PATERHAN
PAINTER
Painting & Paper Hanging Co.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

We Make Rubber
Heels and Soles
ROME SHOE
REPAIR CO.
719 Ninth St. N. W.
Work Called for and Delivered.
We Give Votes in The Herald's $25,000 Contest.

GLAFLIN
OPTICAL
CO.
937 F STREET
Fifth Floor
Temple
Leading Opticians for Over a Quarter of a Century
Manufacturing
Scientific Prescription Fitted
Eyes Examined
We Give Votes in The Herald's $25,000 Contest.

HOMEMADE CANDY
Our Candies are much better than the factory kind. It is pure, sweet, and wholesome—made by expert candy makers, in a clean kitchen.
BUCKINGHAM'S
229-231 PA. AVE. S. E.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

Grier's White Pine
Cough Syrup
differs from any other offered in Washington. It is unquestionably the most successful treatment for bronchial colds obtainable. See that it bears the name of "Grier."
GRIER & GRIER,
NINTH & NEW YORK AVE.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

Particular People Patronize the COLUMBIA
LAUNDRY
Main Office and Works
623 G Street N. W.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

EWALD'S
Butter Toast
BREAD
5c ALL GROCERS' 5c
Save the labels. Good for 5 votes in $25,000 contest.

The Choicest the Market
Affords Can Always
Be Found at WEBER'S
4th and H Streets N. E.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

JANES'
Fine Confectionery, Chocolates, and Bonbons.
514 NINTH STREET N. W.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

The Ideal Man's Store
High-class furnishings at prices to interest money savers.
M. LEVITAN & CO.
3064 14TH ST. N. W.
We give votes to The Herald $25,000 contest.

HAIR TONIC
Stops falling hair, relieves dandruff, soothes, invigorates.
Carter's Laboratory Co.
Ask for Carter's Shampoo Cream.
Our label redeemable to $25,000 contest for one vote for each penny represented in the retail sale price.
We Give Votes in The Herald's $25,000 Contest.

LATEST AND NEWEST DESIGNS IN FURNITURE COVERING.
See me for up-to-date ideas. Estimates gladly given.
JAMES TROSKEY
M. 1695-M 1417 9 St. N. W.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

OUR ADVICE
Concerning Paints and Enamels will prove valuable to you.
HODGKIN'S Family Paint Store,
819 Eleventh Street.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

SHOOTAWK
Tony Guiffre, AVE. N. W.
Open to-night. Orchestra will be in attendance.
We Give Votes in The Herald's $25,000 Contest.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES
Elegant stock, well selected. Also Linens, Dry Goods, Hosiery and Underwear.
MRS. J. A. MOSBY,
3206 M St. N. W.
We give Herald $25,000 contest votes.

SUFFRAGE WOMEN TO BE FETED HERE

Many Social Entertainments Mark the Initial Meeting of the Confederacy.

TO LAY CORNER STONE OF ARLINGTON MONUMENT

Many Notables of Prominence to Be in the Capital During the Week.

When the annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy opens in Washington Tuesday—the first time in the nineteen years of the organization that its yearly congress has been held outside the confines of Dixieland—a concerted effort will be made by men and women alike to extend to the Southern visitors that hospitality which the South has always boasted and plans for many social events are now in the making.

One of the principal features of the congress will occur Tuesday—the laying of the corner stone to the monument in Arlington National Cemetery that is to be erected to the memory of the soldiers of the Confederacy buried there. President Taft will welcome the delegates to the nation's Capital, and William Jennings Bryan will deliver the address at the laying of the corner stone. Hilary A. Herbert, Secretary of the Navy under President Cleveland, will preside over the ceremonies. The War Department has lent its co-operation in the arrangement. Music during the laying of the corner stone will be provided by the Fifteenth Cavalry Band, and fully 10,000 people are expected to attend the ceremonies.

Plan Entertainment.

Mrs. Marion Butler, president of the District Daughters, will have charge of the day's programme, and with her on the platform will sit the officers of the organization and many government officials. Bishop Robert Gibson, of Richmond, will deliver the invocation.

There will be various private entertainments, big and little, and several official events. President and Mrs. Taft will receive the delegates in the East Room of the White House Thursday afternoon, and one of the most pretentious affairs of the week will be the reception held Friday night from 9 to 11 o'clock by the Southern Society of Washington and the Southern Commercial Congress in the Hall of the Americas, Pan-American Union Building.

Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president of the Southern Relief Society, has invited the U. D. C., all of the Southern societies of the District of Columbia, the United Confederate Veterans, the Sons of Veterans, the Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, and the Loyal Legion to meet the general officers of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in the Library of Congress Monday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Marion Butler has announced the ushers appointed by her to act at the laying of the corner stone. They are Messrs. Charles A. Douglas, Henry F. Davis, Edwin C. Dutton, Thomas Ruffin, William H. Robeson, Edward S. Munford, H. Rosier Dulany, Abner H. Ferguson, William De C. Ravenel, Clarence J. Owens, Benjamin Micou, Absalom Waller, Clifford K. Berryman, and Marion Butler.

Tuesday night the welcome meeting will be held at National Continental Hall, when President Taft will extend his and the nation's welcome to the Daughters. Mrs. Alexander D. White, president general of the organization, will speak in response. The first business session on Wednesday morning will be opened with prayer by Cardinal Gibbons. The business sessions will be held morning and afternoon until Saturday.

