HIDES—There was a fair business effected in this market, but only are the demands from brewers very small, but also from shippers; no probable changes can be made, however, though the tone is rather easy; we quote: New-York, good to choice the tone is rather easy; we quote: New-York, good to choice 32c.; Yearlings, 10@20c.; Olds, all growths, 4@8c.; California, 25@27c.; do., Low to Fair, 25@32c.; Eastern, New, 25@ 30c.; Yearlings, 10@20c.; Olds, all growths, 4@8c.; California Mustang, 15@20c.

WOOL—The business in Foreign grades was again small, and prices were more or less nominal. New-Orleans was in some jobbing demand at 40@55c. for Old Crop, and 55c. for Choice New.

NAVAL STORES—The business in Spirits Turpentine was very moderate in consequence of the fall strong figures, at the close, of early in the day, 100 bbls. sold at 35½c. Rosin Market also was very firm and somewhat buoyant, which seemed to check trade; sales of 450 bbls. Good Strained which seemed to check trade; sales of 450 bbls. Good Strained; at $2 0 @$2 07½. We quote $2 for Common Strained; at $2 05@$2 10 for Good Strained; $2 15@$2 25 for No. 2; $2 05@$2 10 for Good Strained; $2 15@$2 25 for No. 2; $2 40@$2 45 for No. 1, and $2 50@$4 50 for Pale to Extra do. Tar and Pitch were quiet, but decidedly steady.

OCEAN FREIGHTS—There was nothing specially new in the berth room market; the demands were only moderately fair onier and in keeping with the present supplies of tonnage, consequently rates can be considered about steady. The movement in charters was exceedingly small, and yet no change in rates took place; on the contrary, quite a steady tone existed.
