N. Y. WHOLESALE PRICES OF COUNTRY PRODUCE

FOR THE WEEK ENDING JULY 22, 1873.

[REPORTED FOR THE N. Y. TRIBUNE by our own Reporter.]

General Directions.

Send only good articles. The freight and other expenses eat up poor goods. Put everything in good order. An attractive look secures examination, and often makes a sale where a dirty package or a slovenly appearance fails. Pack securely, so that the motion will not allow the contents to change about. Use plenty of clean dry fine cut straw with corn. Mark plainly with paints—a stencil-plate is best—and note contents on the box or bag, stating the amount, also. Send a letter at the same time stating what is sent, the route, time, &c. An invoice or list should also be enclosed in the package. Always state the number of package. Study for yourself a reputation for fine goods, put in best shape, so that your mark is in demand.

BEANS AND PEAS.

Receipts, 605 bbls. beans; exports, 652 bbls. beans, and 1,888 bush. peas. Arrivals of beans previous week, 1,190 bbls., with only 6 bbls. at this time one year ago. Marrow beans are in good shipping and home demand, with prices firm and advancing; Kidney are dull and nominal; Medium are in good demand, and prices firmer; Pea beans are scarce and prices nominal. Green peas, which last week were dull, are now in good demand. Quotations:
