PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

SATURDAY'S SINGLE SESSION.

VEHEMENT CRITICISMS ON ROMAN CATHOLICISM—DIFFERENCES OF OPINION SHOWN IN THE DISCUSSION—DELEGATES TO THE PRESBYTERIAN ALLIANCE—A LETTER FROM GEN. HAWLEY.

The Presbyterian General Assembly held only one session on Saturday, beginning at 9 a. m. and ending at noon. As several ministers had left town to preach yesterday in neighboring cities the attendance of delegates was smaller than usual. Many of those who came to the Tabernacle did not remain inside during the session, but loitered in little groups on the shady side of the street or in the open hallways. Much of the time was occupied by the Rev. Dr. Breckinridge in his speech on the "Efficacy of Roman Catholic Baptism"—a speech of which the Assembly had received repeated warnings. On Friday last, when a motion was made to limit all speakers on debate to five minutes, Dr. Breckinridge protested, on the ground that his proposed speech could not be put within the limits of half an hour. It was therefore not a surprise to most of the delegates when he spoke on Saturday for over an hour. He was very deliberate, making long pauses between his sentences. Many of the younger members of the Assembly manifested impatience, and the inattention of the audience became so marked that the speaker complained of it. At one time he remarked that some of his brethren seemed to be more interested in reading the newspapers than in listening to him. At other times he laid aside a few pages of his manuscript, saying that they contained valuable portions of his speech, but that he feared the Assembly could not stand them. Frequently he paused and said, "Well, I am hastening on." At the conclusion of his speech there was little time left for debate. The Rev. Dr. Lindsley made an effort to have the time of the session extended. He said he wished to "feel the pulse of the Assembly" by his motion, which was lost by an almost unanimous vote. As he descended from the platform a delegate caused much laughter by inquiring what he thought of the Assembly's pulse.

The first business of the Assembly was to consider the report made by a delegation of the Presbyterian Church in America to the London Conference of July, 1875. The report states that the delegation of the General Assembly, consisting of the Rev. Drs. Howard Crosby, Samuel J. Wilson, E. L. Hatfield, and E. D. Morris, met in London July 21, 22, and 23, in consultation with delegations from 22 Presbyterian organizations in various parts of the world. The chief business of the Conference was the preparation of a form of Constitution which provides for a permanent "Presbyterian Alliance," to meet in general council from time to time, in order to confer upon matters of common interest. It was resolved that the first meeting of this Alliance should be held in Edinburgh, Scotland, on the first Tuesday of July, 1876, and it was agreed that the several bodies choosing to enter into the alliance under the proposed constitution may be represented in such proportions as will entitle the Church in America to forty delegates. The time of this meeting has been changed to July, 1877, yet, the report states, it is important that this General Assembly should take action with respect to the delegations to be sent from this country. The Rev. Dr. Morris presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That our branch of the Presbyterian Church, as represented in this General Assembly, approves the constitution proposed by the London Conference, and cordially enters into the Presbyterian Alliance on this basis: That the Moderator and the Stated and Permanent Clerks of the Assembly, and the Rev. Howard Crosby, D. D., the Rev. James McCosh, D. D., and the Rev. S. I. Prime, D. D. be a special committee to appoint delegates from this Church to the first meeting of the Presbyterian Alliance at Edinburgh, July, 1877.

CLOSING THE WORLD'S FAIR ON SUNDAY.

The following letter from Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, Chairman of the Centennial Commission, dated Philadelphia, May 24, and addressed to the Rev. Drs. Van Dyke and Talmage, was read and elicited applause:

DEAR SIRS: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 19th inst., including the resolutions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in session in Brooklyn, N. Y., approving the action of the United States Centennial Commission in closing the Exhibition on Sundays. The very eminent and able gentlemen delegated for the purpose by the Assembly appeared before the Executive Committee and a summary of the Commission as are in town, this afternoon, and were heard with very great satisfaction. The hearing of approval and encouragement of the Assembly are very gratifying, and I sincerely hope we may continue to agree. Very respectfully, JOSEPH R. HAWLEY.

ROMAN CATHOLIC BAPTISM.

The order of business was then declared to be a consideration of the overture of the Synod of Missouri in regard to the efficacy of Roman Catholic Baptism, asking the Assembly to "report the testimony of our branch of the Church, so often borne and now put in jeopardy, and to declare in plain terms that the Church of Rome, so called, is not the Church of Christ nor any part of it, but an anti-Christ, and that any person coming out of their body and wishing to join our communion is to be treated in this manner as coming from the world without Christian baptism." The overture has already been published entire in THE TRIBUNE. The Rev. Dr. Breckinridge offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Assembly reaffirms the opinion expressed in the year 1835, in these words: "It is the deliberate and decided judgment of this Assembly that the Roman Catholic Church has essentially apostatized from the religion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and therefore cannot be recognized as a Christian Church."

