

MR. HAYES AT A KANSAS FAIR.

A WITTY SPEECH TO THE CROWD. GOVERNOR ST. JOHN EULOGIZES THE MARVELOUS GROWTH OF KANSAS AND THE PRESIDENT COMMENTS THEREON.

President Hayes and the party traveling with him visited the county fair at Neosho Falls, Kan., yesterday, at which 12,000 people had assembled. Governor St. John made the first speech, citing many figures in regard to the rapid progress of Kansas. The President then spoke at length, his remarks being spiced with wit and eliciting a great deal of laughter. He then took up the question of State Rights and spoke thereon.

KANSAS WELL EULOGIZED.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO ACQUAINT THE COUNTRY WITH THE GLORIES OF THE STATE WELL IMPROVED—THE SPEECHES.

NEOSHO FALLS, Kan., Sept. 25.—This place was thronged today by a crowd of not less than 12,000 people who had assembled to welcome the President and General Sherman. Soon after 10 o'clock the distinguished visitors disembarked from the train and proceeded to the fair grounds, a mile distant, in carriages. The President and General Sherman were escorted by the Capital Guards of Neosho, headed by the band of the 16th United States Infantry, and by a company of boys less than twelve years old, in the uniform of Zouaves. The fair grounds were handsomely decorated. John L. Gooden in a brief speech extended a welcome to the President on behalf of the Fair Association.

GOVERNOR ST. JOHN THEN DELIVERED AN ADDRESS, OF WHICH THE FOLLOWING IS AN EXTRACT:

In January, 1861, Kansas was admitted as one of the States of the Union. At that time she was a vast, unpopulated wilderness. Let us see, for the information of our countrymen, how she has grown since that time. Her population in 1879 was 1,200,000. Her territory was 100,000 square miles. Her population in 1879 was 1,200,000. Her territory was 100,000 square miles. Her population in 1879 was 1,200,000. Her territory was 100,000 square miles.

A SCHOOL JUBILEE.

TWENTY THOUSAND CHILDREN AND FORTY THOUSAND SPECTATORS CELEBRATE THE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BALTIMORE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—The spot selected for the celebration of the fifth year of the public schools of Baltimore today was about half a mile from the Madison House—a circular basin of ten or twelve acres, entirely surrounded by a gentle elevation of wooded land. The main stand, made to seat several hundred persons, was on the north segment of the basin, and in front of it were two long rows of seats for 12,000 children. From 7:30 a. m. until 2 p. m. every line of street cars leading to the Park was crowded with children and adults, and avenues leading toward the principal park entrance were thronged with carriages and wagons, all filled with people. The sidewalks were crowded with people, and the air was filled with the sound of music and the voices of children.

OAKLAND'S WELCOME TO GRANT.

AN ELABORATE DISPLAY. AN EFFORT MADE TO OUTDO SAN FRANCISCO IN HOSPITALITY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The Public Banquet Committee waited on General Grant to-day, with regard to fixing a date for the banquet. The General said that he was awaiting a despatch from General Sherman, relative to the meeting of the veterans of the Army of the Tennessee. He intended to go to Yosemite next week, and his future movements would depend upon the nature of the General's reply. He preferred that the committee should wait until his return from Yosemite before fixing a date.

MINNESOTA DEMOCRATS.

EDMUND RICE FOR GOVERNOR—THE CONVENTION PERPLEXED ABOUT THE PLATFORM.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 25.—The Democratic State Convention met here at noon to-day, and effected temporary organization by electing James B. Brisson, of St. Paul, president, and Budd Revere, of Minneapolis, secretary. Committees were appointed after which a recess was taken until 2:30 p. m.

A TAMMANY VIEW OF THE CAMPAIGN.

TILDEN'S OBJECT IN DIVIDING THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY—HIS HAND SEEN IN THE STATE COMMITTEE.

One of the prominent members of Tammany Hall, who has adhered to Mr. Kelly in his bid, said yesterday: "The action of the Democratic State Committee in refusing to call the names of the Tammany members on the roll, and in excluding them from the committee was expedient, but it certainly was not authorized. The committee had no more right to exclude these members than a board of directors has to turn out any of its members who have done nothing wrong."

ENTHUSIASTIC REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Hild Assembly District Council and Hoskins Committee Club was held last evening at their rooms at No. 223 Grand street. A handsome banner thirty feet long by twenty feet wide, bearing the name and portrait of Mr. Cobden, was placed across the street, and music, Greek fire and the cheers of a large crowd. The speakers of the evening were Francis Lambert, C. A. L. Goddard, Charles Abbott, William Freeman and Alexander M. Howland.
