

WATER CURE.

DR. SHEW'S WATER-CURE INSTITUTION, corner Twelfth and University-places.

WATER-CURE.—Dr. T. L. Nichols, 71 West 22nd-st., third floor from Sixth-st., corner University- and Broadway-sts., has a large and well furnished building for the reception of patients.

WATER-CURE INSTITUTE.—CITY AND COUNTRY.—Dr. TRALL, receives Patients at his Water-Cure Institute, located at the corner of Oyster Bay, L. I. Communication daily between those places by steamboat and railroad. General Practice attended to. Consultations 2-5.

ORANGE MOUNTAIN WATER-CURE.—Dr. CARL LORENZ, has succeeded Dr. Meeker in the Medical Direction of this Institution. The establishment is situated in Orange County, near the corner of the Erie and Hudson Rivers, and is supplied with the most pure and healthful water.

DANCING.

MONTAGUE HALL, Court-st., near City Hall, Brooklyn.—M. CHARRAUD and Mrs. A. LANSAY return their sincere thanks for the liberal encouragement received last season, and have the honor respectfully to announce that their DANCING and WALTZING CLASSES will commence on Monday, Oct. 21, at the Assembly-Room of the above place, at 7 o'clock.

DANCING.—ALLEN DODWORTH, 100 Broadway, has the honor to announce that the CLASS for WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY EVENINGS, at 7 o'clock, is complete, and that no more persons will be admitted to the class.

BROOKLYN DANCING ACADEMY.—B. C. CHAFFERS, Private Dancing and Waiting Academy, Franklin Buildings, near the corner of Orange and Fulton-sts., Brooklyn, has the honor to announce that his Academy will commence on Monday, Oct. 21, at 7 o'clock.

DANCING ACADEMY.—SIGNOR GERARDI, thankful for the kind patronage of last season, respectfully begs to inform his friends and the public, that his Dancing Academy, at No. 100 Broadway, will commence on Monday, Oct. 21, at 7 o'clock.

MONTAGUE HALL, Court-st., Brooklyn.—M. CHARRAUD and Mrs. A. LANSAY have the pleasure to inform the gentlemen of Brooklyn that there will be an evening class under the instruction of Mr. OGILVIE, on Monday and Thursday at 7 o'clock.

EMANUEL BRANDIES, Ltd. of Vienna, Professor of PIANO and SINGING, thoroughly familiar with the English, French, Italian and German languages, respectfully offers his services to the Public and Schools of New York and vicinity.

NEW-YORK STATE TELEGRAPH.—NORFOLK LINE.—BAIN'S PATENT.—Office 29 Wall-st., 1st Broadway.—This line forming the connecting link between New York and Norfolk, Virginia, is now completed, and is in full operation.

TELEGRAPH.—The advantages of having a room of this kind are too obvious to require a moment's consideration, and it is generally hoped they will extend to it their support.

BOSTON AND NEW-YORK TELEGRAPH COMPANY, office 29 Wall-st., 1st Broadway.—This line, using Hays's Patent Printing Machinery, is in full operation.

FRENCH TAUGHT.—M. HANSEN, student with Prof. Appréh in Paris, continues his PRIVATE INSTITUTION in the French Language and Literature, under the supervision of M. Appréh.

MUSIC LESSONS.—MUSIC LESSONS on Piano, Violin, etc., and SINGING at the Musical Institute, 117 Broadway, (near Broadway).

SCHOOLS.—For SALE.—A centrally situated very desirable property, situated in the City of New York, together with Books sufficient to supply Teachers and Scholars. Price $1000.

THE SIXTH SESSION OF THE RICHMOND SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES, near Richmond Village, Staten Island, N. Y., will commence on Wednesday, Nov. 30th.

BOARDING SCHOOL at the HIGHLANDS OF HUDSON.—THE WINTER TERM OF THE PEESKILL ACADEMY and BOARDING SCHOOL, for Boys, will commence on Monday, Oct. 22nd.

PROFESSOR A. BASSET'S PRIVATE CLASSES IN FRENCH and SPANISH are OPENED at his Residence, 30 Broadway, corner Franklin-st.

