American Tobacco Stocks Rise on Court Rumor.

CARNEGIE TO TELL SECRETS

Congressional Investigation of the Steel Trust Starts Selling-Trust Shares Reach High Mark on Curb.

By THOMAS C. SHOTWELL.

New York, May 22.—Although stocks were strong throughout the session today in Wall street, they showed small net advances at the close of the day.

The market acts as though the really big people had sold enough on the advance of the past week to put them in funds to prevent any reaction of importance.

American Tobacco was active on the curb, and sold up to 50. This is within three points of the highest price ever reached.

The decree against the American Tobacco Company in the lower court is beginning to attract considerable attention in the business world, because it contains the very theory of the case.

The Stanley hearing will, of course, be the important thing tomorrow and for several days, especially as Andrew Carnegie has kindly volunteered to tell all he knows regarding the steel trust.

Persons close to J. P. Morgan privately express the hope that this investigation will show Mr. Carnegie in his true light, as well as prove to the public the intrinsic value of steel.

Reasons for the strength of Rock Island specialties were the expressed intention of increasing the dividend on preferred.
