

TAYLOR & HUFTY, LAST EDITION.

933 Penna. Ave.
GLOVE SALE.

The national banknotes received for redemption to-day amounted to $290,000.
THERE were 149 issued and 99 per cent certifies to-day.

GOVERNMENT receipts to-day: Internal revenue, $140,000.01; customs, $1,075,934.45.

SECRETARY OF WAR LINCOLN did not return to Washington to-day as was expected.

APPOINTMENT CLERK BUTLER, of the Treasury, was granted sick leave from his department to-day.

The leave of absence granted Second Lieutenant Robert J. C. Irvine, Eleventh Infantry, is extended ten days.

The leave of absence granted Post Chaplain George A. England is extended two months on surgeon's certificate of disability.

In the absence of Chief Clerk Tweedale, of the correspondence division, is acting chief clerk.

The extension of leave of absence granted Post Chaplain Toussaint Nesple is further extended three months, California and Texas beyond.

LIEUTENANT W. E. STRYKER has been ordered to perform the duties of Superintendent of the Department of Justice during the absence of Professor Newcomb.

THE United States steamer Powhatan, Captain Matthews, left the Portsmouth navy yard yesterday for Hampton Roads to wait for the arrival of the fleet.

ALEXANDER DUYAL has been appointed postmaster at Harlow, Ohio, to succeed J. H. Dancy, who would have had it but for his death.

BENJAMIN F. HORTON has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Christiana to Washington, California, and Santa Ana, a distance of two and a half miles.

THE President to-day appointed the following postmasters: Charles W. Stryker, at Rockville, Ind.; John B. Dancy, at Harlow, Ohio; and H. C. Smith, at Rockville, Ind.

PRESIDENTIAL postmaster's commissions were issued to-day to Wm. Jewell, Jr., to be postmaster at New York, N. Y.; and J. T. Sullivan, to be postmaster at Starbuck, Mississippi.

On account of the rapid quarantine regulations, the Marine Steamer Crawford has been ordered to Mobile, where headquarters will be established.

The First National Bank of Lodi, N. J., has been authorized to commence business. The charter of the First National Bank of Louisville, Ky., was also granted.

The Attorney-General's office is undergoing a thorough renovation. The desks have been removed, carpets taken up, etc. The new building, at the corner of Broadway and Second, will be completed in ten days.

ACTING SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY FRENCH has instructed the U. S. Assistant Treasurer at New York to return the bonds issued by the U. S. Treasury for the purpose of financing the Cuban insurrection.

The Postoffice Department has ordered the promotion of thirteen subcarriers to be auxiliary, twenty-five auxiliaries to be first-class, and four call without regular carriers, all in the Brooklyn (N. Y.) office.

JOHN KELLER was originally appointed postmaster at Fisher's Hill, Shenandoah County, Va., by Congressman Paul for his term of office. He has since resigned.

U. S. BONDS withdrawn from securities of National Bank by the Treasurer and returned to the Secretary of the Treasury for sale.

THE Postmaster-General has authorized a reorganization of the free delivery system of this city so that each regular letter carrier shall have a regular route and one or more carriers operated on a single route.

The following postmasters in Maryland and Virginia were commissioned to-day: Maryland: J. R. Clark, Newburg, Charles County; J. H. Linn, Newburg, Charles County; J. W. Daniel, Locust Hill, Gloucester County; J. W. Daniel, Locust Hill, Gloucester County; J. W. Daniel, Locust Hill, Gloucester County.

LIEUTENANT W. H. JAGUES, U. S. N., has been detached by Commodore Upham, New York Navy Yard, to hold himself in readiness to proceed to the coast of Cuba.

The first detachment of the astronomers authorized by Congress to observe the transit of Venus the 8th of December, will leave for the island of St. Helena, under the command of George C. S. S. S. S. S.

ACTING SECRETARY FRENCH listened to an argument this morning upon the question of the removal of the Treasury to the new building at the corner of Broadway and Second.

THE NATIONAL BANK DEPOSIT CO., COR. 15TH ST. AND N. Y. AVE., Capital $1,000,000.

A CHANCE FOR FAT MEN.

PROFESSOR JOHN C. COLLINS, now located at No. 700 Second street, northwest, has a splendid opportunity to have his fat reduced.

THE OVEN THE BOYS A SHOT.

THE NATIONAL PATENT SHOE, withmovable toes and heels, is the best made. It is now on hand.

IF YOU WOULD AVOID CHILLS AND AGUE, take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

SHOWING BITTENS has been in use for over thirty years and is perfectly safe.

BREWER'S BLOW

FOR THE PROSECUTION TO-DAY

Falls Flat After Bob Ingersoll's Brilliant Effort: The Attorney-General Apologizes for His Appearance in the Case—How He Came to be There—Protest of Dr. W. M. Merriam, of Course, and Unnecessary and Unpleasant Abuse of the Defendants.

Although there was an intermission of one hour and a half most of the audience remained in the chamber, especially the female portion of it. As the time drew near for the court to reassemble the room filled up and again became packed.

The Attorney-General entered the courtroom at 12:45, having in his pocket a book and a bundle of papers. Shortly afterward Mr. Bliss came in. Mr. Brewer arranged his books and papers and commenced speaking a few minutes after 1 o'clock.

It was said that it was now about one year since he had been retained in the case. When first asked, it was his impression that he could not enter into it, but he finally determined that he would take charge of the case if upon investigation it was shown that the prosecution was in a bad state of affairs.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

BARBOUR RENOMINATED

FOR CONGRESS BY ACCLIMATION IN ALEXANDRIA TO-DAY.

The city is filled with delegates to the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Eighth District, which meets at the Army Ball room to-day. The district is composed of eleven counties. About 200 delegates are present, together with a large number of leading members of the party.

Among those present are General William H. Bayne and Colonel Thomas Smith, of Warrenton; Marshall McCormick, of Hays; James Barbour, of Lewis and Clark; George G. Holmes, of Judge Robertson, of Charlestown; Major Hunter and Colonel Conner, of Winchester, Va.

The convention was held to order at 12 o'clock to-day. The delegates met in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Marshall, where the convention was held to order at 12 o'clock to-day.

Major H. E. Bayne, of Lexington, Va., was the only delegate from the district who spoke. He declared in favor of the nomination of James B. Barbour, and urged the delegates to elect him.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

He then reviewed the progress in the case from the time of the filing of the information. He said that it seemed to him that the attorney-general had been in a bad position since he had been retained in the case. He said that he had been retained in the case, and that he had been retained in the case.

EGYPTIAN ENERGY

RESISTING WOLSELEY'S ADVANCE

By All the Means in Their Power—The Canal and the Country Flooded—Arabi's Army Well Armed—The Egyptian Government Well Garrisoned by Black Troops—Arabi Declared a Rebel.

ISRAHIA, Sept. 6.—It is now reported that Arabi has 28,000 troops at Tel-el-Kebir and will be in a good position to resist Wolseley's advance. He has well-armed soldiers and is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

From Damietta to Mansourah, a distance of 100 miles, the country is reported to be in larger numbers and display much activity. It is reported that the army commander-in-chief, Lord Cromer, and Wolseley's advance has been delayed on this account. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi Declared a Rebel. The Sultan's proclamation to the Egyptians has been received. It is reported that the Sultan has declared Arabi a rebel and has ordered the British army to dislodge him from the Khedive's army and to prevent him from provoking the intervention of England. It is stated that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity. It is reported that the British army is well-garrisoned by black troops and large numbers of the same troops will reach him in case of necessity.

Arabi's Method of Warfare. The British army is well-garrison