SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Mercantile Library Association.—Prof. FILOPANTI, Member of the late National Roman Assembly, will deliver a series of Lectures on "The Influence of Secret Societies upon the Ancient and Modern Revolutions of Rome." Under this original point of view, the Roman History assumes a new degree of literary and social importance. One of the secret means often employed by the Ancient Roman Etheria was woman's power upon the human heart. By this circumstance the early Roman History attains also to all the warmest interest of a novel. First Lecture at CLINTON HALL, on THURSDAY, 24th inst. at 7½ P. M. Admittance 25 cts. o22 3ts

☞ Course of Lectures on French Literature.—Rev. Mr. ANTIE will deliver the first of his series of twelve lectures, in the French Language, on the principal authors of the age of Louis XIV., on FRIDAY, 25th inst. in the Hope Chapel, Broadway, at 7½ o'clock P. M. Tickets and circulars can be had at G. P. Putnam's, 155 Broadway; Roe Lockwood & Son's, 411 Broadway; E. Dupuy's, Pharmacien, 609 Broadway. Price of a ticket for one lecture, 50 cents; for the twelve lectures, $4. o19 6t* o22 1tTu Entrance No. 1 Spruce-st.

NEW-YORK LAUNDRY, 15 Spruce-street, near Nassau.—To New Shirt Dealers, Single Gentlemen, Families, &c.—This is one of the most perfect and extensive establishments of the kind in this or any other country. It has been erected at an expense of about four thousand dollars, and combines the following advantages:

1st—Persons leaving the city in haste can have their clothes washed and ironed in a superior manner in from two to three hours time.

2d—No material is used in the washing department but pure olive oil soap and filtered Croton water, hence clothes are not destroyed by patent soaps, or other humbugs so extensively advertised in the newspapers.

3d—Gentlemen's shirts are done up equal to new shirts on sale; gentlemen's collars ironed in Troy style; light colored vests and pantaloons elegantly ironed and polished.

4th—Clothes lost or missed (which seldom or never happens) will be promptly paid for.

5th—Clothes washed at this establishment will wear much longer, simply because they are not only handled with great care, but no injurious drug, so generally used in washing, is permitted to come near them.

6th—Ladies' dresses, and all fine articles, are done up by an experienced French Laundress.

Clothes taken and delivered free of extra charge. Ink spots and stains effectually removed.

All orders left at the Office, 15 Spruce-st. or sent through the Penny Post, will receive prompt attention.
MADAME RAYMOND, Superintendent.

P.S.—Experienced hands are employed to iron new shirts. au8 3mis
