Capt. Harvey Delano, Former Star Official, Dies

Capt. Harvey Delano, D.M.R., former official, who formerly was director of personnel for The Star, and president of the district, died at his home here yesterday. A native of Maryland, he had been active in the newspaper field for more than 40 years. He was a graduate of George Washington University and held a degree in journalism. He was also a member of the National Press Club and Sigma Delta Chi.

A. Z. Abushady, Egyptian Poet, Commentator

A poet and critic, A. Z. Abushady, known for his contributions to Egyptian literature, has passed away. He was a prolific writer and a respected figure in the literary community.

Curtis Larrimore, 62, Fire Service Official

Curtis Larrimore, 62, a veteran of the fire service, passed away in his home in the District. He had been a member of the service for 30 years and was known for his dedication and service.

Unwritten

Irving Strauss, 69, Noted Cameraman

Irving Strauss, a renowned cinematographer, died yesterday in his home in the District. He was known for his work on many films and television shows.

August Benziger, Past Pointer

August Benziger, a past member of the Washington Pointers, died yesterday in his home. He had been a member for more than 50 years.

Henry Rose, Father Of Treasury Aide

Henry Rose, father of Thomas Rose, a Treasury official, died yesterday in his home. He had been a long-time resident of the District.

In Memoriam

Nathan Wilson, 77 Real Estate Figure

Nathan Wilson, a long-time real estate figure, died yesterday in his home. He had been active in the field for more than 50 years.

Capt. Harvey Delano (A 1968 Photo)

Capt. Harvey Delano, D.M.R., former official, who formerly was director of personnel for The Star, and president of the district, died at his home here yesterday. A native of Maryland, he had been active in the newspaper field for more than 40 years. He was a graduate of George Washington University and held a degree in journalism. He was also a member of the National Press Club and Sigma Delta Chi.