The Chicago Tribune.

Thursday Morning, July 22, 1875.

Greenbacks were stronger yesterday, opening at 83, rising to 85, and closing at 85.

Two more victims are added to the list of those in Germany who rested under the delusion that freedom of speech and of the press was a safe indulgence.

The Connecticut House of Representatives yesterday decided, by a vote of 102 to 52, to let some future Legislature have the honor, if it is so inclined, of conferring the privilege of voting in Presidential elections on the ladies of the Nutmeg State.

The people of Decatur, Ill., are laboring under an attack of gold excitement attendant upon the discovery, upon a farm near that city, of gold in small quantities.

A final decree was entered yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in the Hookford, Rock Island & St. Louis Railroad case.

In England, when a bankrupt succeeds in concealing his financial rotteness and in negotiating his paper to innocent and unsuspecting people, they call it obtaining money by false pretenses, and prosecute the swindlers.

Concerning the proceedings at a purely secret Cabinet meeting in Washington yesterday, not a little is contained in our Washington dispatches.

The nomination of Mr. GEORGE L. DONLAP as City Marshal was submitted to the Common Council last evening, and was referred to the Committee on Police, with instructions to report at or before the next regular meeting.

The Chicago produce markets were again stronger yesterday. Mese pork advanced 80c per barrel under an urgent demand, and closed 85c higher, at $9.20 for August, and $9.40 for September.

for gold to the extent of the coupons except to redeem those very coupons. When a coupon is received for duties it is paid and ready for cancellation.

The Bankers' Convention, which is composed mostly of Cashiers of the National Banks throughout the country, have among other resolutions, adopted one favoring the resumption of specie payments, and calling upon every citizen to hasten the day when every promise of the Government to pay a dollar shall be redeemed in coin.

INCREASE OF AVAILABLE GOLD.
We print this morning a well-written article upon the subject of relieving the demand for gold, and thus hastening the advance of greenbacks towards par.

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT WESTERN TERRITORY,
Provisional April 9, 1875.
A. G. B. Sherman, District Attorney, St. Louis, Mo.

It is now herewith reported that the necessary articles and a small infantry force for their support, just at this moment the advance of Major-General DIXON's column and a part of the division of Gen. BURNELL arrived.

At the close of business June 30, 1875, there were in the Treasury $79,854,000 of gold; at that same date the interest due and payable was $28,450,000, leaving a surplus of $51,404,000.

The merchants of the United States are invited to pay duties have to purchase $163,000,000 of gold annually, of which the Government carries $50,000,000 or more without interest.

The statement is made that a man named CALLAGHAN, who was one of the charter election judges in the Twentieth Ward, and who is now under indictment for stuffing ballot-boxes in behalf of the charter, has been appointed, it is stated, to the position of street foreman by the Board of Public Works.

that controls his action against his better judgment.
But if a Twentieth Ward ballot-box-stuffer is to be rewarded with an official place, how much more do the judges and ballot-box-stuffers of the First Ward and some other wards deserve office?

Mr. CHARLES READE, the novelist, has addressed an open letter to the New York Tribune upon the question of copyright, in which he takes the broad ground that copyright is not a monopoly, and sensationally offers to let £150 to £50 that it is not, and names certain referors to decide it.

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT.

THE HIGHER EDUCATION OF WOMEN.
Vassar College, when it was founded, was the best institution of the sort in the United States. It is hereafter to have competitors which may eclipse it.

PERSONAL.
Count Von Arnim is at Carlsbad. His health is bad, too.
Tom Hingham is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism.

CURRENT OPINION.
The fact of the matter seems to be that Allan has gone over to Cary on the rag-baby issue, and Cary to Allan on the question of whiskey.

THE HUMAN BEE-HIVE.
The United Kingdom of England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and the Channel Islands thrown in, are only twice as large in area as the State of Illinois, but they are all the "world's workshop," and are supplying the unoccupied parts of the habitable world not only with manufactures and capital, but with men.

AN INTERNATIONAL WRONG.
THE REV. LEONARD W. BACON has contributed a paper to the July number of Lippincott's Magazine entitled "Searching for a Grave in a Strange Land" which contains some interesting facts touching the laws of Switzerland regarding cemeteries, showing that it is impossible to obtain a grave there in perpetuity.
