The Star's Daily Pictorial Page

Group of foreign delegates at the dedication of the headquarters of the National Women's Party yesterday. Left to right: Mrs. Gustav of Czechoslovakia, Miss Tsin-Chew of China, Mrs. Klima of Czechoslovakia, Miss Bellini of Bolivia and Miss Segard of Czechoslovakia.

Mrs. Alice H. F. Abbott, president of the National Women's Party, and donor of the $250,000 headquarters, making an address at the dedication ceremony yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Walker, wife of the minister from Sweden, and her daughter, Miss Ivarstedt, at the Neighborhood House pageant.

Mrs. Rose Groesbeck Hedges, granddaughters of President Monroe, playing a part in the pageant of President Monroe in the second area of the headquarters of the National Women's Party yesterday.

Mrs. Mar. Muns, wife of the minister from Netherlands, as charge of one of the booths at the Neighborhood House pageant.

Mrs. H. A. Brown placing the charter of the National Women's Party in the center niche of the headquarters at the dedication yesterday.

Mrs. Otto X. Sweden, wife of the counselor of the Japanese embassy, and Mrs. Rocker, niece, at the ceremony of the dedication, in manner costume at the Neighborhood House pageant.

Mrs. Edith Cottrell, wife of Chicago's top naval hero, Lye Roden, secretary to the American box-office and "Uncle Joe" Comes to a home at the Washington-Chicago game yesterday afternoon. Between innings "Uncle Joe" visited the dugout of players of the two teams.

Great Leslie Somertield, minister from Hungary, and his family at the Neighborhood House pageant. Thechildren, in native costume are Cadmus, lillie, Gladis and Gally.

Mr. Nicholas K. Smith, American aviator and star of the "32".

First Solitude, English composer of the famous "32", at the scene of the movie of "This Is the End" at Hollywood Studio.

A little discussion of politics between Representative Manuel Benitez of California and "Uncle Nick" Altrock, in the world of theatrical fame at Chicago's North Loop hotel.

Copyright Underwood & Underwood.