

can be clearly and sharply stated as a question of constitutional law, a question of international law, a question of justice and expediency. This can be stated clearly and sharply in the contract and it can be stated clearly and sharply by an illustration growing out of existing facts.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge an often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is in every wish in curing rheumatism, gain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or had effects following use of liquor, wine, or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Continuing he said: "When hostilities broke out, February 5, 1898, we had no occupancy of and no title of any kind to any portion of the Philippine territory, except the town and bay of Manila. Everything else was in the peaceful possession of the inhabitants. In such a condition of things, Mr. President, international law speaks to us with its awful mandate. It pronounces your proposed action sheer usurpation and robbery. You have no better title, according to the law of nations, to reduce this people to submission than you have to subjugate Mexico or Haiti or Belgium or Switzerland.
