

SIXTEEN PAGES OF NEWS EVERY 12 HOURS. 1 2-3 CTS. A DAY

NOT HARD TO ANSWER

Question As to the Readers of the Sunday Times.

MADE FOR THOSE WHO READ

Also for Women Who are Too Busy Six Days in the Week to Increase Their Stock of General Information. For Three Cents, the Reader Takes a Glance at the World's Doings.

Are you a man or woman of leisure? No. Very well, in case you are not, next SUNDAY'S TIMES will be prepared wholly for your benefit.

Why? That is an easy question to answer. For every one of "leisure" there are thousands who have "to hustle" six days in the week for a living.

They have no time to brush up the intellectual part of their nature, except on Sunday, and therefore all the week they are planning the coming day with a view to putting in several hours of general reading and the rest of the time in social and religious circles.

The busy worker, with brains and brawn, is sure to find everything he needs from a literary and news standpoint in THE SUNDAY TIMES.

It is in such convenient shape and location, too, that a few hours' reading will suffice to keep the reader abreast of the latest doings in every department of life.

What is more, all this brain food can be purchased for three pennies.

Buy THE TIMES once, remembering that it is here for a good purpose, and you will at once gladly enlist yourself in the rapidly increasing army of readers who admire its fearless stand for right, as against might, either intellectual, financial or physical.

The list of the good things in store this week follows:

For Women to Read.

- Dressing Pet Dogs. -Costumes for pups, poodles and big canines.
New Models for Winter Frocks. -Hints for those who have not yet selected.
Mrs. Stanton's Eighty Years. -Not the life crowned with sweet old age.
Women and Burglars. -Feminine ideas of protecting their treasures.
Fashions Fresh From Paris. -What is being worn in the source of style.
Peeps Inside of Boudoirs. -Receptions at the toilet are the latest.
Fruits Instead of Flowers. -Basket of the former is now the proper thing.

General Features.

- Naming Country Seats. -Suggestions for new owners of suburban homes.
Nursing Sick Bachelors. -Trials of trained angels with crusty millionaires.
Claims Worth Millions. -Noted cases that are pending before Uncle Sam.
Queen of the Autumn. -New chrysanthemums the florists have brought out.

Local Features.

- Woes of the Conductors. -Trials and tribulations of street car men.
Rode With the Six Hundred. -Hero of Balaklava now living in Washington.
Works of Art in Glass. -Beautiful new windows for St. Paul's Church.
Fleets of the Potomac. -Noted boats that have hailed from Washington.
Mecca of Endeavorers. -Not less than 70,000 expected here.
Beggars That are Shams. -How the charitable public is fooled by professional beggars.
How a Statue is Made. -Sculptor Elliott explains the difficult process.
Methods of Soul Savers. -Washington evangelists convert folks in many ways.
Sports and Theatres.

No Butterine, No Oleomargarine, No Sulsino, No Patent Butter. But the purest and sweetest products of the world's most famous creameries. Buy only genuine butter from James F. Oyster, 900 Pa. ave., Center, K street, and Riggs Markets.

DRURANT FOUND GUILTY

Jury Reached a Conclusion in Twenty-Eight Minutes.

WAS RECEIVED WITH CHEERS

His Mother Sobbed Aloud in Court. The Prisoner Takes Her in His Arms and Soothes Her—San Francisco Wild Over the Result—To Be Sentenced Friday.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—Theodore Durant, murderer of Minnie Lambert, was found guilty of the crime this afternoon. The jury was received with a shout of applause from the audience who packed the courtroom.

The district attorney's peroration was an able effort to show that Durant had been shown beyond any doubt that Durant had committed the crime on April 3 by strangulation.

The charge of Judge Murphy occupied a little over an hour in all. It was a cool statement of the law, unrelieved by any emotional excitement.

As soon as Mr. Durant learned that the jury was coming in, he turned to his mother and took her hand. He wept freely and she wept with him. He kissed her forehead and she kissed his cheek.

