

ELECTION FRAUDS ILLUSTRATED.

SAMPLES OF THE SYSTEM OF REPEATING.

HOW ILLEGAL VOTERS, REPEATERS, AND FRAUDULENTLY NATURALIZED CITIZENS WILL ATTEMPT TO DEFEAT HONEST ELECTIONS IN NEW-YORK AND BROOKLYN.

The following table, compiled from official lists, will convey to the reader at a glance the character of the fraudulent registration which is going on in this city. These instances are selected at random from several thousand cases have been detected, and more of which will doubtless be discovered. The publication by THE TRIBUNE thus far of these fraudulent cases has caused many to abandon the pious that know them, and it is hoped will deter others who had contemplated perjury from registering to-day and Saturday:

Table with columns: Name, Number and Street, Character of House, Character of Voter, Remarks. Lists names like Thomas Fox, Martin Decker, etc., with details of their addresses and voter status.

Table with columns: Name, Address, Remarks. Lists names like Michael Sullivan, John Roberts, etc., with details of their addresses and voter status.

Table with columns: Name, Address, Remarks. Lists names like Charles Fisher, Henry O'Neill, etc., with details of their addresses and voter status.

COLONIZATION BY REPEATERS.

FRAUDULENT REGISTRATION IN THE TENTH AND ELEVENTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS. One case which serves as an illustration of the system has been referred to in this column. It is the case of a man who has been registered in the tenth and eleventh assembly districts for several years past in an irregular manner.

FICTITIOUS NAMES AND RESIDENCES.

EVIDENCE OF FRAUD FOUND BY THE LETTER-CARRIERS. Further evidence of registration frauds appear in the following statement of facts: On Oct. 4 the Independent Citizens' Committee caused to be printed a large number of postal cards, inviting cooperation in the execution of its political purposes.

IRREGULARITIES IN BROOKLYN.

THE REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF KINGS COUNTY is holding a meeting every evening in the rooms of the committee, on Wednesday evening, that the work would occupy about one week longer, and then the results would be made known.

FALSE SWEARING BY MINORS.

REGISTRATION BY PERSONS UNDER AGE—ALLEGED LARGE INCREASE OF THIS PRACTICE. Of the various methods of illegal registration which are at present in common frequent use, in view of the importance of the coming election, none is perhaps easier of accomplishment and less liable to detection than a false statement of age, and those who have given attention to the remarkable increase of registration this far this year have arrived at the conclusion that it is a method very often employed.

follows: The chairman of the committee assigns to each street operation of a street a certain member. The latter ascertains the number of voters in each house, their ages and the time of residence in the ward, and also any questionable circumstances. When these lists are completed, the names are compared with the lists of registered voters, and any names which have been discovered, but which have not been included in the first of next week, although several persons are employed in making the comparison.

It is a well-known fact in this city, and it is a well-known fact in this city, that the names of the voters are compared with the lists of registered voters, and any names which have been discovered, but which have not been included in the first of next week, although several persons are employed in making the comparison.

It is a well-known fact in this city, and it is a well-known fact in this city, that the names of the voters are compared with the lists of registered voters, and any names which have been discovered, but which have not been included in the first of next week, although several persons are employed in making the comparison.

THE LATE ELIHA BROOKS.

ELIHA BROOKS has for so long a time filled a large place among the merchants of this city that something more than the usual obituary seemed to be necessary to record his death. He was born in the city of New-York, on June 15, 1815. His father, Henry S. Brooks, was the founder of the clothing business which has reached so great proportions under the management of his sons.

THE PARK BANK DEFAUCATION.

THOMAS ELLIS, the defuncting teller of the National Park Bank had been absconded with a late in the morning, and the defaulter expressed confidence that they had him at an early day. It is understood that they had some information in regard to his flight which it was deemed inadvisable to make public at present.

THE HON. CHARLES E. DE LONG.

