THE ELECTIONS.

NATIONAL AND STATE TICKETS.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS TO BE VOTED FOR IN EVERY STATE EXCEPT COLORADO—FIVE PRESIDENTIAL TICKETS—EVERY STATE EXCEPT FIVE TO VOTE FOR CONGRESSMEN—15 GOVERNORS TO BE ELECTED—THE STATE LEGISLATURES TO ELECT 18 NEW SENATORS.

Thirty-seven States will choose Presidential Electors on Tuesday next. The Republican Legislature of Colorado, the 38th State, will elect her three Electors. Members of the XLVth Congress will be elected in every State except Colorado, Indiana, Maine, Ohio, New-Hampshire, and Vermont; Delegates to Congress will also be elected in the Territories. The States last named, with the exception of New-Hampshire, have elected Congressmen. The Republicans of Colorado claim that the member elected to the XLIVth Congress in October was also elected to the XLVth Congress. The Democrats, however, propose to test this claim, and will vote for Thomas M. Patterson (Dem.), the last Delegate from the Territory. There are five Presidential tickets in the field, as follows:

Six States—Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New-York, and Virginia—will vote upon proposed amendments to their State Constitutions, and North Carolina will vote upon a new Constitution. The Kansas amendments forbid the drawing of money from the State Treasury except under specific appropriations, and fix the terms of county officers. The Louisiana amendments limit the expenses of each session of the General Assembly to $175,000; fix the salary of members at $5 a day and mileage at 20 cents a mile; provide for bills becoming laws when not returned by the Governor within five days, and when signed within 20 days after the adjournment of the Legislature; transfer the judicial powers of the Parish Courts to the District Courts; fix the salaries of District Judges at $4,000 a year and the Governor's salary at $6,000, and forbid the payment of fees or perquisites to the Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney-General or District-Attorneys. The Michigan amendments (1) strike out the article prohibiting the granting of liquor licenses; (2) increase the salaries of Circuit Court Judges from $1,500 to $2,500; and (3) state the manner in which Constitutional amendments shall be adopted. The Republican and Democratic Committees unite in urging the adoption of the second amendment. The Minnesota amendments provide (1) for the vetoing of single items in appropriation bills; (2) the assigning of District Court Judges to sit in the place of Supreme Court Judges when all or a majority of the latter are disqualified from sitting in any case; (3) and for making stockholders of corporations liable only for their unpaid installments owned by him. The New-York amendments abolish the offices of Canal Commissioners and Inspectors of State Prisons, and substitute in their place a Superintendent of Public Works and a Superintendent of Prisons. Each Superintendent will appoint three assistants and all other subordinates, except the clerks of each prison; the latter will be appointed by the Controller. The proposed new Constitution for North Carolina makes radical changes, and will receive the support of the Democrats. The Republicans will vote against it. The Virginia amendments, against which the Republicans of the State will vote, relate to the elective franchise, qualification for office, and the Legislative department.
