Rolling Out the Ribbons.

We've had a stronghold on the ribbon trade, and this stock shows it plainly enough.

- About 2,500 yards of No. 2 all-silk satin and gros grain ribbon, every color desired among them. Regular 3c quality. Clearance price, per yard 1c

We'll Start 1906 with a Clearing Sale!

THE new year shall begin at the Busy Corner in the midst of a swirl of bargaining. The need of great stocks passed away with the outgoing of the old cycle.

Slashing and Cutting Away of the Cloak Stock!

Dame Prudence holds a warning finger and advises no quarter here. And though we'd rather wait a few weeks and hold on to profit just a little while longer, still we are gainers by being losers.

- 100 fine Tailor-made Jackets in blue, navy, taupe, and cadet, that sold up to $8.75. Reduced Tuesday to $4.98

Clearance of Woolen Dress Goods.

On looking over this department we noticed that there is just twice as great a quantity of certain lines of dress goods. Perhaps it was an error of judgment that led us to overbuying.

- 45-inch all-wool canvas wavy checked. This particular material represents quality which others would consider a special bargain at 80c. Tuesday, per yd. 60c

The Clearance Affects Linings Heavily.

Stock cleaning is the cause of all the price cutting. Make it your duty to investigate the offerings that's being carried on at this counter.

- 200 pieces of 26-inch percale, which were bought especially at a big job before the war. The majority are guaranteed fine blacks, but there are some shades of grey, lavender, assorted blues, and a few other simple colors. This material has a more finish than is sold for less than $1 a yard. Clearance price, per yd. 52c

Another Great Clearance in Our Upholstery Department.

3,000 Muslin, Swiss, and Novelty Curtain Ends—lengths 1 1/2 to 2 yards; majority have lace edge and ruffle. Clearance price 20c

- 300 Fringed Body Brussels and Tapestry Rugs—Clearance price 20c

Boys' Clothing at a Positive Sacrifice.

The first clearance this stock has experienced. It'll be a striking one, too. The success of this department was made right from the jump.

- $4.00 to $6.00 Suits, $2.98

S. KANN, SONS & CO., Eighth and Market Space.

AN ALLEGED FORGED CHECK. Samuel C. McFarland charged with a Serious Offense. Because he is alleged to have forged the name of Mrs. D. W. Prentiss on a check for $10, Samuel C. McFarland, colored, who claims to be a contractor, living at 1223 Fifteenth Street northwest, was today taken into custody by Detectives Heck and Miller and locked up at No. 1 station to await a hearing in court tomorrow morning.

FRIED ONIONS. Indirectly Caused the Death of the World's Greatest General. It is a matter of history that Napoleon was a gourmet and an inveterate lover of the good things of the table, and history further records that his favorite dish was fried onions. Later, it is claimed, the check which was made payable to Stephens Williams, and so endorsed, was pronounced worthless by the National Bank of Washington, on which it was drawn.
