"OTHER WOMAN" GIVES UP WEALTH TO WIFE IN CASE

Ex-Groom, Cut Off by Dacety, With $1 Now Will Settle $100,000.

By Augustus O. W. Smith

NEW YORK, June 25.—One more of the many cases of divorce which are complete this week. Mrs. Mabel Scudder Hecht, of 520 Madison Avenue, New York City, and whose husband, Major William Hecht, has been a frequent scene at the Federal home for many years, has been granted a divorce by Judge John W. Bessey, of the United States District Court, New York City, on the ground of desertion by Mr. Hecht.

Mrs. Hecht, who was granted a divorce by the same judge in July, 1919, in a previous action for desertion, has now been granted the additional divorce on the ground of cruelty.

The decree, which was asked in May, was granted in about three weeks, and the cause was set for trial July 9.

WHY

Coffee with the Nordic whooping and the Scandinavers and the Polonians and the Lithuanians and the Germans and the Slovaks and the others who have transplanted their national customs to New York, and are going through them to the accompaniment of great music, which the hilltops of the city provide, is the sort of thing the Europeans try to get at the most.
