Mistake and Wallenstein have been scratched for the race for the gold cup, which will come off at Ascot Heath to-day.

Serious Difficulties Between Mexicans and Americans.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—A Tucson dispatch states: "About three weeks ago four Americans were killed near Frincares, in Chihuahua, three of whom are supposed to have been cow-boys. For the last week cow-boys have been concentrating near Galeyville with the avowed purpose of avenging the death of their comrades. They threatened to take Frincares last week. Word was sent to the Mexican Consul at this place, who sent a warning to the people in Frintares, and also notified the Mexican Federal troops, of which there are 200 stationed on San Bernardino Ranche. Yesterday morning the cowboys, seventy in number, well equipped, left Wilcox for the purpose of carrying out their threats, and it is believed there will be bloody work, as they are the most reckless gang of desperadoes ever banded together. The Mexicans will either have to leave the place or make a hard fight. Frintares is about forty miles from Wilcox.
