TWELVE PAGES.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

Foreign.—Parnell continued his stumping tour; several fights followed in conflicts between the Parnellites and Anti-Parnellites.

Domestic.—An article in "The Plattsburg Republican" clearly shows that Santa M. Weed is an active candidate for the United States Senate.

City and Suburban.—Dr. Gregg was installed in his new pastorate in Brooklyn. Several people nearly lost their lives by breaking through ice in a skating pond.

The weakness of Mr. Parnell's cause manifests itself by his violent actions and the loose rein which he gives to his tongue.

The outcome of the conference of Republican Senators this evening appears to be decidedly uncertain, though hopes are entertained in view of the loud demand for financial legislation.

The Rev. Dr. Gregg has begun his pastorate as Dr. Cuyler's successor in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn.

The conservative action of the Board of Regents in the matter of conferring honorary degrees sets an example which many colleges may wisely follow.

It is not to be wondered at that the Eastern agriculturist, even if the country does increase in population at the rate of a million and a half of people a year, contemplates the extension of these possibilities with alarm.

the granting of the degree. Honorary degrees have been entirely too cheap and numerous in this country.

That Mr. Smith M. Weed has his eyes glued on the Senatorship, and that his determination to win it is not one whit relaxed, cannot be doubted by any one who reads the article published on Saturday in his personal organ.

THE PLATTSBURG REPUBLICAN.—The main points of the article will be found summarized in a dispatch from our Albany correspondent. Indeed, the fact that Mr. Weed had not only aspirations, but strong hopes, was made clear when he engaged rooms at the principal Albany hotel for the period in January when the voting for Senator takes place.

A LONG LOOK AHEAD.

There are two classes of influences which will powerfully affect the Republican chances in the next general election two years hence. One is negative and the other positive.

The present Congress can only complete the unfinished work of the session. It cannot originate any new measures. It can only maintain continuity of Republican policy by presenting steadfast and loyal to the principles embodied in the legislation of the year.

President Harrison's Administration has done much to strengthen the party since the elections. During the next eighteen months it will have an unrivalled opportunity for impressing the country with the superiority of Republican methods of administration.

GOOD LANDS STILL IN PLENTY.

A vigorous objection comes from the Massachusetts Agricultural Society Club to the proposed irrigation of the arid lands in the West. It is not the constitutional objection.

The trouble with many of the "middle-aged" men is that they are filled with an unbalanced conceit, which prevents their seeing an equal or a superior. It is a very common error.

It is not to be wondered at that the Eastern agriculturist, even if the country does increase in population at the rate of a million and a half of people a year, contemplates the extension of these possibilities with alarm.

There are not many girls who really need much instruction in housekeeping. Nine out of ten will take as naturally to a desk takes to a husband who is thoughtful and considerate for her comfort.

ANY MAN WHOSE BUSINESS WALL STREET HAS CONVINCED HIMSELF THAT ALL MONETARY pressure is over, and has been acting on the part of stocks has risen $1 83 per share.

PREMIER CRISP'S GREAT VICTORY.

Any doubts which may have existed with regard to the stability of the Triple Alliance will have been set at rest by the overwhelming victory which the Italian Prime Minister has just secured at the general elections.

THE ISSUES BEFORE THE COUNTRY AND ON WHICH the electoral battle may be said to have been fought, were the maintenance of the Triple Alliance, the attitude of the Government toward the Vatican, the freemasonry question, and that of the National finances.

A NEW COLLEGE DEPARTURE. It is said to be a fact that three at least of the leading colleges for young women, Yassar, Smith and Wellesley, will before long give their students instruction in domestic science.

THE PHILADELPHIA TIMES presents its complimentary to Governor Hill and Governor Hill's friends and assures them that "Grover Cleveland will be nominated and elected without even the trouble of an inquiry as to whether New-York shall be for him or against him."

A dispatch from Washington states that a patent has been granted to J. V. Lewis for a "bright-mooring device." Smith M. Weed may desire to buy one of these devices next month.

One of the laws of the Reformed Presbyterian Church prohibits members of that Church from taking any part in civil elections. Recently five young ministers of the Church advocated a departure from the Church's position on this question.

unselfish husbands, and there will be no trouble in finding girls who will wash the dishes, make the puddings, cook the fishes, and perform in love and loyalty.

STREET AND BUSINESS.

Wall Street has convinced itself that all monetary pressure is over, and has been acting on the part of stocks has risen $1 83 per share.

Bar Wall Street as a westervane has been decidedly rusty and untrustworthy. It has been found wrong so often that even when it seems to be right the country is inclined to demand other evidence.

SOME OF THE COTTON MILLS are closing, perhaps because they cannot command money now to purchase the usual supplies of material in advance.

THE SHEP OF PERIA is a fair draughtsman, and is particularly good at drawing portraits. A fact which is well known to the country, or in the neighborhood, he has always at his side a chief copyist.

should have the spectacle of a religious sect depriving a vast body of citizens of their constitutional rights, and preventing them from doing their duty as citizens.

ONE THING WE ARE TAUGHT BY THE FAYEWEATHER will contest, a thing often taught before, but which apparently cannot be taught too often.

A clever observer has aptly described the Democratic party when in power as an organized appetite. If any one wants an illustration of this, let him turn his eyes toward Brooklyn and observe the desperate scramble which is in progress for the Justice which Sheriff-elect Courtney will vacate when he takes his new and more lucrative office.

"THE REPUBLIC" OF ST. LOUIS, states that at the last session of the Legislature of Alabama one of the members introduced a bill providing for the incorporation of a village brass band.

Mrs. Felix Lockwood has decided that she does not want to be a candidate for President. Mr. John G. Whittier will spend his eighty-third birthday at Oak Knoll, Danvers, Mass., but he says his strength is hardly equal to the fatigue and excitement of a general reception.

MUSICAL COMMENT.

RUBINSTEIN'S RESIGNATION—CONCERT OF THE ARION SOCIETY—BIOGRAPHY IN RHYME—MR. THOMAS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

"The most interesting bit of musical intelligence which comes from Europe but week was that concerning Rubinstein's resignation of the directorship of the St. Petersburg Conservatory. The news caused no astonishment among the great musician's friends or the close student of musical affairs abroad.

There can be no question that to Rubinstein Russia music owes a large share of the respect which it now enjoys, though his own compositions are only slightly tinged with the Slavic spirit.
