GODSOL CASE IS POSTPONED AGAIN AWAITING PAPERS

Repeated challenges by former Senator Joseph W. Bailey, counsel for Frank J. Godsol, charged with taking $6,000,000 in graft in connection with contracts for furnishing automobiles to the French government, were ignored by District Attorney Lasker, representing the Government, at the hearing before United States Commissioner Isaac R. Hitt yesterday afternoon.

Stakes Reputation. Bailey made the assertion yesterday that he would stake his reputation as a lawyer upon it that Godsol would never be tried upon the charges on which he was arrested.
