

MOB BUNCHES AND BURNS 2 GA. NEGROES

WASHINGTON, Ga., Oct. 6.—Jack Gordon and Will Brown, negroes, were taken from the Lincoln county jail at Lincolnton early today by a mob and burned, according to a telephone report received here. Following the burning, the bodies of both negroes were taken to the stake, it was said. Gordon was charged with shooting Deputy Sheriff Roy Freeman and Boyce Fenton when the officers attempted to place him under arrest yesterday on charges of carrying concealed weapons and disorderly conduct. Brown was an alleged accomplice. Freeman was reported to be dangerously wounded today and is not expected to recover. Fenton's wounds were not serious. More Martin, another negro, was taken and killed by members of a mob yesterday, when he is alleged to have denounced efforts to capture Gordon and Brown. Five other negroes reported to have been taken in charge by the mob were released early today, it was stated.

ORPHANED SLAV BOY IS BRITISH MASCOT

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Trudging down the gangplank of the steamship Calmar, from Archangel, close at the heels of a British officer was a little white-faced, under-nourished thirteen-year-old Russian boy, his eyes wide open in astonishment, says a copyrighted dispatch from Liverpool to the Philadelphia Public Ledger. He was the mascot of the last detachment of British troops—the Gordys and Bucks' light infantry—to leave Archangel, having been adopted by the officer. His father was killed in the Russian army fighting the Germans, and his mother now is a prisoner of the Bolsheviks.

UNCLE SAM AGAIN ON TRUSTS' TRAIL Supreme Court Today Takes Up Task of Making Big Corporations Behave.

With the reconvening of the Supreme Court today the Government's big trust-busting campaign, postponed on account of the war, was on in full swing in its final stages. Seven cases of anti-trust prosecution are before the court for final decision, and the result of the suits undoubtedly will have a far-reaching effect on American business. Much depends on the construction the Supreme Court puts of the Sherman and Clayton acts under which the suits were brought. All of the cases are near the top of the docket and will be argued as soon as a few special cases are disposed of. Decisions are expected early in 1920. Some of the cases represent nearly nine years of legal battles between the government and the corporations. The first case on the new court docket is the United States vs. the Lehigh Valley railroad, while No. 3 is the Government against the coal producing and shipping trusts. The Government lost both of these cases in lower courts. The noted struggle of the Government against the United States Steel Corporation, known as the "Gordys Trust," is No. 6 on the docket. Here again the Government is on the defensive, having lost in the lower courts.

GIFTS TO HARVARD CUT INCOME TAXES

"Give to Harvard University and cut down your income tax." This is the slogan adopted today by canvassers in the local campaign to aid in raising a $15,000,000 endowment fund for Harvard. Under the Holtz bill, contributions to the endowment fund are deductible up to 15 per cent of an individual's net income. For instance, a man with a taxable income of $10,000 a year may contribute $1,500 to the Harvard fund with the privilege of deducting the amount from his taxable net income in figuring the income subject to taxation. This contribution would therefore reduce a $10,000 income to $8,500, and for a $2,000 exemption for a married man, to $6,500, and the tax would be reduced from $690 to $28, a saving of $662. In other words, of the $1,500 gift, the donor would be giving $1,333, and the remainder of the gift would be made up of the tax reduction of $165.

AUTHORS OF BONUS BILLS WILL MEET

Gallivan Seeks Agreement That All Will Support to Aid Ex-Yanks. With more than a score of bills pending to grant an additional bonus to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, Congressman Gallivan, of Massachusetts, plans to call a conference this week of all bonus bill authors with a view to bringing about agreement on a measure that all will support. The bonus bills now pending provide for payment of amounts ranging from $30 to $500 for former service men, and most of them make it optional with the beneficiaries to accept cash or Government bonds. The passage of a bill carrying a substantial bonus would make another bond issue necessary. Republican leaders who are advocating economy would oppose increasing the cost of that already faces the country.

