

PRESIDENT LINES UP CURRENCY FORCE

Caucus Likely to Be Called to Carry out Mandates on Endangered Bill.

(Continued from First Page.) not only because of the tariff revision, but because of the fight he is making for the currency bill.

Decides on Public Ownership of Banks

Public ownership and public control of the regional reserve banks was decided on by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee today.

The resolution provides that subscriptions to the capital of the regional banking system shall be open to the public for sixty days. The banks will underwrite the capital and take up the public debt not taken.

In the form in which the resolution finally passed, it was prepared by Senator Weeks but was a composite of ideas of Senators Reed, Hitchcock and Weeks.

Senator Wilson is understood to have been assured by Senator Weeks that there would be no central bank, but that a regional system under government control would be worked out.
