MONDAY, March 11—P. M.

The Stock market is very buoyant and active, and the spirit of speculation is thoroughly awakened.—Nearly all the fancies advanced considerable.—Erie went to 60, Bonds 89½, Reading to 41½. At the Second Board there was rather less firmness, and some of the fancies fell off a little. Morris was steady.

The question of title to the Real Estate sold some time since by the Farmers' Loan Company has been left to an arbitration, consisting of Messrs. Daniel Lord, George Wood and Judge Jones. The Company is confident that the decision will be in its favor.

In Exchange there is nothing of importance doing. Sterling is 108½; France 5.30½@5.25¾.

The non-arrival of the steamer's letters has checked the movements in Freights to-day, and we hear of few engagements. The rates are 7-32d. for Cotton, sail-ship for Corn, 25s for 100 or 300 hours heavy freight. To Havre the rate is 5c.

The activity in the Stock market and business generally has increased the demand for Money, but the supply is still ample, and rates show no change. On loan the figures are 6@6 per cent. Paper is selling from six @six per cent. for short, and 7@10 per cent. for long. The supply of first-class paper is moderate.

The total exports of Specie thus far in 1850 are $406,255.

The balance in the Sub Treasury is $3,743,585.

The amount of stock issued on foreign account at the Treasury last week was $151,000.

The Hudson River Railroad Company has applied to the City of Albany for a loan of its Six per cent. Bonds for a million of dollars, to enable them to complete their road. The Road offers to pay 7 per cent. interest, thus giving the City a bonus of 1 per cent, or $10,000 per annum. The first mortgage will cover one-half the amount, and a second mortgage will be made to secure the remainder.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company are paying off the dividends of January 1847 and 1848. Those holding scrip of these years will be paid, with interest to March 1, 1850.

Bankers....CAREFULLY REPORTED FOR THE TRIBUNE.

MONDAY, March 11.

COTTON—There is nothing of importance doing, the operations are only those of the most limited kind. Sales of 50 bales were reported at 9¾c.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The market for Flour is without particular change for the low grades and for anything there are a few of the better kinds offering, but the demand is quite limited. Sales of 1,000 bbls. State at $4.25@4.37½; Ohio at $4.75; common and straight brands of Southern flour to-day sold to the trade and jobbers at $4.87½@5; mixed and good flour at $5@5.12½, and prime favorite $5@5.25. Rye flour and meal are without change. The receipts of Southern are light, with a demand for the trade and jobbers, and sales of 200 bbls. at $4.12½@4.25 for mixed and good brands.