Dr. Breckinridge then spoke at length on the resolution, reading the greater part of his speech from manuscript. He described in detail many of the forms and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church, declaring it to be anti-Christian on the ground that it worshipped the Virgin Mary as the "Queen of Heaven," raising her above Christ in worship; that it was guilty of idolatry in the worship of relics; that it ascribed to the Pope powers and reverence which belong to Christ alone, one that it usurped the powers of God in the confessional and the forgiveness of sins. Dr. Breckinridge's declarations against the Roman priesthood were very sweeping, and were launched with the utmost vehemence.

Dr. Knox agreed with the speaker in his conclusions, but criticised him for making his argument so long and detailed. The Rev. G. W. Chamberlain of Brazil gave some account of his experiences with Roman Catholics. He spoke in much the same strain with Dr. Breckinridge, and said that if the Assembly was willing to revegalize the Catholic Church as a Christian Church he did not wish to return to Brazil, there to renew a bitter conflict with the Roman Catholics in his efforts to proclaim the truth. The Rev. W. W. Brier of the San José Presbytery offered his protest against the resolutions. He said that many Catholic priests were doing much good in converting the Indians, and he was more inclined to aid them in their work than to make war against them. He believed that the old Roman Church would never be overthrown, but that it would be made better during the millennium, which he said he expected to see. The Moderator said he must arrest the discussion, as the time for adjournment was at hand. The whole subject was then referred to a special committee of five, to report to the next Assembly. After some announcements the Assembly adjourned with prayer.

A SOCIAL RECEPTION.

On Friday evening the delegates to the General Assembly were given a reception at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldon in Brooklyn. The attendance of delegates and ladies was large, and three hours were occupied in social enjoyment. The prominent names present included, in addition to a large representation of the Bar, the following clergymen: The Rev. Drs. Jacobus and Newkirk, Dr. Allison of Pittsburg, Dr. Pomeroy of Cleveland, Dr. S. Jackson of Colorado, several missionaries from Persia, China, India and Siam, and many others; while the home clergy was represented by the Rev. Drs. Hall, Storrs, Budington, Cuyler, and Van Dyke.

THE ASSEMBLY IN THE SOUTH.

DELEGATES TO THE EDINBURGH COUNCIL—FRATERNAL RESOLUTIONS SENT TO THE BROOKLYN GATHERING.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 28.—The General Assembly closed its session yesterday. Twenty-eight delegates nominated by special committee were unanimously elected to the Pan-Presbyterian Council to be held in Edinburgh in 1877. They represent the following districts: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Memphis, Mississippi, Missouri, Nashville, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia, and delegates at large.

The Committee to whom was referred the resolutions from the Northern Assembly in regard to fraternal relation, reported the following, which was unanimously adopted and telegraphed to Brooklyn:

We already most cordially enter on fraternal relations with your body on any terms honorable to both parties, and then as an explanation of what our feeling is, we send the action taken in answer to the overture from the St. Louis Presbytery, which is:

Resolved, That the action of the Baltimore Conference, approved by the Assembly at St. Louis, explains with sufficient clearness the position of our Church; but, inasmuch as it is represented by the overture that misapprehension exists in the minds of some of our people as to the spirit of this action, in order to show our disposition to remove on our part all real or seeming hinderance to friendly feeling, the Assembly explicitly declares that while condemning certain acts and deliverances of the Northern General Assembly, the acts or deliverances of the Southern General Assembly are to be construed or admitted as impugning in any way the Christian character of the Northern General Assembly, or of the historical bodies of which it is the successor.

The Assembly selected New-Orleans as the place for the next meeting, which will take place on the third Thursday of May, 1877.

REBUILDING A CHURCH.

The corner-stone of the new Central Presbyterian Church, on Fifty-seventh-st., near Seventh-ave., was laid Saturday afternoon. The new church will be a handsome edifice, in modified Gothic style. It will be 106 feet long and 74 feet wide. The material of the front will be brown stone, half dressed. The estimated cost of the building is between $66,000 and $70,000, of which two-thirds has been already raised. The pastor of the church, the Rev. James D. Wilson, the Rev. Drs. T. S. Hastings, Stephen H. Tyng, Thomas Armitage, and John Hall, with several other prominent clergymen, took part in the services. The corner-stone was first laid in 1852, as the corner-stone of the Nineteenth Street Church, and is carved with the numerals of that and the current year. Two lead boxes were prepared, one of which contained the articles which were put in the corner-stone in 1852, consisting of the newspapers of that date, an almanac, church manual, and the outlines of the church history up to 1852. In the other were a continuation of the church history up to the present date, and various other church documents, the current newspapers, programmes of the exercises, and cards of invitation. The elders of the church had presented a trowel for the occasion, with which the Rev. Mr. Williams spread the mortar securing the cap-stone. After this ceremony the Rev. Mr. Robinson offered prayer, the Sunday-school children sang a hymn, and the exercises were concluded with the singing of the doxology.

THE HEALTH BOARD'S DIFFICULTIES.

The Health Commissioners received Saturday the opinion of their counsel, Col. W. P. Prentice, upon the recent orders of the Police Board in relation to the duties of the Sanitary Squad. He thinks the new rules are contrary to law, as the act of approval by the Police Board upon the action of the Health Board is assumed as being possible; also that they will lead to obstructions and delays. Resolutions were passed in reference to the supply of water in the Board's rooms, which has been cut off by the Police Commissioners, asking the Mayor to consider the matter. Other resolutions were adopted, calling the attention of the police to the law governing the relations of the two departments, and to the injury which will probably follow the loss of the services of the trained men in the Sanitary Squad.

