NEW MUSIC.

"A Method for the Piano-Forte, by William Mason and E. S. Hoadley," published by Mason Brothers, New-York, is a well arranged exhaustive treatise, which appears to us superior in some respects to all other works of the same class. The directions to pupils, such as are usually given orally, are here written in full; the art of fingering is taught with thoroughness and with some modifications of the old systems; and especial attention is paid to the subject of musical accents. The clearness of the instructions is furthered by an abundance of excellent cuts and diagrams. There is a copious selection of exercises, chosen principally from the works of standard composers and arranged with due regard to the requirements of a learner.

We have received from Henry Tolman & Co., Boston, several pieces of sheet music. The first is a transcription from Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet," by A. Baumbach, a somewhat simple and easy arrangement, containing all the most popular airs of the new opera, such as the wedding march (never performed here), the festival song and chorus, Juliet's waltz, Stephano's canzone, and the Notte genial duet. A Tantum Ergo quartette by L. Spohr, with Latin and English words, is a graceful composition for the church, and is also easy. Lo Spaccalegna (the woodman) is a tolerable buffo aria for basso voice, by A. Jannotta.

C. W. A. Trumpler, Philadelphia, publishes "My Love and I," a ballad, by S. Behrens, written for and dedicated to Madame Parepa-Rosa, a very fine portrait of whom—the best we have seen—embellishes the title-page. The song is simple, pretty, and very easy.

A NEW BOOK by Rev. Dr. WILLIAM ADAMS, Pastor of the Madison-square Presbyterian Church, New-York.
THANKSGIVING.
MEMORIES OF THE DAY AND HELPS TO THE HABIT.
1 vol. 12mo. Bound in beveled cloth. Price $2.

"Home," "A Cheerful Temper," "Happy Mediocrity," "The Blessedness of Tears," "Cheap Contentment," "Balmacings and Compensations," "The Zest of Life," "Politics and the Pulpit," "Christian Patriotism," "Lull in the Storm," and "Liberty and Law," are among the topics discussed in this volume. Happy memories and associations are revived, cheerful views of life are inculcated, and the volume throughout is written in that charming style which has made all the productions of Dr. Adams so widely popular. While specially appropriate for the day and festival from which it takes its name, the volume is one which is well adapted for all times and seasons.

Now Ready, the Fifth Thousand.
PRAYERS FROM PLYMOUTH PULPIT.
BY HENRY WARD BEECHER.
1 vol., 12mo. Beveled Cloth. $1 75; Gilt, $2 50.

Mr. Beecher's prayers have always been recognized as the most earnest, effective and forcible part of his public exercises. In this volume there are permanently preserved a large number of these prayers, selected from those offered in the course of his regular ministrations during the last ten or twelve years, and they are given precisely as they were made, each one being complete in itself, and all form a collection which has no equal and hardly a parallel in our literature.

The Sounding-Board, released from its connection with the piano case, and resting upon under sounding-boards, is relieved from the rigidity caused by such connection, and its vibratory quality greatly increased. All lovers of this eminently household instrument, as well as parties proposing to purchase new Pianos, are invited to call and examine our assortment.
