

Business Is Beaten by Eastern High; Score 9-0

Hawley Smith Intercepts Forward Pass on Twenty-yard Line, and Runs Eighty Yards for Touchdown—Paul Cahill Real Star

By C. W. SWAN. Hawley Smith, Paul Cahill, "Country" Fisher, and several other wearing the Light Blue and White of Eastern High School...

Smith became famous when he intercepted a forward pass in third period on his own 20-yard line and traveled 80 yards for only touchdown of the game.

Smith played his first game of 1913 Cahill played his first game of 1913 Cahill, and he more than made up for his absence in the Central game...

Smith played one of the best games seen in a high school battle, and Eastern being forced to play with this star, a different story might have been told.

MANDOT HAILED AS COMING CHAMPION

Business outplayed Eastern at every step of the contest. There is no denying that, although a fumble in the first round cost the Stenographers a sure touchdown, as they had marched from their own 20-yard line to Eastern's 20...

Southern Boxer Said to Be Next in Line for the Light-weight Crown

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—Fight fans who witnessed the ten-round bout between the light-weight champion, Ad Wolgast, and Joe Mandot, of this city, last night declared today that Mandot has the making of a champion in him, and predicted that he would be the next man to wear the light-weight crown.

As Referee Smith gave no decision, a wrangle has followed the fight. Wolgast's friends claim that he won on points, while Mandot's friends are just as confident that the New Orleans boy would have got the decision if one had been rendered.

BITS OF BASE BALL.

Jake Stahl has re-engaged the training park at Hot Springs, Ark., where the Red Sox got into condition last year, and the New Orleans boy would have got the decision if one had been rendered.

The Boston Athletic Association gave a reception to John J. McGraw at the clubhouse Monday night before his evening vaudeville performance at Boston.

Jimmy Archer, the star catcher of the Cubs, declares that unless he receives a substantial increase in his salary he will not sign another contract with the Chicago club.

The National Baseball Commission issued a notice yesterday regarding appeals from the decisions of the national board of minor league clubs. It follows: "When a ruling of the national board directs a club or a player to do or omit to do a particular act within a prescribed time, the right of appeal to the commission will not be recognized until every requirement has been complied with."

It is pretty near time some one put a stop to this mid-afternoon contest taking place in the National League at present. The most delightful thing the magnates know as a pastime is trading some other club's players without their knowledge.

From the Saturday Evening Post. There is a very sweet girl in a Kansas town who stutters dreadfully. One night not long ago, when her beau was leaving, she accompanied him to the porch and said: "George, are you coming again next E-o-e?"

The dog was on the porch. After George was half a mile down the road, with the dog gaining on him at every leap, it occurred to him that possibly the young lady had intended to say "Sunday" instead of "Eise-him"; but it didn't occur to the dog for as much as a mile or so beyond that.

GRIFTH PICKS JOE ENGEL TO BE 1913 SEASON STAR

NATIONAL BOSS THINKS WELL OF YOUTHFUL TWIRLER. TECH FOOTBALL COACH MAKES SILLY THREAT—OTHER GOSSIP.

"It would not surprise me one bit," said Manager Griffith of the Nationals, just before he left for his trip to Montana.

"I have watched Engel carefully all through the past season, and can say that he is qualified physically to stand the game. Experience alone cannot help him showing during the time he was with us, but Joe is a willing youngster, quick to learn, and the experience he has gained while warming the benches with us will stand him in good stead next year."

GEORGETOWN STAR IS DISQUALIFIED

Virginia Proteas Rheimschild and Big-Tackie Is Barred—White Plays in the Line.

The faculty director of Georgetown University has disqualified George Rheimschild, the Blue and Gray star tackle, for accepting aid from a student at the Hilltop institution.

Rheimschild was injured in the game against the Carlisle Indians, and would not have played against Virginia anyway. It was learned that Virginia protested Rheimschild, and after probing the case the officials at the Hilltop institution decided that Rheimschild was ineligible.

White, the giant fullback, has been barred to tackle, and in practice yesterday put up a wonderful game. The excuse this coach offers is absurd, and if Tech forfeits this game to Central the Manual Trainers will be the laughing stock of all the high schools.

START SEASON EARLY!

The American and National Leagues Open April 10. The playing season of the major leagues for 1913 will open April 10. An agreement to this effect was reached today by President Johnson of the American League and President Lynch of the National.

BIG Y. M. C. A. CONTEST

Interesting Programme Arranged for Young Athletes. The 200-yard dash, hop, step, and jump, and running high jump will form the events in which the Y. M. C. A. athletes will compete at the association gymnasium this evening, as part of the fall series of weekly competition to find out who is the best all-round athlete in the association.

The standing of the first ten men now is: W. C. Lantry, 62; J. R. White, 58; H. E. Linder, 54; W. R. Foy, 49; H. B. Ashley, 35; H. V. Rouse, 28; H. Hamilton, 23; A. A. Farrell, 20; R. E. Elder, 20; and E. Becker, 18.

Auto Drivers Injured. New York, Nov. 5.—Neal Whalen, driver of a National car, went through the fence at the Brighton Beach Motor-drome in the 100-mile race there this afternoon, and he and his mechanic were badly hurt. Both were taken to the Coney Island Hospital.

STARS IN LINE-UP. Rawlings Boys Will Play with the Mercury. Shags and Reggie Rawlings, two of the best football players in the District, will be seen with the Mercury Athletic Club eleven in the future, Assistant Manager Platt having signed them last night.

Evers for Chicago. So Evers is to be the manager of the Chicago National League Club? The selection is likely to cause but little surprise. The tendency toward the appointment of Evers has been rather marked since the announcement came that Chance would not personally conduct the Cubs after this year.

DOWN THE ALLEYS. COLUMBIA LEAGUE. Buffalo, Ind., Nov. 5.—Roger Bresnahan helped the hat and Frank Chance on first base—this is what Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pirates, has in mind for next season.
