To Farmers and Others.

DAVID THOMPSON,
HORTICULTURIST AND NURSERYMAN,
Green Island (opposite Troy), has on hand, and now ready for transplanting, a large quantity of superior and hardy GRAPE VINES, in all about sixty varieties—his catalogue gives specific character and qualities.
Has also on hand a large assortment of STRAWBERRY VINES, some of which ripen as early as the 20th of May. See Catalogue for details.
Has also French, Prussian and German PRUNES; also, that superior celebrated ZWETSCHEN PRUNE, so favorably noticed in and by the Farmers' Club in New-York City, the Tribune newspaper, and "The Country Gentleman. Speaking of THOMPSON'S GRAPES, the Farmer's Club says:
"If this is a Seedling that will ripen at Troy every year with certainty, then it is an acquisition worthy of notice."
In the discussion of the Club on the PRUNE it was said: "There are several varieties of the Prune, and this (the Zwetchen Gata, commonly called Switzee), and this may be one of them; at any rate, it was the unanimous opinion of the Club that it is an excellent fruit, and well worthy of recommendation for general culture"—"Is the best Prune they ever tasted"—to be careful not to recommend anything not worthy, but are willing to give this Prune the highest recommendation.
Backed and sustained as he is by so distinguished a body as the Farmers' Club of New-York city (amateurs as well as practical cultivators of Fruits and Vines themselves), Mr. Thompson comes before his fellow citizens, confidently believing he is able to present to them such varieties of plants as shall suit their taste and choice, urging all to plant a Vine, a Tree, or a Strawberry Bed, that, in the course of one or two years at most, they can at their own homes enjoy the fruits, so easily to be obtained in the beginning, and which luxuriantly gratify in the end.
Mr. THOMPSON is at all times in readiness to attend to calls for his services in caring for the Fruit Yards, Vines, and Gardens of his friends and employers, in the line of his profession.
Orders for his Vines, Trees, &c., may be left at Col. W. T. Willard's (Secretary Rensselaer County Agricultural and Manufacturers' Society), Office No. 69 1st-st., corner Fer
