Stirring Addresses Made at the Evening Session—Mrs. C. P. Buell's Remarks.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia assembled in annual session yesterday morning at the Metropolitan church, and held three sessions, at "morning, noon, and night."

The weather was propitious, and during the session the sun now and then stole from behind the leaden masses of cumulous clouds which hurried fitfully across the sky, and flooded the apartment, through the numerous stained windows, with gleaming rainbow hues and a mellowness which transformed the landscape decorations into a picture of oriental beauty.

The afternoon session convened at 1 o'clock, Mrs. C. B. Buell presiding. The following additional delegates presented their credentials: Mrs. M. M. Linnville, Mrs. M. J. Chapin, Mrs. E. H. Hartwell, Mrs. Anna J. King, and Mrs. Hannah.
