

FROM THE SOUTH.
Rebel Accounts of the Situation.
GOLDSBOROUGH SERIOUSLY THREATENED
RALEIGH EXPECTED TO FALL.

Orbit.
Two United States transports were reported captured on the 10th on Pelican Island, near Fort Monroe. Cotton at New-Orleans was quoted at 76 7/8c for Middling. Market nearly bare of sugar and molasses.

Confederate Version of Sheridan's Great Raid.
THE ATTACK ON MOBILE PROBABLY BEGUN.
Final Adjournment of the Rebel Congress.

MESSAGE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.
From a delayed copy of The Richmond Sentinel of the 14th we extract the following message of Jeff. Davis, to receive which he deemed it worth while to request the Rebel Congress to postpone its adjournment.

The Augusta, Ga., papers say that A. H. Stephens has been in Georgia for ten days or more, that he has not yet been heard from, and that they hope that this silence will not continue.

strength is a general militia law, such as the Constitution authorizes Congress to pass by exercising its power "to provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be brought into the service of the United States."

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
Stirring Events at Hand—A 100 Days Campaign—The Sixth Corps—A Testimonial.

FROM TEXAS.
Rebel Account of the Affair at Dardanelle
—From Brownsville—Things at Matamoros.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The following despatches have been received at this Department:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

The particular measures asked for by the President will appear from a perusal of the message. We have not the space for their enumeration here; nor is it necessary. We again repeat the hope that they will be considered, and without delay.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.
Foreigners Furnishing Hostile Indians with Material of War.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
No Movement Yet—Visitors—The Weather
—A Calm—A Review—Artillery.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 18, 1865.
The Richmond papers of today are received. The following is from The Richmond Whig:

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Evacuation of Petersburg—Activity of the Rebels—A Storm—An Explosion.