JACKSON'S FAREWELL SHOT

Colored Pugilist Does Not Think Corbett's Manifesto Worth Answering.

LEAVES CORBETT THE FIELD

Peter Goes to the West Indies and Is Uncertain When He Will Return to This Country—He Is Glad Brady's Scheme Did Not Pan Out Satisfactorily.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Peter Jackson will sail to-morrow morning for the West Indies and was given a farewell banquet to-night by several friends. He does not know when he will return to this country, and in an interview said:

"I cannot see what there is to say. Corbett may have it all his own way now, for I'm off to the West Indies. I am glad I broke up Brady's scheme. That will always be a source of satisfaction to me. I leave the whole field to the great champion. He can talk. I shall not reply. I am classed as a broken-down fighter and accused of fishing for a go with Slavin, also called another broken-down fighter. It is proper therefore that broken-down fighters should class with themselves. So I leave Corbett in full charge.

"I shall think some when I am away of that island in the Missouri River where the fight was to have been held. They say the tides are wonderfully strong out there. What if we had been squaring off at high tide? 'Both Drowned' would have been the newspaper headlines. I shall never again answer anything Corbett may say. He has the field to himself. I certainly do not think his offer to fight in a room, etc., is worth answering."

BOGAN SAVED THE DAY.

Giants Were Prevented from Scoring by the Browns' Right Fielder.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—In the eighth inning Bogan made a wonderful catch and shot the ball down to first, putting out Davis, who was returning from second. This double play shut out a run for the Giants and lost them the game. Meekin kept the home team down to three hits, one of which was turned into a run, and an earned one at that. Breitenstein was reinstated to-day and will pitch in the last game of the series to-morrow. Attendance, 4,200.

GOOD THINGS WENT WRONG.

Ada Blue and Lum Upset the Calculations of the Island Talent.

But for the defeat of Snap and Varuna the Alexander Island talent would have had a good day, as Vexation filly, Classic, and Benjamin filly were the winning favorites. The only drawback was the very short prices at which these three were held. A very remarkable sight was the riding of Slack on the Manola gelding. The jockey's skillful handling of his whip and his apparently desperate efforts in the saddle to do something—or nothing—resulted in Presiding Judge Oyster giving Slack a timely word of caution.

The attendance was large and betting fairly active. Summaries:

A Reminder of the Wire Tappers.

The only reminder the Western Union officials have of the attempt of wire tappers to make a haul Thursday on the St. Asaph poolroom is a coil of wire cable valued at about $100. The tappers are considerably out on their enterprise and have nothing to show for it. It was the general opinion yesterday that the telegraph people were not particularly anxious to catch the tappers or they would have gone about the attempt to capture in a more effective way.

COUPONS POURING IN.

One Contestant Jumps Nearly 1,000 Votes and Another Over 600.

Another change in the great coupon race for the watch has taken place with the passing of another day. Lieut. Kelly's friends are hot in his behalf, and yesterday deposited 659 votes for their favorite, giving him a lead of 350 over Sergt. Daley, who yesterday received nearly a thousand votes.

Private C. C. Estes, of the Sixth, shows a gain of over 600. There are several other important changes.

It is necessary that packages of coupons should be correctly counted before turning them in, for it saves much time in verifying. One package received yesterday was sixteen votes short, and another twelve short. All coupons are carefully counted in the office, but it will save much confusion if senders will also make a careful enumeration.

Candidates and their friends are reminded that all votes received after 6 o'clock will not be included in the score published the following morning, but will be held over for one day.

At the closing of the polls the score stood:

Lieutenant Kelly	1,596
Sergeant Daley	1,246

Tavary Is a Drawing Card.

When Mme. Tavary makes her appearance at the head of the Tavary Grand English Opera Company at the National Theater in this city next week she will have reason to feel proud of the warm manner in which she is certain to be received. Yesterday the demand for seats was even greater than on Thursday, and should the run last another day the house will easily be sold out. "Il Trovatore" appears to be the opera most favored. The other pieces to be sung and which include "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Pagliacci," "Bohemian Girl," "Faust," "Carmen," "Tannhauser," and "Lohengrin" are also extremely popular, and with such an unequaled cast as Manager Charles H. Pratt is bringing to Washington crowded houses are assured. In Brooklyn, where the company is singing this week, standing-room has been at a premium since the opening night, and the ovations which have been tendered Mme. Tavary are a tribute which few have ever received.
