

VETERANS STILL OBDRATE

Refuse to Be Appeared by the Grand Marshal's Offer.

General Sickness' Letter of Resignation Accepted—Invitation to Ride in the Inaugural Parade Also Rejected—Distribution of Badges.

For the present, a deadlock in the veterans' controversy appears to have been reached. The veterans have firmly declined to accept any proposition other than their original contention that they serve in a body as an escort to the President. This conclusion was conveyed to the Grand Marshal in a letter signed by General Sickness and endorsed by the leaders of the local veteran organizations...

The door has been left open for the veterans to reconsider their expressed determination to parade under the conditions imposed by a suggestion from the Grand Marshal, contained in a letter written by his direction to the veterans' proclamation, nearly identical with the plan of the grand of honor, but couched in different terms...

"I shall not ride in the parade in a carriage, but will be the only Grand Army man in the parade. Since none of us are to march I shall certainly march in the parade."

General Greene stated yesterday that he had considered it advisable to shorten the parade in the interest of the marchers, on whom the additional half mile would entail unnecessary fatigue. He pointed out that the parade is to be in the organization of the parade than the property holders in the two blocks...

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The symptoms are indigestion, bloating, flatulence, heartburn, and a general feeling of oppression. It is often a foul taste in the mouth, which causes the food to be readily rejected...

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most perfect safety and assurance that a patient can have. It is a most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn, and bloating after meals.

ASSIGNMENT OF COLLEGE STUDENTS.

A reconstruction of the Civic Grand Division of the Inaugural parade is being arranged by the Chief Marshal, R. H. Wilson. Wallace Donald McLean, Chairman of the Intercollegiate Committee, has been appointed adjutant general on the staff of Gen. G. O. Howard, Marshal of the Third Division.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"A fearful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Marlboro, Me., when she learned that she was to be present at the parade."