Notables to Attend.

Mrs. Mathew T. Scott, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will give a luncheon to the national officers on Wednesday at Memorial Continental Hall, and Mrs. P. P. Claxton, of 1302 Connecticut Avenue, will give a tea in honor of the Tennessee delegates from 5 to 7 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. Alexander B. White.

Wednesday afternoon the Texas delegates will be the guests of Mrs. Short Adam Willis at her home, 1314 Nineteenth Street Northwest. She will be assisted by Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, Mrs. Rosenberg, of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. William Cummings Story, of New York.

In the evening the national officers will be formally presented to the delegates at a reception at the New Willard.

Saturday afternoon the Mississippi division will receive in Continental Memorial Hall, and other receptions and social events of various kinds will fill the week. Many side trips to points of interest around Washington will take up the afternoons.

Two ex-presidents general, Mrs. Lizzie George Henderson, of Mississippi, and Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, of Texas, will attend the convention. Gen. Bird Grubb, of the New Jersey Volunteers, U. S. A., and Mrs. Grubb will be the guests of Col. Hilary A. Herbert, and Mrs. William Cummings Story, of New York, candidate for president general of the D. A. R., will attend. Rev. Landon Mason, of Richmond, will be one of the visitors, and Miss Mary Lee, daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee, will be the guest of Mrs. Phillips Yeatman in Alexandria.

NEWS NOTES. U. D. C.

Miss Cornelia Branch Stone, of Dallas, Tex., is considered one of the finest parliamentarians in the South. She has held seven important national division offices in the U. D. C.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution and who has a long line of distinguished Southern ancestors, is also a member of the U. D. C.

Mrs. James Marion Butler, president of the District of Columbia division, has had to do much of the work incident to preparing for the convention. Mrs. Butler is the wife of the distinguished former Senator of North Carolina.

Mrs. James Tarvin, widow of the famous Judge Tarvin, of Kentucky, is the efficient head of the press committee, and has been hard at work preparing matter for the press during the last few weeks.

The programme of the laying of the corner stone of the Arlington Monument on Tuesday, Col. Hilary A. Herbert, master of ceremonies:

Musical programme to be given by the Fifteenth Cavalry Band, Arthur S. Whitcomb, bandmaster:

Grand selection, "Southern Melodies".....Lampe
Invocation.....Bishop Beverly R. Tucker, of Virginia
Presentation of Flag, "The Stars and Bars"
List of articles placed in box for corner stone
Laying corner-stone.....Col. Hilary A. Herbert
Corner-stone, "The Last Chord".....Ambrose
Introduction of speaker by Miss Alexandria S. Wicks, President General, U. D. C.
Address.....Col. William Cumming Story
Unveiling of monument.....Miss Caroline Lee Hentz Trist Whiting
Presentation.....Miss Jessamine Stewart
Benediction.....Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D.
Grand selection, "Dixie".....Emmett

PEERLESS LEADER TO ARRIVE TO-DAY

William Jennings Bryan to Spend Nearly a Week in Washington.

William Jennings Bryan, three-time candidate for the Presidency, and one of the potent influences in the nomination and election of Woodrow Wilson, will reach Washington to-day, stopping off here for the greater part of this week en route to his winter home in Florida, where he will rest after the arduous labors of the campaign.

Mr. Bryan will be the central figure in two public meetings while here, the laying of the cornes stones of the Confederate monument at Arlington, Tuesday, and of the new Sibley Hospital Friday, at both of which functions he will deliver the principal address.

The Commoner will stop while here at the home of his son, William Jennings Bryan, jr., 1320 Belmont Street, where Mrs. Bryan now is. It is understood that Mrs. Bryan either has undergone recently or is about to undergo a surgical operation at the Providence Hospital. This information could not be confirmed at the Bryan home last night, where inquiries were met with the statement that Col. Bryan alone would give out any information to be made public on the subject. Close friends of Mrs. Bryan were not aware of her alleged illness, and if the report is correct it is believed the operation was of a minor character.

May Consider New Bills.

Although passage of appropriation bills preclude much general legislation during the coming short session of Congress, it was learned yesterday that the Democrats are pledged to certain action this winter upon two important and vexatious measures—amendment of the immigration laws and Philippine independence. Pledges in black and white are in the hands of the House leaders for early consideration of the Dillingham-Burnett immigration bill and the Jones Philippine bill. Both of these were sidetracked last summer. The immigration measure met opposition because of a proposed illiteracy test for immigrants.

Labor Men Re-elected.

Three Washington officers of the American Federation of Labor were re-elected at the convention in Rochester yesterday. They were James O'Connell, president of the metal trades branch of the federation; Albert T. Barrett, and Thomas F. Tracey, secretary-treasurers, respectively, of the metal trades and the union labor trades hospitals.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Richard F. Green, 46, and Jennie Oldhorst, 38. Rev. H. G. Trapheiner.

John A. Brooks, 28, and Amy G. Knott, 24. Rev. Clement B. Wheeler.

George E. Hobbs, 21, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Bessie M. Oakes, 21. Rev. John E. Briggs.

Milford H. Brown, 21, and Elizabeth R. Kennedy, 21. Rev. Clement B. Wheeler.

Richard P. Hall, 21, and Sadie A. Black, 21, of Cecil, Md. Rev. Clement B. Wheeler.

[illegible] 21, and Ethel M. Hall, 21