

MR. GRAY STILL TALKING.

LITTLE PROGRESS WITH THE ELECTION BILL.

THE DIFFICULTY OVER THE DOMICILIARY CLAUSE PARTLY CLEARED UP—WHAT TAKES ITS PLACE IN THE SENATE SUBSTITUTE.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The Senate adjourned early today to let Mr. Gray, of Iowa, who is still speaking on the Election Bill, take the train for Washington, on his regular trip with that measure. It is a bill which was passed yesterday over the so-called domiciliary clause was partially cleared up by various statements from the Republican and Democratic members of the Committee on Privileges and Elections. All agreed that in the House bill the clause was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

When the bill was taken up, Mr. Gray resumed the floor. Mr. Hearst asked unanimous consent to have a reprint of the bill—the sections in the original bill and in the Senate substitute to be in part of the original bill and in the Senate substitute to be in part of the original bill.

The motion gave rise to a long discussion, in the course of which Mr. Gray explained the reasons for the change in the bill. He said that the House bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Gray said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

CITIZENSHIP IN THE DISTRICT.

A BILL IN REGARD TO A QUORUM OF THE COMMISSIONERS PROVOKES A LIVELY DEBATE—ARGUMENTS FOR AND AGAINST SUFFRAGE.

Washington, Dec. 6.—In the Senate today, Mr. Ingalls, of the Committee on the District of Columbia, introduced a bill defining a quorum of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. It provides that two of the three Commissioners shall constitute a quorum and that an engineer officer, detailed as a substitute for the engineer commissioner, when absent or disabled, may perform all the duties imposed by law upon the latter.

Mr. Ingalls admitted that the government of the District of Columbia was an absolute despotism. He said that the people had no voice whatever in the election of their own local affairs. And it was admitted that Washington was the best governed city in the United States.

Mr. Blair did not coincide with Mr. Ingalls's statement. He believed the government of the District of Columbia to be a republic, a governing body at the disposal of the people of the United States.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Blair said that the bill was not intended to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the Senate, but to prevent the election of a citizen of another State to the House of Representatives.

BUSINESS IN THE SENATE.

MEASURES INTRODUCED BY MR. SHERMAN—HIS AMENDMENT RELATING TO UNITED STATES BONDS IN NATIONAL BANKS.

Washington, Dec. 6.—There was some discussion today in the Senate over a resolution offered by Mr. Sherman, calling for a statement of money paid to John J. Davenport. The resolution finally went over John J. Davenport.

Mr. Ingalls called up a bill making two of the three District of Columbia Commissioners a quorum. The bill was passed by the Senate.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the Finance Committee.

A SUMMER SCHOOL OF ETHICS.

MONEY FOR THE INSTITUTION.

ITS PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTS—WORK OF THE CONVENTION OF ETHICAL SOCIETIES.

The chief work of the Ethical Societies' Convention yesterday was the determination to conduct a summer school of ethics. The Executive Committee of the union was authorized to raise $40,000 for the purpose. In Felix Adler's resolution the objects of the school are thus set forth:

Resolved, That the Union of Ethical Societies sanction the project of a summer school of ethics, provided that it be conducted on the following principles:

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

It shall be held in a free field and no favor to any scientific tradition of the subjects within its curriculum.

RAILROAD INTEREST.

THE INDICTED RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

PRESIDENT EGAN DEPRECIATES THE GRAND JURY'S ACTION—A TALK WITH PRESIDENT VAN HORNE.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (Special).—President John M. Egan, of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City road, was one of the most surprised men in the world when informed that the Grand Jury had indicted an indictment against him for violation of the Interstate Commerce law.

DeGRAAF & TAYLOR CO.

To more widely introduce our Dining Room Furniture to the public we shall offer a fine chair in two styles, as shown above, at the LOWEST PRICES EVER OFFERED. The chair is the latest pattern of English Dining Chair, it is solid oak, natural finish, upholstered in leather and No. 10 cloth, with massive frame, and extra large seat and back.

Our Arm Chair in leather is $30.00. Our Dining Chair in leather is $35.00. Our Dining Chair in oak is $25.00. A good Dining Chair is an absolute necessity. Our worth money Chair is extra cheap at the table. Our prices in all departments are the lowest in this city for the best quality.

De GRAAF & TAYLOR CO., 47 AND 49 WEST 14TH ST.

ONE $21. For this CHEVAL BINE—5166 GLASS, in other ANTIQUE OAK or CHERRY, fitted with FRENCH BEVEL MIRROR. We are showing a large assortment of Chival Glasses in Oak, Cherry, Maple and Mahogany at attractive prices.

GEO. C. FLINT CO., FURNITURE MAKERS, STORES 101, 105, 109 WEST 14TH STREET, between 6th and 7th Aves.

PROSPERITY AT LAKEWOOD. HOTELS CROWDED WITH WINTER GUESTS—SOME RECENT ARRIVALS.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed. Monday morning carried away heavy rain clouds, but the sun shone brightly in the afternoon.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

Lakewood, Dec. 6 (Special).—This resort had a forecast of genuine winter weather this week, but as the snowfall was light and was followed by a bright and sunny day, the guests of the hotels and cottages were disappointed.

SIR MORELL MACKENZIE EXPERIMENTED WITH PROF. KOCH'S LYMPH.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT AND THE INDIANS.

CENSURED THE CABLE ROAD.

TO CHICAGO VIA DETROIT.

NEW INDUSTRIES IN NEW-JERSEY.

TEN POUNDS in TWO WEEKS! THINK OF IT! AS A FLESH PRODUCER THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION BUT THAT SCOTT'S EMULSION Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites Of Lime and Soda IS WITHOUT A RIVAL. MANY HAVE GAINED A POUND A DAY BY THE USE OF IT. IT CURES SCROFULA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS AND COLDS, AND ALL FORMS OF WASTING DISEASES. ALL FAMILIAR OF imitations. The original SCOTT'S EMULSION is put up in Salmon colored wrapper, and is for sale by ALL DRUGGISTS.