EVERY SUMMER MAN SHOULD BE PROPERLY LABELED

PENNANT HANGS ON GAME TODAY

Pepco-Cornell Contest Is One of the Deciding Games of Post-Season Series—Thompson Will Probably Pitch for Former.

SECTION A.
Game today—Cornell vs. Pepco, at Capital City Park, North Capitol and streets. Umpire—Hughes.
Yesterday's result—Bankers, 4; Postoffice, 3.

SECTION B.
Game today—Printers vs. Nativity, at East Washington diamond, Thirteenth and D streets northeast. Umpire—Betts.
Yesterday's result—Ninth, 3; Printers, 2.

SECTION C.
Game today—Southern vs. Park at R. R. Y. M. C. A. diamond, Fifth street and Florida avenue northeast. Umpire—Colliflower.

The Cornell-Pepco game today is expected to decide the championship of Section A of the post-season games, and will go far toward nominating the winner for the intercity series. Cornell and Pepco have each won a game in the section, and are looked upon as the real pennant contenders. The Bankers and Postoffice being somewhat behind.

The game this afternoon should prove attractive enough to draw the banner crowd of the games in the post-season series. Cornell Company has loomed up strong in the closing weeks of the season, and Pepco is perhaps the most popular of the amateur baseball teams in the city, winning the Independence League pennant after a long, hard struggle.

Manager Cornell is likely to start Thompson in the box, with Noyes catching, while Manager Gray will use

BOB THAYER'S SPORTING GOSSIP

"EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST."

In third place today.

The Nationals are in third place today because they have struck a decided slump with the stick. However, there is little use in becoming excited over the situation. With the return of their swatting ability, and it may appear almost any day, the Nationals will again be in the running. They are bound to come back, so cheer up, bugs.

Red Sox invincible.

Jimmy McAleer's Red Sox seem invincible. Every club in the league has failed to stop them in their rush. Indeed, they have won a majority of games from every club but the Nationals, who hold them to 8 to 7. Their path is strewn with roses and they should romp into the honors, if this record is continued. It takes more than one club to knock a team from the title.

Giants are slipping.

The Giants are slipping. They have been slipping for the past month, too, and Chance's Chicago Cubs have a fine opportunity of catching up with them. The series opening today between them may mark the turning of the tide in the National League race. Once in the lead, the Cubs should never be stopped.

Kling is done.

BINGLES AND BUNTS

By Grantland Rice

Speaking of Considerable Pitchers—

Johnson carries a bale of snuck—
Marquard's slant has a two-foot drop;
Rucker! You said it, kid, SOME bloke—
And one of the best in the pitching crop;
Alexander and Walsh and Gregg—
In there winning and always good—
Slip it along to the Kings of Peg—
And then again there's a guy named Wood.

The Grandoldope is without doubt a wonderful institution. You can't beat it. "Well," remarked a Giant fan recently, "the edge is all with the Giants, whatever happens this trip. Suppose they only return home even with the Cubs? What then? The Giants have twenty games at home in September and the Cubs have sixteen on the road. That's where the pipe will be."

It sounds reasonable, too. It would even sound more reasonable if it wasn't for the fact that in their last home stay the leaders won eight and lost eight, while the Cubs on the road were winning fifteen against three defeats. At this same ratio, the Giants had better remain abroad and permit the Cubs to hustle along on native soil.

The old gag of home and road contests is now about 21-3 cents per hoghead. The Senators have done their best work on the road this season. So have the Cubs. The Red Sox have fared equally well away from home, where they have won consistently. The Giants have a sacrifice hit by Vaughn and Bradley's double in the next round Postoffice managed to count two. Beard got a life on Hayes' boot, Penton doubled, and Kraft brought both runners across with a neat single.

The winning run came across for the Bankers in the eighth frame. Rawlings doubled and scored on Barnhardt's error.

The Printers, champions of the Marquette League, are out of the running for the honors in section B today, having been defeated by the Ninth team in a close 3 to 2 game yesterday. Ninth is practically conceded the championship of the second today, having three straight wins. The game was one of the best of the series according to the many fans who took in the contest.

Ninth opened with two runs in the first inning, and the Printers came in for a single run. Tying up in the third frame the game ran nip and tuck for three innings when Ninth managed to put the deciding run across.

Three fast double plays marked the game, the Printers getting two. Individual feuding stunts were in order throughout the contest, and while the hitting was not especially heavy, the game was made interesting by the clever work of the fielders.

Either Matty or Marquard will take the slab for the Giants. It was announced. Chance will probably pick Lavender or Richie.

Cubs Ready for Clash With Fading Giants

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—In a warlike frame of mind, Chance's Cubs were confident today of taking the first of the crucial series from the Giants. The suspension of Johnny Evers, Chance declared, would make no difference. The Cubs would win anyhow, he said.

"We'll trim the Giants without the Trojan," was the sentiment expressed by the entire team.

Either Matty or Marquard will take the slab for the Giants. It was announced. Chance will probably pick Lavender or Richie.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—"Rube" Waddell, sometimes alluded to as "eccentric Waddell," is again in a "state of single blessedness," according to the point of view. For Mrs. "Rube" the third announced last night that she has secured papers which show that she was absolutely divorced from Mr. "Rube" in Mobile, Ala., on July 3 of this year.

Said ex-Mrs. "Rube" Waddell: "Mr. Waddell and I were married in St. Louis on April 4, 1910. He was so cruel to me that we separated, and I sued him for a divorce. I have been granted the decree, but 'Rube' is now in Minneapolis, and I don't know whether he knows about it or not."

Mrs. Waddell was Madge Maguire, of New Orleans.

Specific Blood Poison

Specific Blood Poison usually begins with a tiny sore which is the only outward evidence of its presence, but down in the blood the treacherous poison is at work and soon its chain of symptoms crop out. The mouth and throat ulcerate, sores and ulcers appear on the body and the glands in the groin swell. Mineral medicines cannot cure Specific Blood Poison; they only shut the disease up in the system to break out afresh later. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes the last trace of the infectious virus, tones up the stomach, lowers, kidneys and all portions of the system, and thus makes a perfect and lasting cure. S. S. S. is made of roots, herbs and barks and does not contain a particle of mineral or other harmful drug. Thousands have cured themselves of Specific Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S. It will cure you if you will give it a trial. Special Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all who write. S. S. S. is for sale at all first-class drug stores.
