

WILSON REVIEWS LOST CAUSE "VETS" President and Wife Cheered by Thin Gray Line.

DIPLOMATS CROWD STANDS Rebel Yell and "Dixie" Heard in Front of White House.

Occupying a stand in front of the White House where half a century ago President Johnson reviewed the defenders of the Union...

Besides the President's immediate family there were Mrs. Bolling and Mrs. Marshall, members of the Cabinet and their wives...

A picturesque figure in the reviewing stand was Mrs. La Salle C. Pickett, widow of Gen. George B. Pickett...

Reel Stand Just in Time. The President and his party walked from the Executive Mansion to the stand shortly before 11 o'clock...

The President and his party walked from the Executive Mansion to the stand shortly before 11 o'clock...

The Vice President was cheered when he reached the reviewing stand...

Wild cheering was elicited when the second band in the procession played "Dixie"...

In the straggling lines was a scattering of the blue uniforms of the Sixties, and long columns of men in latter day military regalia...

President Wilson was given ovation after ovation by the aged men in gray, who hailed him as "a Southern man"...

Bands played "Dixie" incessantly when passing through the court...

The famous "rebel yell" was given with a vengeance on several occasions by enthusiastic veterans...

ALUMNI HONOR PATRIOTS Arrange Special Exercises at Western High School.

Patriotic exercises in honor of the many former students of Western High School...

Dr. Elmer S. Newton, principal of the school, and Miss Margaret Bell Merrill...

Selected readings will be given by Miss Alberta Walker, '07...

OVATION FOR HARRISON Commander-in-Chief is Warmly Greeted Along the Line.

Gen. George F. Harrison, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans...

With General Harrison rode Gen. Irvin Walker and Gen. Bennett H. Young...

NORSE ASK FOOD CONTROL 50,000 Persons in Neutrality Parade at Christiania.

CHRISTIANIA, June 7.—Hundreds of thousands of Norwegians throughout the country held peaceful demonstrations...

Red Cross Cars Aid Veterans Washington Chapter's Maids and Matrons Organize Motor Service for Welfare of Men in Parade.

Washington society, in the persons of some fifty of the Capital's most prominent maids and matrons, performed yeoman service in the parade today...

Service of the Washington Chapter, American Red Cross, of which Mrs. J. Borden Harriman is chairman...

The fair drivers, in their gray uniforms, puttees, and trim caps, presented a tremendously businesslike and charming spectacle...

The uniform consists of a tight slate gray coat and short skirt, with a cap of the same color...

Prominent Families Represented. A glance at the list of names of the fair drivers is a reminder of a Washington blue book...

Among the names of the fair drivers are: Miss Mary Brown, Miss Catherine Curtis, Miss Ethel Harriman...

One shot struck the girl in the right temple, another inflicted a wound in the right arm, and the third lodged near the left kidney...

She frequently worked late at the drug store, from about 4 o'clock till midnight...

She frequently worked late at the drug store, from about 4 o'clock till midnight...

Wife and Two Children Greet Young Woman at His Home.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 7.—Coming to this city to attend, as she supposed, the funeral of her fiancé, Ephriam Klerner...

The Newark girl says she has known Klerner for a year. She came here, with her mother, because she had received the following letter...

"Miss Osborne: Just a few lines to let you know that the mishap happened Sunday. A pipe busted and scalded him badly around the face...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

The Drink for June, July and August ICED POSTUM Refreshing—Satisfying!

VIRGINIA'S CADETS THRILL THOUSANDS Military Institute's Continent Make Fine Showing.

The cadet regiment from the Virginia Military Institute played the same part in the parade today that the West Pointers do in the inaugural—for that is what they are—the West Pointers of the South.

And they weren't a Southern heart in all the vast throng along the Avenue that didn't thrill with pride as the V. M. I. cadets went past...

The shooting occurred shortly after 7 o'clock this morning as Miss Porter was going to work...

One shot struck the girl in the right temple, another inflicted a wound in the right arm...

According to witnesses, the Porter girl fell at the first shot. A nearby policeman cried: "Don't shoot her any more!"

MAGNIFICENT FLOAT SYMBOLIZES UNITY "Liberty" Enthroned on Dais as Ruler of All.

One of the prettiest features of the parade came when a gorgeous float, symbolizing the unification of the South with the North...

On a dais of white sat "Liberty," the ruler of all, surrounded by a score of pretty Southern girls and women...

Following this float rode two men, characterized as Indians, the first Americans.

Among them were Miss Elizabeth Heilmiller, who took the part of the Goddess of Liberty...

AVIATOR SAVES FLAG THREATENED BY FIRE Hero Carried to Hospital, Banner Still Clamped in Arms.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

NEW YORK, June 7.—Jack Binns, wireless hero of the steamship Republic, was among the first of the British subjects to register at the British Recruiting Mission...

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 7.—Frank Barrett, twenty-five years old, an aviator in the First Aviation Corps...

Before the arrival of the fire apparatus it was seen that the building was doomed. Mr. Barrett saw the fire was in danger...

air, he enrolled for the Royal Flying Corps, and will submit to examination within a few days.

50c and 59c Table Damask at 29c a yd.

A purchase of the mill's short lengths of 64-inch Mercerized Table Damask—extra fine satin finish quality...

rescue, and the 800 on the rammed vessel were saved—the first rescue at sea engineered through the wireless.

IT PAYS TO DEAL AT Goldenberg's

Store Hours:— Store opens daily at 9 a. m. and closes at 5:45 p. m. Saturdays open until 8 o'clock.

Several hundred applicants were in line when the headquarters opened, under the direction of Brig. Gen. W. A. White.

Both sides of 7th at K St. The Dependable Store

During July and August The store will close Saturday at 1 p. m.

A number of English actors were among the early arrivals. They included George Henschel...

$1 Corsets Reduced to 66c

A clean up of an odd lot of corsets, including various well-known and well-liked makes...

Tomorrow Will Be a Rousing Remnant Friday

Friday Remnant Sales are the medium through which we keep our stocks fresh, new and complete. The recurrence of this important Bargain Feast each week brings remarkable money-saving opportunities in seasonable merchandise for the home and personal wear.

A Sweeping Reduction Sale of 100 Doz. Untrimmed Hats Values Worth Up to $3.00 at 95c

White and Colored Wash Goods Remnants and Mill Lengths at a Fraction of Regular Cost and Real Value!

Two Remarkable Purchases in One Great Sale of Summer Wash Dresses Lot 1—95c Lot 2—$1.95

Extra Strong Attractions in Tomorrow's Sale of Silk Remnants The Most Wanted Silks. Worth $1 & $1.25 Yard, at 59c

A Friday Clearance of 64 MEN'S SUITS Formerly Priced at $10.00 to $15.00... $7.77

HOMES WITH THE BIG YARDS 1139 to 1165 Morse St. N. E. Only $3,500 Only $3,750 Room for Garden and Vegetables. H. R. Howenstein Co.