THE COURTS.

COST OF THE COURT-HOUSE.

A VERDICT FOR THE CITY IN THE SUIT FOR THE ARCHITECT'S CLAIM.

The suit of Hannah Kellum, widow and executrix of John Kellum, the architect of the County Court-house, which had been on trial for three weeks before Judge Barrett, in Supreme Court, Circuit, was ended on Saturday, after the jury had been out 24 hours, by a verdict for the city. The suit was for 3 per cent on the cost of the Court-house. The original claim was for 3 per cent on $8,000,000, the nominal cost, less $2,800,000, on which Mr Kellum had already been paid his percent. In the progress of the trial the plaintiff's counsel abandoned this extreme figure, and claimed the total cost to be $4,300,000, which, after deducting $2,800,000, would leave about $45,000 as the percentage on the balance. Of this about $26,000 had been audited by the Supervisors, and it was held by the Court that this audit was conclusive against the city, unless it was entitled to damages through some fault of the architect causing injury to the city. On the trial a most thorough discussion of the proper cost of the Court-house was had, architects and engineers employed by the city measuring the work done, and experts in all branches calculating the cost of labor, etc. George K. Radford, an engineer of this city, on these elements, calculated that the total honest cost of the building as it stands, accepting the contract prices for materials as honest, and making a liberal estimate for the labor on it, was less than $2,300,000. This, however, did not affect the portion of the bill already audited, but the city's experts testified that in designing the iron-work, the architect, by faulty design, had put the city to $400,000 more expense than was necessary. Judge Barrett charged that if this was done through ignorance or neglect of the commonly known principles of architectural iron-work, the city might set it off by way of defense to the present claim.

The jury went out at 11:30 Friday morning, and at 4 in the afternoon came in and got the stenographer's report of the testimony. They came in at 10 o'clock on Saturday, saying they stood hopelessly 11 to 1. Judge Barrett sent them back, with an intimation that unless they agreed they would be locked up until Monday, and it took the desired unanimity was reached, and a verdict given for the city. John E. Parsons appeared for the plaintiff; William C. Whitney and F. L. Stetson for the city.

CIVIL NOTES.

A suit has been begun in Supreme Court, Circuit, by Joseph A. Meschemer, as assignee of ex-Sheriff James O'Brien, for his services as sheriff in 1868, 1869, and 1870, the claim being for $258,985 41.

In the suit of A. T. Stewart & Co. against Moses Strasburger, the defendant was arrested for fraudulently obtaining goods from the plaintiffs. The affidavits on which the arrest was ordered went to show that Strasburger, after putting his property out of the reach of his creditors, had made large purchases of goods on credit from various dealers in the city. On the other side, Strasburger claimed that this particular bill was bought by his wife, though delivered at his house. Judge Lawrence, on the hearing of the motion to vacate the arrest, before Chief Justice Daly, General Term, have reversed this decision, holding that this fact alone was not controlling.

Judge Barrett on Saturday, in Supreme Court, Chambers, granted an order transferring to the United States Circuit Court the case of the Mayor, &c., against the New-England Transfer Company, which was begun in the Supreme Court. The Company transport cars from Morris's dock to the East River to Jersey City, and its business was recently made the subject of an opinion presented, by request, by George Tickner Curtis to the Common Council. The Company's transportation would be affected by the passage of bills recently in England in this city on their way to various points in the South and West. The city's suit is to restrain the Company from operating a ferry without paying a license.

DECISIONS—MAY 27.

Supreme Court—Chambers—By Judge Donohue.—Ramsey agt. Farley and ano.—Motion granted to put on short calendar.

By Judge Larremore.—The Mutual Life Insurance Co. agt. Tallman et al.—Where the terms of sale were executed by the purchaser, he acquired the equitable title to and had an insurable interest in the property, which it was his duty to protect. (Reclaimed agt. The Hartford Fire Insurance Co. 3 N. Y., 1 Duer, 151.) The plaintiff, as mortgagee, was not bound to insure except for its own benefit, and the omission of the mortgagor to effect a sale under foreclosure cannot relieve the purchaser from his obligation. Application granted. Ilma agt. The Astor Fire Insurance Co.—The receiver was authorized by law to retain out of the moneys in his hands sufficient sum to pay litigated claims. (6 S. 83; 3 E. D. S., 771, 5th cit.) He should therefore report to the Court what amount, if any, he has thus reserved, and why it is not paid to the claimant. When such report is made a proper order can be directed in the premises.

"Ain't forty dollars rather high for lodging and breakfast?" was what a departing stranger by the Kingsbury stage inquired of the clerk at one of our leading hotels, on being told that was the amount of his bill. "Yes, it is a little high, but we might as well have it as the stage robbers," was the placid answer of the clerk as he receipted the bill.—San Antonio Herald.
