

Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, in the ring again. He appeared against Ray Newman at San Antonio, Tex., September 25, a few days before he signed articles, in Niles, Mich., to meet Harry Wills.
Photo by H. L. Summersville

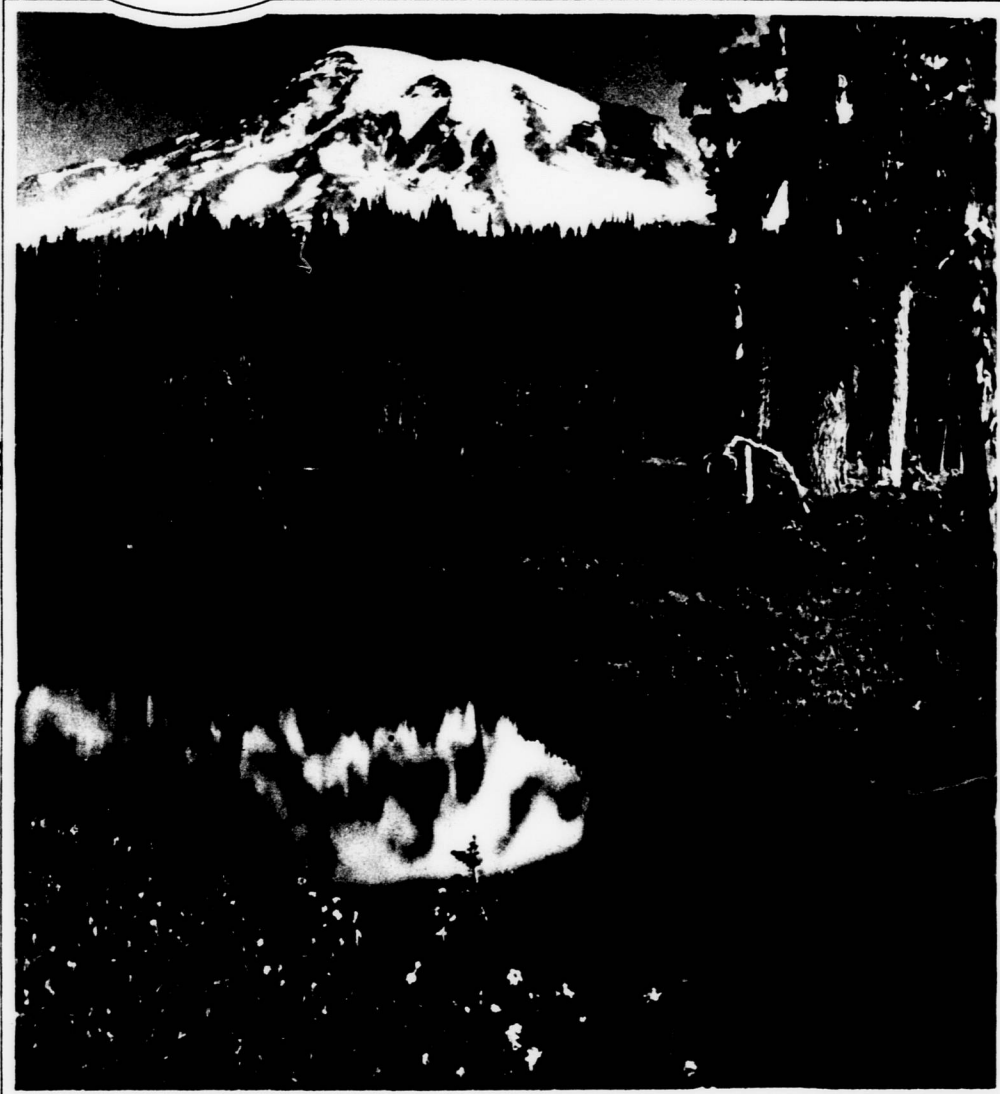

A new vamp type in the movies—or she might be termed the "1926 model." Her name is Myra Low, and she is appearing with Lowell Sherman in "The Love Toy."

Ann Pennington has deserted the white lights of Broadway for the movie studios of California, being starred with Tom Mix in "The Lucky Horseshoe."

The flag of the U. S. S. Camden at half mast in honor of the men who lost their lives when the submarine S-51 sank. The first two bodies taken from the ill-fated undersea craft were placed aboard the Camden.
By Acme Photos

Flowers blooming in the valley; snow on the mountain top. An unusual view of Mount Rainier, in Rainier National Park, from Reflection Lake.
© Curtis, Seattle

Sculptor Begni del Piatta at work on the model of the Navy and Marine Memorial which will be placed in Washington. The gulls, in the completed group, will be poised about 40 feet above an ocean wave. It is estimated that 150,000 Americans have contributed to the building of the memorial.
© Underwood & Underwood

Mary, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. A. C. Arnold of 34 Wine avenue, Hyattsville, Md.
© Harris & Ewing

John Leo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laddbush of 2225 Flagler street.
© Harris & Ewing

Jackie, son of Mrs. W. J. Gendron of 2800 Connecticut avenue. He is a dancing pupil of Stafford Pemberton.
© Harris & Ewing

Doris Eloise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Pitts of 1210 Crittenden street.
© Harris & Ewing