As he listened intently to the words which were spoken, Durant partially rose from his seat. The look on his face was one of intense interest.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Holmes to-day tried himself upon the mercy of the jury. When the commonwealth closed its case this afternoon his attorneys announced that they considered the prosecution and not made out its charge of murder, and they would rest their case upon the evidence offered by the commonwealth and submit no testimony in defense of the prisoner.

But one witness was called to the stand to-day. The defendant's attorney had decided that they would attempt to prove that Pitezel committed suicide and was not murdered. Expert testimony bearing upon this theory introduced by Mr. Graham must have shown the attorneys for Holmes that the defense they had outlined would require greater resources to maintain than they had at their command.

CAUCUS BARGAINS,

But the Speakership Chair Is for Exhibition Purposes Only.

HOLMES HAS NO DEFENSE

Attorneys Rest His Case on the State's Testimony.

THEY A K HIS ISOHAR E

Judge Refuses This and the Arguments Begin This Morning—Likely to Go to the Jury This Afternoon.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Holmes to-day tried himself upon the mercy of the jury. When the commonwealth closed its case this afternoon his attorneys announced that they considered the prosecution and not made out its charge of murder, and they would rest their case upon the evidence offered by the commonwealth and submit no testimony in defense of the prisoner.

FOLLOWED HIS WIFE.

She Died and He Refused to Live Without Her.

Leominster, Mass., Nov. 1.—Moses Livering, eighty-one years old, committed suicide by strangling. His wife died a day or two ago, and he was buried to-day.

FOUGHT TO THE DEATH.

Two Kentucky Men Wound Each Other Fatally in a Duel.

London Depot, Ky., Nov. 1.—News has just reached here of a bloody duel in Leslie county, Westmoreland, Ky. (Mass.)

CARLOS OF PORTUGAL.

He is in Berlin as the Guest of the Emperor William.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—King Carlos of Portugal, arrived at Potsdam this evening. He was received with great ceremony by Emperor William.

Valuable Horses Burned.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 1.—News was received here to-night of the incendiary burning of a large barn, stable and contents, including five valuable horses, on a farm twelve miles from Suffolk, owned by M. Van Austin, of New York, and tenanted by Ames Lassiter, who loses the horses.

It was the Dalton. Dublin, Nov. 1.—The wreckage on the west shore of the Lough Swilly, county Donegal, proves to be the part of the wreck of the British steamer Dalton, which was lost off Islay on Sept. 28.

HOUSE BARGAIN

NOV. 30 WASHINGTON

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

COUNTING UP THE DEAD

Hundreds of Armenians Were Butchered by the Turks.

WOMEN SPARED FOR SLAVES

Villages Ravaged and the Corpses Thrown in Wells—In Many Places There Was Not the Least Excuse for the Eprising—Heard Only as Bad Policy.

KILLED THEM FOR WITCHES

Mother, Daughter and Nieces Murdered by Savage Men.

Many Persons in Their Neighborhood Had Died and They Were Blamed With It.

Panama, Columbia, Oct. 25.—A horrid act of savagery has been perpetrated in a small village called Areolia, situated about ten kilometers to the northwest of Union, Chilli.

Castro's wife and daughter Virginia were ruthlessly slaughtered inside the hut and Clara Silva was slain outside as she was attempting to escape.

THE MASSES BEGIN.

The next morning, October 8, all dispersed in the hope that the danger was past. Men went to their shops and were encouraged to open them as they had not done for two or three days previous.

SHE IS MISS POOK.

Young Lady's Parents Tell a Strange Tale of Her Acquaintance.

The young woman referred to is Miss Evelyn Harriet Pook, daughter of Samuel H. Pook, U. S. N., of No. 1313 Nineteenth street northwest.

DIED ON A TRAIN.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 1.—R. H. C. Valentine, a passenger on train No. 14, which reaches Rochester at 9:55 a. m., from Chicago, died suddenly this morning just as the train came into the city.

To the People of the United States.

