

Scenes on the President-Elect's Travels

© Publishers' Photo Service.

Looking across the Plaza del Congreso in Buenos Aires. A great bronze condor ornaments the ballustrade in the foreground.

An impression of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, that will greet President-elect Hoover when he arrives on the battleship Utah on his goodwill tour. It shows the beautiful Botofoga Bay, rimmed by rugged hills and peaks. © E. M. Newman.

Scenes on the Trans-Andean Railroad by which the President-elect's party is journeying from the west to the east coast of South America.

A view of the busy harbor of Valparaiso, Chile, and monumental structures on the waterfront.

Towering palms along a drive in Rio de Janeiro. © E. M. Newman.

The Plaza and Cathedral in Montevideo, capital city of Uruguay. © E. M. Newman.

Another view of Rio de Janeiro, showing the harbor and part of the modern residential section.

The Argentine Capitol, fronting on the Plaza del Congreso, in Buenos Aires.

At the race course in Buenos Aires, one of the attractions of the Argentine capital Mr. Hoover probably will not see. © E. M. Newman.

