MISS KAUFMAN WEDS AT HOME OF PARENTS

Married to Le Roy King Beneath Canopy of Snowy White Flowers.

Beneath a canopy of snowy white spring flowers, in the home of her parents, Miss Alma Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Kaufman, was married to Le Roy King of this city, at noon yesterday.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room before the big open fireplace which had been banked in ferns, palms and clusters of white spring blossoms.

The Rev. Dr. Abram Simon and the Rev. Dr. Louis Stern performed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at small tables arranged in the dining room and sun parlor, both rooms being ablaze with spring flowers. The guests, which numbered about sixty, included relatives and close personal friends of the young couple.

Honeymoon in Asheville. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. King left for their honeymoon, which they are spending in Asheville, N. C. Upon their return to the city, they will make their home with the bride's parents at "Homestead," near Cleveland Park.

The bride, who came down the broad stairway escorted by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white crepe meteor, with sleeves of tulle and toupes of tulle on the bodice. Her tulle veil, which formed a cap, was held in place by orange blossoms, and fell in graceful folds over the court train. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Sister Maid of Honor. Miss Marguerite Kaufman, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore a coloring gown of gray tulle over flesh color satin, and carried an armful of coral sunset pears. The groom had for his best man his cousin, Milton King, of this city.

Mrs. Kaufman, mother of the bride, wore a black net dress over satin, with blue and white sequins and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

The other guests present included G. M. Steppacher and Miss Edna Steppacher, of Philadelphia, house guest; Eileen Newton, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. A. Spear, of Baltimore, and Miss Helen Jonas, of Nashville.
