"It's astonishing what these small ads do" Here is a man that advertised his Motorcycle for sale in the Telephone Directory of Home and Business Needs and on the second morning sold the machine without trouble or bother. Read the letter: March 24, 1921.

The Herald, New York City. Gentlemen:— Let me take this opportunity of telling you the results I secured from a four line advertisement in the "Telephone Directory of Home and Business Needs" column of your paper.

I had a Harley-Davidson Motorcycle for sale and on the second morning that my ad, appeared in your publication I sold it to a person who in your newspaper may be sure that I will advertise it in the Herald.