LANE AND WILSON NETHERLANDS POST FOLK AMENDMENT

(Continued from First Page.) be restricted to the same vote as the United States in the league assembly in matters involving the two nations. This probably will be disposed of in a day or so. Cite Massachusetts Democrats. Republican leaders have no hope of obtaining enough votes to adopt either amendment. The prospects for adopting the Johnson amendment to equalize the voting power of the United States and Great Britain in all questions coming before the league assembly upon which the two nations participate, were thought by the Republican leaders today to be enhanced by the arrival of the members of the Democratic convention at Boston Saturday, when in its resolution urging ratification of the treaty, it advocated an amendment along the line of that offered by the California Democrats. The action of the Massachusetts Democrats, it was said, would give Senator Walsh of that State ample reason for voting for the amendment, which he has stated privately, he favors. With Mr. Walsh's vote in support of the amendment, its advocates count upon four Democratic votes. Senators Ford and Gore have already announced their intention of voting for it, and there is one more Democrat, whose name has not been disclosed, who is expected to vote for it, and who has assured them that he will support it. Thomas or Shields. This recruit from the Democratic ranks is said to be either Senator Thomas of Colorado, or Senator Shields of Tennessee. The latter had not announced his position on the Johnson amendment. The Republicans are unable to tell just what support they will get from the "mild reservationists" on the Johnson amendment, admitting that three or four of them may vote against it. Republican leaders, who are not opposed to the amendment, say the vote will go their way. The Johnson amendment, according to the program now under way, will be reached next week and after that will come the fight on reservations. Stands Against Committee. Mr. Hitchcock declared that the Administration leaders were not considering any compromise on the reservations advocated by the majority of the Senate Relations Committee. The only program they would consider at this time, he said, would be interpretative reservations, such as the President has indicated he would not oppose.

MCCLUMBER SEES U. S. MIGHTY IN LEAGUE

Entire Western Hemisphere Would Vote With Us, He Tells Senate. Great Britain and her dominions would not only be unable to outvote the United States in the League of Nations assembly and council but the influence of the United States in the league would be paramount to that of the British or any other nation, Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, a league advocate, declared in the Senate this afternoon. McCumber voiced opposition to the amendment sponsored by Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican, of California, which would equalize the one vote the United States has in the league assembly with the six votes possessed by the British empire. He contended that the British could not out-vote the United States and charged Johnson and other supporters of the amendment with "misleading the public." "Senators are shouting from the house tops that Great Britain has backed the treaty because Canada, Australia, not as a part of Great Britain but as wholly self-governing nations, who fought this grim war to a finish, demand and receive a recognition equal to that of a score of other little insignificant states that never turned a hand to safeguard the world when all that civilization holds dear was at stake. "At a mere nod from the United States our begotten child, Panama; our foster child, Cuba; our wards, Nicaragua, Haiti, Guatemala, Honduras, Uruguay, Ecuador, Bolivia, Peru, and even Brazil declared war on Germany. If by the mere raising of a finger these ten countries could beat us against a country that had certainly committed no offense against them, can any unprejudiced mind fail to understand that it is our duty to every country in the Western Hemisphere would follow our lead."

Boersianer's Comment on Business

By BOERSIANER. A recurrent abnormal call money rate—12 per cent has been a technical negative to business speculation. Business despite steel and mining strikes, continues at concert pitch in lines not directly affected by labor troubles. In all such industries the market is in a state of uncertainty and it is difficult to keep pace with demands; thus money is heavily employed everywhere. "Big money" is never plentiful as at present. Its abundance more than meets commercial and financial requirements. Investment-wise it seems to be inelastic. Waving hands about the market, it is a preferred stock issue recommended by responsible firms are quickly absorbed. It follows that the abnormal call rates do not conform to real monetary conditions. Artificial contrivance is an ever-ready explanation, but at present it is rendered less interesting by the perhaps significant campaign of the American acceptance council. To that purpose everything is grist that comes to the mill. Current conditions are making nationalistic sentiment a part of a pamphlet by a vice president of a Boston bank who advocates semi-royal schemes, plus a general substitution for the massed and unscientific stock exchange call loan, which declares a "so-called call loan" is only callable in fair weather, and is only a mortgage on an asset outside of a mortgage a bank can hold. It seems remarkable that this form of investment has continued to be regarded as a satisfactory second reserve, and that this impression still persists in spite of the many superior qualities of a readily marketable liquid asset.