Why pay high prices for clothing when you can get a fine custom-made suit or overcoat made by leading merchant tailors, at $20 custom-made suits or overcoats, at $15. Pants from $2.50 to $8, which were made to order for more than double the money.

BRIG ALMOCK WRECKED.

Beaufort, N. C., Nov. 1.—An unknown brig was today wrecked off danger by the Cape Lookout life saving crew and is now anchored near the shoals. Capt. Gaskill used flags to communicate with the ship.

FOUND BY HER BROTHER USED KNOCK-OUT DROPS

End of a Search for a Pretty, Washington Society Girl.

CHARGE OF INSANITY MADE DRUGGED BY STRANGERS

She Was Arrested, but the Magistrate Sets Her Free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

New York, Nov. 1.—A young and pretty girl was brought to Yorkville court last afternoon by Court Officer Tucker on a warrant issued by Magistrate Cullen, alleging that she was insane and therefore unable to properly care for her property.

The girl's name was not given, but the name of her father, George F. Frothingham, a lawyer of Washington, was given.

Two months ago Miss Frothingham and Brandon disappeared from Washington.

The father of the girl, George F. Frothingham, a lawyer of Washington, was given the name of her father, George F. Frothingham, a lawyer of Washington.

Young Mr. Frothingham, acting under a lawyer's advice, went before Magistrate Brandt last Wednesday and claimed that the girl was insane, and asked for a warrant for her arrest.

Magistrate Brandt, after a hearing, ordered the girl to be taken to the lunatic asylum, but she was not taken there.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

She was arrested, but the Magistrate sets her free—Says She Loves Her Sweetheart, Brandon, and He Will Marry Her—She Helps Support Him and Claims It No Crime.

SAloonkeeper Bloss and His Wife

Victims of a Bold Game.

DOCTORED BEER BEER.

He directed her attention momentarily and then slipped the poison into her beer, while she was examining a bottle of kum-mel on the rear shelf which the knock-out desired to inspect.

The knock-out, however, did not finish the beer and the oldest man said to her in German:

"This beer is good, but it gets flat."

She drank again out of the glass and almost immediately experienced a severe attack of dizziness.

The three men then tried to divert her attention by asking her to play a game of cards. They wanted her to leave the bar and to go to the street.

They finished the dose and in a few moments they were all lying on the floor, paralyzed, and he appeared to be in a trance.

The German saloon-keeper uttered like a madman, and he ran off with the bar to keep from falling.

Everything being done, a blank, his coat, observing that the woman was still in a state of unconsciousness, he called for his mother and informed her that the husband was in the hospital.

The woman's husband only articulated the words:

"Then he became unconscious, and she dragged him to a lounge in the rear room. In the meantime, the woman had been saloon hurriedly and fled down Myrtle street."

After placing her husband on the lounge the wife ran to the money drawer and found that the crooks had abstracted between $100 and $150, besides an exact board receipt of $400 for next year's liquor license and a receipt of $6 from an insurance company.

Policemen were soon on the scene and quickly notified No. 6 station and police headquarters of the robbery.

When seen late last night saloon-keeper Bloss was still suffering from the effects of the knock-out drops, and his wife was in the hospital.

After placing her husband on the lounge the wife ran to the money drawer and found that the crooks had abstracted between $100 and $150, besides an exact board receipt of $400 for next year's liquor license and a receipt of $6 from an insurance company.

Policemen were soon on the scene and quickly notified No. 6 station and police headquarters of the robbery.

When seen late last night saloon-keeper Bloss was still suffering from the effects of the knock-out drops, and his wife was in the hospital.

DEMANDS A RETRACTION.

Gov. Campbell Challenges the Statements of His Opponents.

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—In his speech at Springfield to-night, Gov. Campbell read a statement sent out by the Republican State committee, in which he is charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He declared it to be false and demanded that it be retracted publicly before Sunday.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.

He also read a circular issued by C. A. Peck and others, in which he was charged with a certain reflection on a certain religious sect.