

THE GAY SEASHORE.

In the Social Swim - The Summer Lyceum Flourishing - Pertinent Paragraphs

Ocean City, Md., Special—The grand soiree tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Robbins last Tuesday night at the hotel, Ocean Wave, was remarkably brilliant, many pleasing and fascinating costumes were worn and produced a most pleasant effect. The drawing rooms were uniquely decorated, showing unlimited anticipation. The elite of Ocean City bore much prominence and were mindful of the fact that an evenings gathering often reveals pleasures hitherto unknown. Light hearted terpersi chore was on hand and inspired the souls of nearly every one, giving ample satisfaction to all. A few who enjoyed the distinction of the occasion were: Misses Bolman, Porter, Hamlin, Pitts, Robbins; Messrs. Hedge, Stokes, Hon. Egwell, White and Hamilton.

Much appreciation was shown the paper read by Mr. Thomas Clayton a few Monday evenings ago before the Ocean City Lyceum. Mr. Clayton chose as his subject "Industrial Education for the Negro." The paper was followed by a long and pointed discussion. The following gentlemen participated: C. H. Stokes, J. L. Honeywell, W. White, Cyrus St. Clair, Robert Greene, and J. Lewis. Messrs Carter and Cooper are skilled in surf riding. They are athletes and produce an effective display to the eye. Miss Hamlin, the popular hair-dresser of Washington, is quietly estimating here. She speaks in the highest terms of Ocean City. Mr. Frank Fenwick, steward of the Atlantic Hotel, is a young man of untiring energy. The excellent cuisine of the above named house is due to his proficiency and excellent management. Mr. Cyrus St. Clair visited Cambridge this week; his mission was purely a business one.

Mr. Fred Hedge of the post office of the House of Representatives left here Saturday morning for an extensive trip West. Mr. Hedge was a guest at the hotel Ocean Wave during his sojourn. The Misses Walters of Salisbury, Md., arrived here Wednesday afternoon. Musical and literary attainments have already won for them a warm spot in the bosoms of their newly collected friends. Mr Robert W. Greene, our popular mandolinist gave quite an interesting musicale before the guests of Ocean Wave Hotel last Friday evening to further complete his course. Mr. Greene will attend the Conservatory of Music in New York, next winter. Mr. Lloyd Stewart seems to be "living the life of a millionaire," his recent effort to organize a swell club is meeting with favorable notice, Mr. Stewart as president would just be the the thing. Master Thomas Taylor, the little son of Mr. William Taylor, chef of the Atlantic Hotel, is spending the summer here with his father. A delightful yachting party were the recipients of a lovely sail twelve miles down Pine Tuxet Bay Monday night. The trip consumed fully three hours. Those who took part in the outing were the Misses Alice Carter, Maude Swann and Mrs. Emma Williams, Messrs. Welby Grider, Alonza Mitchell, Ernest Bell, Arthur Chew, and George Comfort. EARL.

Olathe, Kansas, has a population of 3,500 700 of which are colored. It is said there is no town in the state in proportion to its size that has as many Negro taxpayers as this enterprising place.

A VETERAN GONE.

Isaac Hamilton, the Union Veteran soldier who died at the Emergency Hospital just after undergoing the painful operation of having his right leg amputated a little below the knee, was buried at Arlington from the Lincoln Memorial Congregational church last Monday, Rev. Dr. A. P. Miller the pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. T. M. Nixon, pastor of the People's church. Remarks of tribute to the memory of the deceased were made by Commander Wells and Chaplain Welsh of the O. P. Morton Post, G. A. R., of which their dead comrade was a member. A dirge was sung by Miss Mary Pollen. A pillow of flowers was given by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith, a wreath by the Government Printing Office employes in the engine room where the deceased was employed and a floral piece by Mrs. Hill.

Won Out Against a Brilliant Parade.

Speaking of Booker T. Washington's felicitous address before Bethel Literary and Historical Association here a short time ago, a correspondent of the Huntington, W. Va., Spokesman, made the following comment, all of which and more is true:

"The greatest feature in his visit here was the intense interest which his race displayed toward him. Regardless of the Mystic Shriners, who were visiting the city, and a large parade with brilliant fireworks which took place the evening of his address, fully 8,000 of Washington's progressive colored and white society turned out to greet the professor and to do him homage. Mr. Washington may well be called a leader who has not only talked, but has placed his views into actual works."

A Lively Discussion.

A paper read by Mr. Rozier Bowman, Ph. D., last Sunday afternoon, to the Musical Association of John Wesley church, Connecticut ave., between L and M streets, raised a fire of criticism between Rev. B. J. Bolding, negative; and Prof. T. N. Dixon, who was in favor of the paper. The musical was completely turned into a lyceum. Out of the discussion rose the pastor's text for next Sunday, August 5, at 11 a. m. All who are interested in the race subject will hear a very favorable sermon. The text will be taken from the following words: "The fool has said in his heart, there is no God."

Mrs. Murray's Comparison.

Many complimentary echoes are still coming up from the able speech delivered not long ago at the Des Moines (Iowa) Mothers' Congress, by Mrs. Anna J. Murray, of this city.

In stating her case, Mrs. Murray said among other things:

"I regard the present influence of the church upon the colored race as a hindrance to its advancement, because of the ignorance of many of the colored preachers. The colored people have spent of their own means $27,000 000 for the church and only $10,000,000 for education."

She strongly pictured the kindergarten as the starting point of all proper education.
