

MISSIONARIES ARE AT WHITE HOUSE

President and Mrs. Wilson Hosts to Visitors to National Congress.

President and Mrs. Wilson were the hosts of the delegates to the National Missionary Congress this afternoon at a reception given at the White House...

Immediately after the reception the third session of the congress was called to order by Chairman James M. Speers, of New York, at Continental Memorial Hall...

Mr. Cory, formerly a missionary to China and at present secretary of the Men and Millions Movement of the Disciples of Christ, sounded the keynote of the missionary movement...

Mr. Cory was one of the representatives of the several religious denominations engaged in missionary work who reported at the morning session of the congress what had been accomplished and suggested what could be done upon this basis...

The morning session was opened with devotional exercises conducted by David McConaughy, of New York, secretary of the Every-Member Play of the Presbyterian church...

Dr. John M. Moore, secretary of the Baptist Forward Movement, was the first speaker. He told of the steps taken leading to the establishment of a systematic missionary educational work in the Baptist church...

Charles A. Rowland, secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Southern Presbyterian Church, told of the movement among the churches to give as much to mission work as they give to themselves...

President Wilson was one of the most interested in the audience which attended the inaugural session last night during the course of the remarkable address by John R. Mott...

Mr. Mott is the practical working head of the Y. M. C. A. throughout the world, and has been instrumental in the establishment of or the promotion of work in established branches of the organization in every country of Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the United States...

ATTORNEY CONFERS ON VON IGEL CASE

Alleged Embassy Attache Does Not Appear at State Department Conference.

John B. Stanchfield, attorney for Wolf von Igel, conferred today with Counselor Folk of the State Department, regarding the general case of the alleged German embassy attache...

After the conference it was said Stanchfield talked informally about von Igel's immunity, but made no representations regarding return of his papers. Von Igel did not accompany him, and has no appointment with Counselor Folk...

Attorney General Gregory has turned over to Secretary Lansing all the documents confiscated at the time of von Igel's arrest, together with photographic copies and plates from which these copies were made...

Hunting American Camels In San Jacinto Mountains

RIVERSIDE, Cal., April 27.—A party of sportsmen left here today for the southern reaches of the San Jacinto mountains, to hunt American camels. E. C. Beach, a prospector, brought the story that a drove of fifteen camels was seen within a few miles of Balton Sea, at the base of the San Jacintos. The camels were introduced for desert travel more than half a century ago, and when the venture was given up the animals were left to shift for themselves.

Mother's Friend

The friend that the expectant mother needs, brings peace of mind, freedom from worry and added comfort. Experienced women advise the use of Mother's Friend because it is so perfectly safe to use and has helped a host of expectant mothers to a happy, normal existence during this very important period. Mother's Friend, to be had at any drug store, is an external treatment that relieves the tension upon the cords and ligaments that come from muscular expansion. It gently soothes the fine network of nerves and brings happy relief from abnormal pains, thus creating comfort and contentment.—Adv.