CHARLES E. DE LONG, once widely known as Minister to Japan, died yesterday of typhoid fever at the residence of his wife, Mrs. De Long, at No. 114 Broadway, when, in 1869, he was appointed by President Grant Minister to Japan.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Navy Department is advised of the arrival of the ship Tennessee, of the Asiatic station, at Nagasaki, Japan, on Sept. 14. The ship was commanded by Comdr. J. D. Marvin, and arrived at Nagasaki on Sept. 14. The officers and men were received by the Commodore, and the ship was placed on the coast.

THE CONTINENTAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER OF THE CONTINENTAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY was a subject of general comment among life insurance men yesterday. The receiver, John J. Anderson, was the Vice-President of the Hope Life Insurance Company at the time it was reformed by the New-York Mutual Life, and was afterwards Secretary and Treasurer of the latter company.

THE PARK BANK DEFAUCATION.

SEARCH FOR THE DEFALTING OFFICER—FURTHER INFORMATION IN HIS ACCOUNTS. THOMAS ELLIS, the defuncting teller of the National Park Bank had been absconded with a late in the morning, and the defaulter expressed confidence that they had him at an early day.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT was weaker yesterday than he has been for some time. He did not suffer much from pain, but remained unusually quiet, and conversed only at rare intervals. The attending physicians did not feel apprehensive of any change for the worse last night. Very few visitors were allowed to see him during the day, on account of his weak condition.

FAILURE OF THE SULLIVAN JURY TO AGREE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—The jury in the case of the People against Alexander Sullivan, on trial in the Criminal Court here for the murder of Francis Hanford, came into the court room and again informed the Court, Judge McAllister, that they were unable to agree and asked to be discharged. With this request the Court complied. It is understood that the jury stood together during the trial, and that the case was adjourned to the next day.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

A GRAND-ST. BAZAAR. FINE DISPLAY OF FASHIONABLE SILKS, GLOVES, AND FURS. Edward Ridley & Sons' store in Grand-st. is a bazaar, containing goods of all kinds, from the lowest priced to the highest, extending all the way from the lowest to the highest, extending all the way from the lowest to the highest.

THE RAILROAD WAR.

PROBABLE ADVANCE ON EASTWARD BOUND FREIGHTS. The meeting was in session nearly three hours, during which the various representatives of the Grand Trunk, and Lake Shore, Canada Southern, Michigan Central, and Great Western railroads, held a session at the office of Samuel Sloan, President of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Michigan Central railroads, at No. 26 Exchange place, the question of an advance in Eastward-bound freight rates was fully discussed.

BROOKLYN'S MAMMOTH STORE.

Loefer's mammoth store, with its three entrances on Fulton, Washington, and Tillary-sts., is now filled with most attractive goods of all kinds. The store is full of goods of all kinds, and there are many things which ladies and children wear—especially, perhaps, shoes—made in a manner to meet all the requirements of comfort, convenience, and good taste.

THE LATE ELIHA BROOKS.

ELIHA BROOKS has for so long a time filled a large place among the merchants of this city that something more than the usual obituary seemed to be necessary to record his death. He was born in the city of New-York, on June 15, 1815. His father, Henry S. Brooks, was the founder of the clothing business which has reached so great proportions under the management of his sons.

THE PARK BANK DEFAUCATION.

SEARCH FOR THE DEFALTING OFFICER—FURTHER INFORMATION IN HIS ACCOUNTS. THOMAS ELLIS, the defuncting teller of the National Park Bank had been absconded with a late in the morning, and the defaulter expressed confidence that they had him at an early day.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT was weaker yesterday than he has been for some time. He did not suffer much from pain, but remained unusually quiet, and conversed only at rare intervals. The attending physicians did not feel apprehensive of any change for the worse last night.

FAILURE OF THE SULLIVAN JURY TO AGREE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—The jury in the case of the People against Alexander Sullivan, on trial in the Criminal Court here for the murder of Francis Hanford, came into the court room and again informed the Court, Judge McAllister, that they were unable to agree and asked to be discharged.