STURGES, ADAMS & GRAHAM, FORWARDING and COMMISSION MERCHANTS, 18 South-st., New York.

THE LONDON DRYMEN and the AUSTRIAN BUTCHER.—As ministers of justice, prompt, vigorous and well-directed, we have the honor to announce that we have received from the London Drymen and the Austrian Butcher, a large quantity of goods.

FASHIONABLE HATS.—Just finished, the most elegant article ever offered in England. Price $4. Also, an article at $2.50. Next Hats at $1.50.

Things in Philadelphia.

Correspondence of the Tribune.

On Saturday evening, 1st, Hon. R. Knapp, Esq. the Local-For District Attorney, called at the "Keystone Club," at his residence, 215 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia, to secure the election of Mr. Knapp, should he be elected to the office of Governor of this State.

On Friday night, Francis Huling, an employed man, was very seriously injured on the head and breast, in consequence of coming in contact with the crank of one of the gold filters.

At last we are to have a line of steamers between this port and Liverpool. The "City of Glasgow," a new vessel of 1,010 tons, 500 horse power, will sail from Liverpool for this port, on the 1st of December.

On Friday night, a special train of cars on the Central Railroad, when near Lancaster, made a narrow escape from total destruction.

Yesterday Miss Lind visited and inspected the United States Mint. It is thought that she will give one more concert in this city, before singing in New York.

During the week ending yesterday there were 150 deaths in this city of consumption. The Stock Market continues active, and prices generally have an upward tendency.

Anti-Alcohol in Connecticut. The friends of Total Abstinence and adversaries of drunkenness, tipping and the "moderate use" of poisonous beverages in Connecticut, recently held a State Convention.

TEMPERANCE PLATFORM. Proposition 1. The People of the State of Connecticut have a perfect right to prohibit themselves, and are in duty bound to secure posterity, by law from the evils of Intemperance.

Prop. 2. The common evils of Intemperance are not only the individual results of the traffic in intoxicating drinks, but they are the legitimate fruits of the business itself, and are so inherent in it, that they cannot be prevented by the best intentions of the vendors.

chaits, who carry on considerable trade with the neighboring Mexican States. Major, situated two miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand. Guerrero, situated on the Rio Grande, on the Salado, with a population of about four thousand.

A little town is springing up just below Fort Duncan, which will probably become one of the considerable commercial ports, as it is near that point the Rio Grande, from the mouth of the Rio Grande, about 150 by land below El Paso, 25 by land below the mouth of the Conchos, and 200 by water above the mouth of the Puerco, sometimes called the Peecos.

There are no settlements, either American or Mexican, about Fort Duncan, neither will there be any until settlers are afforded some permanent protection.

There are no settlements, either American or Mexican, about Fort Duncan, neither will there be any until settlers are afforded some permanent protection.

There is an extensive mine of bituminous coal on the Texas side, about 12 miles above Fort Duncan.

The face of the country between the mouth of Devil's River and Babitt's Falls is generally mountainous and barren along the river, though portions of it back from the Rio Grande, through the Devil's River and the Puerco, are good for grazing or cultivation.

A garrison stationed at this point would enable us to prevent the passage of the Indians into Mexico, and materially aid in carrying out our treaty stipulations with that nation.

The establishment of another military post at the mouth of Devil's river, and one or two between it and Fort Duncan, would enable us to prevent the passage of the Indians into Mexico, and materially aid in carrying out our treaty stipulations with that nation.

THEY.—Henry Rinealds was arrested for stealing a quantity of moss and veneering from a Macgregor Yard, 57 South-st.

EXPLORATION OF THE RIO GRANDE.

Report of Exploration of the Rio Grande, made by H. Love, in the keel-boat Major Babitt, with a crew of the River—Navigation of the River—Military Posts, Soil, Products, &c.

GENERAL: I have the honor to report that Captain Love has returned from his explorations of the Rio Grande.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.

Major Babitt, Texas, twenty or thirty miles from the Rio Grande, on the River Alamo, with a population of about two thousand.